"ROSE OF SAVOY" EVENT OF SEASON

The society event of the season took place at the Opera House, last Friday evening, when a crowded and pleased audience witnessed the production of Bordone's Lyric Opera, "Rose of Savoy, or Beautiful Italy," by local talent for the benefit of the Public Library, under direction and tutelage of Dr. R. H. Heritage.

The scene of the opera was laid in Milan, and delineated the contrast in the life of two sisters: One whom by chance of fortune was lifted into realms of the successful prima donna, where favors of wealth and all that makes life a succession of ease and comfort, were lavishly hers; while unknown to the former, the other sister battled with poverty, and eked out an existence as street singer and flower girl.

The unexpected meeting of the two sisters in the Milan dress-making parlors, the prima donna who came for her rich costumes, and the flower girl to dispose of her wares, was a nice piece of artistic work, on the part of Mesdames Smith, the prima donna, and Hall, the flower-girl, in the character of prima donna Mrs. Smith gave evidence of possessing histrionic talent of a high quality, while the sweet singing and portrayal of the unaffected and innocent village strolling flower girl by Mrs. Hall was highly appreciated by the audience. The part taken by Mrs. Gowan, as head modiste of the dress-making parlors, was also a nice piece of pains-taking work, and her singing and acting were appropriate to the part. Miss Mae Snider, as Lotta, the dressmaker's assistant, attracted attention to detail in her artistic finish to all her work, and did. Several of the 17 song girls whose names we did not learn in the chorus possess fine voices that only need training to place them in the front rank of home talent.

Miss Emily Ayres as the pianist, though young in years was fully equal to the demands of the occasion.

The following is a cast of characters: Catrina, A Prima Donna, Mrs. E. H. Smith; Jacqueline, A Flower Girl, Mrs. T. V. Hall; Theresa, Head Modiste, Mrs. W. A. Gowan; Lotta, A Dress Maker, Miss Mae Snider; Lina, A Milliner, Miss Etta Tatro; Jeanne, A Customer, Miss Amra Glenn.

The following is a list of the ladies of the opera:

Cuba Amick, Laura Duke, Mrs. W. A. Gowan, Nellie Harvey, Bertha Reynolds, Mae Snider, Mae Barnea, Mrs. A. Florence, Mrs. T. V. Hall, Lena McShane, Millie Reynolds, Etta Tatro, Mrs. W. C. Counter Amra Glenn, Mabel Hackney, Marie McShane, Mrs. E. H. Smith, Mrs. W. R. Boyd, Laura Chandler.

The opening of the opera was done by Dr. Heritage, who sang several songs appropriate to his voice in fine form. He was accompanied at the piano by Clarence Price, upon whom Dr. Heritage bestowed worthy approval of his work in a few well chosen words.

The songs were: "The Torredor's Song," from "Carmens" by Bizet; "The Two Grenadiers" written by Heine, and set to music by Schumann, giving a striking illustration of the love the soldiers of the Old Guard bore the Emperor Napoleon; "Honor and Arms" from "Samson" by Haendel; "The Earl King," by Schubert, and "The Wretched Man" (Einaudi) by Verdi.

All in all it was a most pleasing entertainment, and a very creditable effort on the part of all participants.

FIRE FIGHTERS LOST IN WOODS

One Eats Dozens of Bears and Another Prepares to Hang Himself

Forest Supervisor Ingram tells several amusing incidents of his improvised fire-fighters, who were not altogether of the stuff of which woodsmen are made. One man named Kelley, of Paisley, wanted to do the Teddy act and hunt a bear. He was given permission, and told to hurry, as the party was about to break camp.

The hours flew by and no Kelley, nor bear. Ingram thought perhaps Kelley had called some one "Thou, old Bald Head" some day and that the bears had eaten him up. A posse was started out to hunt him, and after an absence of 36 hours, he was found nearly starved and with his throat all swelled and parched, as he had nothing to eat after he got lost. Meanwhile he insisted he had killed from one to a dozen bear and had eaten them all.

Another chap, named McMillan, of Prineville, started out to find his horse just outside of camp; and that was the last seen of him, until another posse located him in a dazed condition next morning. He thought he was a goner, and had written a note to his mother saying: "I am lost. Rather than starve I shall hang myself." The boys got hold of it and had endless sport at his expense.

New Woodman Band

The new Woodman Band made their first appearance on the streets last Friday evening, under the direction of Prof. Wallace. They played in front of the opera house before the opening of the entertainment given for the benefit of the library. The boys gave a very creditable performance, considering the nervousness always manifested on "first nights," whether on the street or on the stage.

A salve good for anything where a salve can be used—that's De Witt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve. It cleans thoroughly, keeps the pores open and heals quickly. It is good for anything where a salve is needed. It cools and soothes and is especially good for piles. We sell and recommend it. For sale by Daly and Hall.

THE PAVILLA FAMILY PUT UP A PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

The Pavilla Family gave a well-received entertainment Tuesday and Wednesday nights and will give another tonight, the leading farce to be: "The Susceptibilities of Mr. Mouser." Lack of time and space forbid giving this excellent company deserved mention. Mr. Pavilla has that finish to all his humor that reminds one strongly of Joe Jefferson. Mrs. Pavilla is an artist, and Master and Miss Pavilla, though still in their early teens, are ripe in acting, singing and dancing. The young lady is also one of the best lady acrobats and contortionists we ever saw. Little Doris is a wonderful singer, and to see her and Mizie in the juvenile "Romeo and Juliet," alone is worth the price of admission. So sweet and pretty. They promise to come again and will be welcome. Those who failed to attend missed a treat. The neighboring press need not hesitate to commend this company in advance of performance, as they will make good.

Dry Farming Samples

Joe Ambrose, the desert farmer, brought us in some fine samples of plump large headed wheat, barley, millet and flint peas, all grown on dry land, without irrigation. If any man's land can show better samples anywhere we will stand convicted as an abashed disciple of Ananias.

THRESHING MACHINE AND WHEAT BURN

The new threshing machine belonging to S. P. Chandler, that he had just brought over from Crooked Creek caught fire Tuesday afternoon, evidently from inside friction. It got such a start before it was noticed that it was impossible to save it. It was a total loss, and uninsured. The fire also consumed 500 bushels of wheat belonging to C.A. Rehart. The old machine of Mr. Chandler is now at work between here and New Pine Creek.

A Traveling Man's Experience

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There's a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a deathlike look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her rubbing her hands and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by Daly and Hall.

OUR NEIGHBORS IN THE NORTHERN END OF THE COUNTY PREPARING FOR A BOOM

The northern end of the county has taken steps towards letting the outside world know of its advantages, which is a most commendable effort. Word was phoned to Lakeview to induce some of our leading business men to attend the meeting, but the shortness of the notice and pressing business prevented. The meeting was held at Paisley last Saturday week.

The people of Paisley and Silver Lake, however, united in the effort, and organized the Lake County Board of Commerce, with the purpose of assisting prospective settlers in locating on public lands, and to furnish information to all enquirers as to the resources; to assist prospective purchasers in securing lands for sale; to advertise the resources of the county in any way deemed desirable or advisable; to secure plats and a list of all lands available for settlement by homesteading, purchase or otherwise; to list lands offered for sale, at a nominal cost; and to cooperate with other similar organizations in this and other matters of interest, well-being and development of this region.

The prime-movers and officers of the Board are as follows:

President, Hon. Virgil Conn, of Paisley.

First Vice President, F. M. Christman, of Silver Lake.

Second Vice President, Lawrence S. Ainsworth, of Paisley.

Secretary, Dr. A. A. Witham, of Paisley.

Treasure, S. A. Lester, of Silver Lake.

Executive committee for Silver Lake, F. M. Christman, H. Adams, and S. A. Lester.

Executive committee for Paisley, Hon. Virgil Conn, John S. Sprague, and Dr. A. A. Witham.

The Silver Lake Leader in commenting on the objects of the organization says:

It is the intention of the Board to place a mile in the field at once to travel over the county and interview the citizens, procuring data for a concise, truthful, and plain write-up of every section, setting forth the advantages of our county and what we have to offer intending settlers. This matter, after being gathered together will be printed in pamphlet form embellished with scenes and views to most fully illustrate our county and its resources. It is intended that these pamphlets shall be used for free distribution by our citizens who wish to send them abroad as well as place them at the Seattle exposition next year in connection with the farm products exhibit now being gotten under way.

The originators of this Board are men who stand high in their communities and are the leading business men in their respective sections. Their motive in making this move is one solely for the purpose of seeing our county settle up with good, industrious settlers upon lands which now lay vacant or land which are offered for sale, and that when other prospective settlers or buyers come that they can have some one to whom they can rely upon and get true information free from any taint of graft.

Such an organization has long been needed, and while it will take some little time to get matters which the Board has taken up into proper shape, yet that preparatory time will soon pass away, and then the direct benefit of the Board's efforts will be felt.

With our State Railroad Commission stirring up farmers and telling him unless he takes immediate steps to construct a railroad into Central Oregon and send some of the immense profits he is making off his Southern Pacific lines in this State at home they will cut his freights. With Hill coming to Portland in a few days at which time he is expected to say that work will soon commence on a road to the Des Chutes, as well as rumors of a line being extended from California through Southern Lake County on eastward, makes it an opportune time to tell the people everywhere of our climate, of our soil, of our public lands awaiting settlement, our undeveloped mines, our immense forests, as well as many other things which, when developed, to make a country great.
