KICKED DOOR OPEN, GOT EYES FULL OF RED PEPPER

Con Finacune kicked Eli's restaurant door open late last Wednesday night because he was hungry. He was met by the irate Chinaman, who threw red pepper in his eyes. He had Eli arrested Thursday and called for a jury trial. It was granted and the case tried before Judge Snider. The jury acquitted Eli, as they thought the offence justifiable under the circumstances. In addition to being defeated in the Courts he was fined $25 and costs for striking another Chinaman who knew nothing of the doings of Eli the previous night. Probably he thought all Chinamen looked alike to him.

RANCHER PARTIN BUYS A KLAMATH HOME

The Klamath Falls Daily Herald, of the 7th inst says: Jack Partin, one of the wealthy cattlemen of Summer Lake, has purchased the Cofer residence on Seventh and Washington streets and will move his family to this city, so that his children may attend the schools of this city.

Mr. Partin was in Klamath Falls in the 70's when the Land Office was located here. George Conn and Sam Cranston were the Register and Receiver of the office at that time, and it was through them he secured the government land, which is now part of his ranch in Lake County.
