CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Walter Tracey and wife were over from Brew's Valley Saturday. Walter bubbles some with that chopped foot. He says he did not try to cut it purposely, like they do over in Klamath, when they "git 'nigion."

Remember the Opera Friday night. You will get a race treat.

D. P. Malloy, who made a trip to Portland, via Klamath, has returned home. He was accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Anna Heidrick, who will visit in Lakeview for a while.

If you want hunter's supplies of any kind, shot guns, shells and powder, call at Bailey and Massingill's. 34tf

A California boy was bitten on the sole of his foot by a rattler, and the cut cle as so thick from going bare-foot that the snake's fangs did not penetrate it and for that reason escaped with no ill effects.

School supplies of all kinds on sale at Thornton's drug store.

A Klamath man got the idea that God told him to cut off his hand, and did so and was nearly dead when found. It is strange what religious mania will cause people to do.

New line of Hammocks at Bailey & Massingill's 34tf

The man who never advertises has almost ceased to exist. Solicitors run across him occasionally, but he is usually too small for their bait. He hasn't anything worth exploiting.

Call at Lakeview Merc. Co. and look at Fireless cookers.

The law of Oregon provides that wife beating means so many lashes at the whipping post for punishment. Well, a man who beats his wife under any circumstances deserves the knout good and hard.

Electric irons, all kinds at Lakeview Merc. Co.

Chas Umbach is putting the finishing touches on his fine new office building.

A girl only 13 years of age was recently married in Washington to a man of 21, with the consent of her parents. In Oregon, however, a girl must be 15, and a boy 18, even with the consent of parents, before they can marry, and without such consent must wait until both are of legal age.

A large assortment of trunks just received at Bailey & Massingill's 34tf

How many boys of the present day are taught this lesson: My son, follow not the footsteps of the loafer, and make no example of him who was born tired, for verily I say unto you, their business is over stocked and the seats in these corners are all taken and the whittling places are all occupied; it is better to saw wood at two bits a cord than to whittle in a loafing match and cuss the government. My son while thou hast left in thy skull the sense of a pay bird break away from the cigarette habit for lo the breath stinketh like a glue factory and the whole appearance is less than a stone dummy. Yea thou art a cipher with the rim knocked off.

A lady in Albany, Ore., submitted to an operation in Oklahoma 14 months ago, and has since complained of constant pain. Another operation revealed a sponge, left there by the Oklahoma surgeons. It is now reported the lady will recover.

The Pavilla Company
The Pavilla Dramatic and Musical Comedy Co., which are highly praised by the Klamath press, will appear in the Opera House for three nights, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd.

The company will present an unusual collection of Comedies, Operettas and Dramas, interspersed with special features.

J. V. Houston, manager of the Klamath Fall Opera House writes Messrs Ayres & Price as follows:

"The Pavilla Family, who have just closed a week with me, have given perfect satisfaction, and is the best company in their respective line, that has appeared here for several years. They will certainly please you."

They promise no long winded dramas, no waiting between acts, and something doing all the time.

Wider Streets Needed

Portland has begun the process of widening its streets. There is need of it surely. And the same can be said of Lakeview. Our narrow streets and sidewalks are none too wide now, and as the town grows they will be woefully inadequate to the needs of the public.

Delay in anything is bad, but it is positively dangerous when there is something wrong with your kidneys. Don't wait until to-morrow. Get something that is to be depended upon to help you promptly at such time. The one remedy above all others that we suggest is De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are antiseptic and almost instantly relieve backache, rheumatic pains and all bladder and kidney troubles. We sell them. Sold by Daly & Hal.

Indians Taking Allotments
The Klamath Herald says that Major H. G. Wilson, Superintendent of the Klamath Indian Reservation, is in that city accompanied by Mrs. Wilson. He states that the work of making allotments is still in the hands of Allotting Agent H. F. White and will likely be completed some time this fall.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured
"For twenty years I have suffered from a case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd, of Henrietta, Ky. "In February 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by Daly & Hal.
