L. N. Wiley, of Montgomery county, Illinois is the guest of his cousin L. A. Carriger, the West side farmer. He is very much pleased with the country, but is here only on a visit of a few weeks, and has no intention of locating.

Sheep lined coats and vests at B. & M's.

Wm. Hampton, of Paisley, has been in town the past week or so. He says there is no question but that we have a fine court house, but at the same time he insists it would occupy a more slightly place on top of the hill at Paisley.

Winter caps at B. & M's.

Last Friday, Col. Light, of the Hotel Lakeview, whose republican proclivities are very pronounced, was engaged in a friendly game of pedro, with a number of friends. Contrary to the usual order of things the cards went unanimously against him. He was at a loss to account for this until he discovered some one had attached a Bryan pin to his coat tail. He says that word hoodoo even the most devoted of the followers of "The Peerless One," let alone a dyed-in-the-wool republican!

The Lakeview Citizens Band gave an open-air concert Tuesday evening in front of Hotel Lakeview. They rendered several new pieces which were greatly appreciated by the crowd that congregated to listen.

Roy D. Butler, who left here last summer to go to Coos Bay, has returned and is glad to get back. He says that for ground floor opportunities there is no place equal to this in the West. He has travelled extensively as a commercial salesman and knows the entire Pacific coast well, and is satisfied to remain right in Lakeview in the future.

E. W. Eyanson, of Rabbit Creek is in town today on business before the land office. Mr. Eyanson is a strong believer in the future of Lake county, and is pinning his faith to it. He is opening up a desert farm and says the dry weather this year is not at all discouraging to him, as he knows it is a condition not wholly confined to this locality.

Messrs. Snelling, Ingram, Bailey, and Musgrove returned Tuesday evening from their hunting trip. They secured seven deer but got no bear. Saw fresh tracks in plenty but they are very shy and can not be reached without dogs. They had a good time, found lots of huckleberries, and report the woods alive with hunters.

Willie Barclay the Indian with a bad heart, accused of murdering Sid Jacobs, the white man has, been taken to Portland by the U. S. authorities for trial. Since his capture an attempt has been made by some other Indians to kill John Little John and his wife. The latter is an old man, who always was friendly to the whites and the authorities formation of the murder, which increased the odds so that his life was endangered. He has been taken to the Agency, and every precaution will be taken to protect him.

The Bonanza Bulletin in commenting on the killing of a calf belonging to R. K. Funk says that is a common practice over there, except they take the hind quarters and sell the rest and the hide, too.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT IN HONOR OF MASONIC BROTHER

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Lakeview Lodge, No. 71, A. F. & A. M. Lakeview Oregon & Brethren:

Your committee heretofore appointed for this purpose submit the following:

Our worthy brother James T. Fitzgerald has been called from Labor to Rest. "The Will of God be done, so mote it be."

We as members of the Lodge have lost an honored brother, whom we miss from our ranks. An individual we have lost one, to whom we were attached by the ties of friendship and the respect due him for his manhood and sterling worth.

This Community in which he lived so long, knows that it has lost one of its most upright and honorable men, and with us mourns his loss—and offers its Condolence to the remaining relatives of our departed brother.

Resolved, that the foregoing be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge, a certified Copy be sent to the relatives, and that the same be published in our local newspaper.

Fraternally,
J. Frankl
Chas. Umbach
L. Arner

Plans for a Cheap Bungalow

R. A. Burns, the architect and contractor, son of A. L. Burns, the business man, on Main St., informs the Examiner he has a plan for a bungalow, with four rooms of good size, which can be constructed here, complete for $750, including bath room and pantry, excepting the fixtures.

A Healthy Family

"Our whole family has enjoyed good health since we began using Dr. King's New Life Pills, three years ago," says L. A. Bartlett, of Rora route 1, Guilford, Maine. They cleanse and tone the system in a gentle way that does you good. 25c. at A. L. Thornton's drug store.

THE LA MODE OPENING WAS A VERY PLEASING AFFAIR

The Fall opening at La Mode last Wednesday was a very pleasant event and would have been a credit to any town of more than 100 inhabitants. The window was a work of art. A lattice intertwined with vines and California poppies formed a background for the display of the latest novelties in millinery, neckwear, etc. Numerous bouquets of china asters, sweet peas and other flowers, were placed about the store and work room, which combined with the bright colorings of the millinery and costumes made a very pleasing effect.

The work room was transformed into a reception room, where lemonade and cake were dispensed. Those assisting Mrs. Neilson in serving were Mesdames Wm. Harvey, May Britsholder, C. D. Cessions and Miss Ethel Clark.

Prof. Price presided at the piano, and took it all on a very pleasant afternoon was given the ladies of Lakeview. Those who failed to attend missed a treat.

Bought a Mountain Ranch

Old Parsons, recently from Hood River, and his two sons from St. Paul, Minn., have purchased a tract of land in the mountains east of town and will engage in gardening and fruit growing. They are much pleased with their purchase, and having had experience, will, no doubt, make a success of the venture.

The deal was made through the Pacific Land Company.

THE INSANE MEN ALL RIGHT

Send a Letter to Sheriff Dent Expressing Satisfaction

Sheriff Dent received the following letter from Wilson O. Hall, one of the insane men recently sent to the asylum in Salem:

Salem, Oregon, Sept. 24, 1908.

Albert Dent,

Lakeview, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—We arrived here O. K. I am feeling fine, so is Mr. Westlake. He says that he never felt better in his life. Lots of good reading matter. One week past and I hardly realize it. The service and accommodation here, is all right, so far as I can see. Every thing very agreeable and pleasant.

Yours respectfully,

WILSON HALL.

P. S.—Remember me to any that care to know of my welfare. Drop me a line.

Fine Summer Lake Fruit

James Foster, of Summer Lake, sent Mrs. A. J. Neilson some fine pears, peaches and plums from his orchard. The Examiner can vouch for their quality, being the equal of any grown in California. The peaches were especially fine and large. Mr. Foster is an elderly gentleman who takes great pride in the care of his orchard.

LA MODE The Note of Distinction

You know what that means in a woman's dress or language or bearing—the indefinable something that sets one apart from the crowd. It is largely achieved by dress. I furnish goods which express personality and so give you that distinction.
