Our Printing Gets Business

MONEY paid out for good printing—the kind that brings results—is just as much and just as good an investment as that put into goods on your shelves, or the material and machinery in your plant. While that money paid out for the ordinary kind, is money wasted, thrown away, just as it would be if spent in a midnight debauch. Come After the Estate Men

F. S. Parker, Wm. Noder, and Cameron, attendants from the Inmate asylum, at Salem, arrived in town Saturday, and left Monday morning with the inmate, W. O. Hall and John Westlake. That is a great graft for some, taking the removing of the inmate from the county officials, and good attendants all over the State to gather up the inmate.

Maclin
Repeating Shotgun

This new 6-shot model is the simplest, surest, and fastest 12-gauge repeater made. It has the solid top, side ejection and double extractors—special Maclin features of comfort and convenience. The Maclin breech keeps the action clean and the shells dry—keeps out rain, snow, dirt, leaves twigs and sand.

The new take-down construction allows you to take apart in ten seconds for cleaning or packing, yet the joint is always as firm and rigid as in a solid frame, non-take-down gun. The fast ejector fits your hand and helps quick operation.

The fall choked guns are guaranteed close-shooting, hard-hitting guns, and are well suited for ducks, geese, foxes and all migratory work.

A circular giving large illustration, with full description of this handsome new gun, sent free on request of with complete 136-page catalog for 3 stamps.

THE DEBUTANTE AT BRIDGE.

Let's see, what's trumps—oh, Grace, you hat's a dear, And so beaming too! Girl, did you hear That Clara Gotrox is engaged at last. And to a count with a dreadful pal! And not a penny to his tithed name? (I dote on bridge, it's such a clever game.)

Let's see, what's trumps? There's Catherine over there, And clothe me, I hear she dyes her hair And paints—but I might, too, with such a face! (Oh, partner, did I really trump your ace?)

Who is that freak three tables to the right? I saw her at the Wilbur-Brown's last night. Some parvenu no doubt, and goodness knows I think a blacksmith must design her clothes. (Are horis or diamonds trumps? Oh, that's a fact; It's clothe!) Some girls are so devoid of tact!

That Carlton creature in the last year's hat! Just makes me mad as mad—she's such a cat And nearly snaps your head off if you don't. (Keep absolutely dumb. Of course I won't know.)

Oh, girls, Jack's so devoted it's a joke. He's nullo my shadow—what! Did I revoke? Well, anyway I think it's mean to take Three tricks from me for just that sm't mistake.

Bridge torres me frightfully, I'm bound to say. Though Jack says it's astounding how I play. Why will some hostesses invite such fears? Oh, dear! My head again? Let's see, what's trumps?

—Ella Bentley in Puck.

Grandma's Destination in Doubt.

Ethel is of the mature age of five. Recently her grandmother concluded that it devolved on her to instruct the child in religious matters. "You must be a good girl, Ethel," she said. "then you will go to heaven when you die."

Ethel seemed scarcely pleased with this reward for exceptional conduct. "Don't you want to go to heaven?" asked grandma, with a look of reproach.

"Oh, I don't know," temporized Ethel. "I guess not."

"Why not?" demanded grandma severely.

"Because maybe I couldn't get out," answered Ethel.

"You wouldn't want to get out," replied grandma.

"Oh, yes, I should," returned Ethel, with conviction.

"No," argued grandma, "you would not. Why should you want to get out of heaven?"

"Why," answered Ethel, "I guess I'd want to go and see you once in awhile, wouldn't I?"—Woman's Home Companion.

Overheard in the Barnyard.

"I can't kiss you, dear, unless you stop putting."

Mr. Green's Waterloo.

Mr. Green had been paying $4 a week for board. His appetite constantly increased. Finally his landlady saw that she must either sell out and quit or raise her boarder's rate. One day after watching him feverishly devouring plateful after plateful she plucked up courage and said: "Mr. Green, I shall have to raise your board to $5."

Mr. Green looked up, with a start. Then in a tone of consternation he said: "Oh, Mrs. Small, don't! It's as much as I can do now to eat $4 worth."

—Woman's Home Companion.

Screened.

They sat in the dim parlor. "One kiss," he pleaded. "Nonsense!" exclaimed the pretty girl in a teasing mood. "Some one might see us."

"Who?"

"Why, the clock, for instance. That has a face."

"Yes, but that clock is as considerate as the moon that goes under a cloud. It keeps its face covered with its hands."—Minneapolis Journal.

Then the Fight Began.

"Well," said Mrs. Casey proudly, "my Dennis was wan o' the palhbearers at the funeral o' the rich Michael Hooligan t'day."

"Aye," retorted Mrs. Cassidy jealously, "'twas well fitted for the job yer husband was. Sure he's used to carryin' the bier that some wan else pays for!"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Strictly Appropriate.

"Mrs. Gossip is awful mad."

"Why?"

"She asked all her friends to give her something characteristic to start her new greenery with, and they all sent her rubber plants."—Baltimore American.

A Certainty.

"Papa, when will the world come to an end?"

"Probably, my boy, some Sunday morning when I can sleep as long as I want to and have left orders not to be called."—New York Life.

The Limit.
