High School Boys Win Baseball Game

Base ball enthusiasm still exists in Lakeview. Those who attended the game last Sunday will testify to the veracity of this statement. The opposing teams were the L. H. S. and the Lakeview regulars who were short a number of their star players. Notwithstanding this fact they played good ball and it was not without a real effort that the L. H. S. carried off the honors of the day in a score of 9 to 3.

The game throughout was plainly a pitchers battle, and it must here be said that Williams, who twirled for the regulars, handled the ball in no awkward manner. He was apparently as strong at the finish as in the beginning of the contest. Dykeman and Drenkel, of the L. H. S., also performed in an admirable manner, neither allowing a base on balls. While the team work of the L. H. S. is not up to the standard the boys are fast improving and ere long will be prepared to cross bats with any team—that too, with perfect confidence in their ability to "deliver the goods."

Only one accident occurred during the contest. Walter Dykeman, in a wild attempt to meet the ball, was struck on the head, and rendered unconscious for a few seconds. Following is the line up and score.

SADDLE HORSES FETCH $70 A HEAD IN FRISCO

Burns Herald: W. W. Brown, the Wagonite stockman was here for several days this week visiting friends and looking after some business affairs. He desired to purchase a few saddle horses. Mr. Brown contracted his horses last spring to San Francisco dealers for $70 per head and that firm has taken all he has to sell this year, and expressed a desire to contract for next spring.

RAILROAD SURVEYORS CAMPED NEAR MERRILL

A surveying crew of 30 or 40 men is being established near Merrill. It is believed they are to run a line from some point near Klamath to Alturas. The route is not yet determined, but it may be decided to run it through Lake County, if a better and easier grade is found this way.

Personal Mention

Col Frank J. Handen of Manila, P. I. was one of the distinguished guests at Hotel Lakeview Tuesday. We did not learn whether he was in the cavalry or artillery service, but probably the former, as Uncle Sam, these days is making big drafts on all the famous Eastern Oregon horses he can secure.

Mrs. L. F. Conn returned Monday from an extended visit at New Port on the coast, where she went for the benefit of the health of her little daughter. She spent the last few weeks with her parents at Dallas, Oregon.

Attorney Conn, who had an attack of erysipelas and was confined to his room several days last week, got out for the first time last Friday.

Ed. and Jimmie Young were in town Monday. They left Tuesday morning to join the beef drive.

William Mikel carries his arm in a sling as the result of a fall received while on an expedition to Black Cap last Saturday evening.

Chief Engineer Rice of the Oregon Valley Land Co. was made happy Tuesday night by the arrival of his mother, brother, and sister. Mrs. E. M. Rice, Mrs. Mabel Rice, and Bert Rice, direct from Palmville, Ky. They are now residing in the Snelling residence, a recent purchase of Mr. Rice, for their occupancy.

Clarence Dixon is spending a few days in town this week.

Mrs. Owen McKendree and children departed last Saturday for Ashland, where she will make an extended visit with her parents. Mr. McKendree accompanied her to the railroad.

Guy Cronmiller has accepted a position with the Autia Hardware Co.

Miss Edna Penland, who has been quite ill for the past several days is now able to be up.

W. H. Gillam, the noted mining engineer now operating at Goldrun, left yesterday morning for his home at Walla Walla, Wash. on a visit to his father. He will be gone about three weeks.

C. W. Dent and family arrived in town Tuesday from their Adel ranch to place the children in school.

Messrs. Snelling, Bailey, Rehart and Mosgrove have gone out on a hunting trip.

E. M. Brattain, who has been in Oakland for a couple of years has returned, and will spend the winter with his family in Lakeview.

Roy Shirk drove the new auto down to Alturas Monday, taking his cousin J. L. Shirk, to his home on a hurry call on account of the illness of the latter's child.

J. S. Lane is said to be very ill. His many friends hope it will not develop into serious complications.

Walter Tracey, of Drews Valley, is in town. He is on crutches as his foot is quite sore, but is healing. He has moved his family to town to get the benefit of our fine schools.

Maj. Fine wife and child are in town from Plush.

Miss Alice Lindsey came up from Pine Creek Sunday.

Clyde Loftus is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. J. N. Fitzgerald came over from Plush first of the week.

E. E. Linville, of the Red Livery stable, drove over to Klamath last week with C. O. Pollard a land office inspector who had been inspecting a number of homesteads in this county, and who has gone to Klamath for the same purpose.

catching over 300 speckled beauties. The Examiner saw some of them and does not dare say how large they were, as we do not want our credibility doubted.

Miss Ida Howard of Drews Valley is in Lakeview on land business.

Kicked by a Horse

Dick Mutholland, a prominent stockman of Crook county had a horse kick him in the face. His nasal bones were so badly mashed that most of them had to be removed. The Journal says he is about town as though nothing had happened, though his nose is bandaged.

DOINGS IN THE POLICE COURT

A teamster filled with booze Thursday attempted to straighten out a 6-horse team and 2 wagons and in his maddened condition was unable to do so. He began to beat the horses which caused them to run, starting at the rear of the Mammoth stables on Main street. He hung on to one of the horses yelling "whoa!" like a Comanche Indian. He and the team were finally stopped at Cheny's Harness shop. No damage was done but it created a big excitement for a few moments. He was placed in the calaboose over night.

A young man, whose name we did not learn—this is a warning—lost a $50 check in the Red Light region Sunday night and made complaint to the court with the result that the same was "found" later and returned to him.

On Thursday Geo. Nolde and R. B. McMartin got into a dispute, the former appearing to be the aggressor. Blows followed and Nolde got his lower jaw broken on each side of his chin. McMartin got fined a small amount, it being understood that the latter was to help out on doctor's bills.

On Saturday there was more business before Judge Snider. Two men got into a fight, and both got licked and both got fined. The strange part of it all is that it actually took two men to make one fight. Some times it takes more than two dogs to make one fight.

In some manner unknown to the authorities one of the "lady injuns" camped on the hill, got full of tarantula juice last Thursday night and made the welkin ring, and a lot of other things. She cleaned out the rancher's buck, squaw and papoose. She was finally rounded up by Marsh H. Tonningesen and placed in the cooler, and next day was ready to do washing for her customers, just as though nothing had happened.

Lowe's Madison Square Theatre Co., is booked to show at the Opera House, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, Sept. 23rd, 24th, and 25th. Their bills state they will produce new plays at popular prices. They promise a first class performance, and if not satisfied will refund your money. That looks like a fair proposition.

The alfalfa crop of Surprise valley is reported the largest in the history of that "gem of the Mountains." It is said the price of seed will be 15 cents, which will bring more cash into the pockets of the farmers over there than all the other products combined. We of Modoc, at least most of us, do not appreciate the paradise in which we live.
