J. C. Oliver, former editor of the Herald, now one of the successful dry land farmers and dairymen of the West Side, was in town Saturday. Notwithstanding the unprecedented spell of dry weather that has prevailed here the last few months, he is not at all discouraged. He has grown some grain, and had a fair hay crop, which was fortunate for his dairy herd, as he has been compelled to feed them hay now for several weeks. He has a fair crop of potatoes and with high prices now prevailing will realize handsomely on them. He considers this a fine country for potatoes growing, in fact for all sorts of root crops. Alfalfa also does well, and this forage plant with root crops and a mild climate makes this an ideal region for the dairy business.

Card of Thanks

We extend our thanks to the people of Lakeview for their kindness to us in our recent affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Steele.

Lame Back

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the small of the back, and is easily cured by applying Chamberlain's Liniment two or three times a day and massaging the parts at each application. For sale by Daly and Hall.

POLITICAL MEETING

All persons interested in the election of Taft & Sherman are requested to meet at Sudder Hall this Thursday evening Oct. 15, 1908, at 7:30 o'clock. L. F. Conn, State Committeeman, W. A. Ma Stigill, Congressional Committeeman, F. P. Light, Chairman County Central Committee.

The Lakeview Shakespeare Club has resumed its winter studies, and elected new officers. Mrs. L. F. Conn, Pres.; Mrs. A. J. Neilon, V. P.; Mrs. C. E. Sherlock, Treas.; Mrs. Earnest Clark, Sec. "King Henry II." will be taken up at once, to be followed by "King Richard III" and other historical plays. Mrs. Conn, recently from Salt Lake City, has been engaged as tutor.

The following is a list of the ladies of the club: Mrs. J. N. Watson, Mrs. L. F. Conn, Mrs. Earnest Clark, Mrs. C. E. Sherlock, Mrs. May Batcheider, Mrs. A. J. Neilon, Mrs. W. R. Steele, Mrs. W. R. Boyd, Mrs. T. V. Hall, Miss Alice Applegate, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. J. E. Norin, Mrs. V. L. Smelling, Mrs. Chas. Fankner.

The Club will meet this (Thursday) evening at the home of Mrs. J. N. Watson.

A Krutzner, of Idaho is a new arrival. He at once went at work to build a skiff, and is now on Goose Lake making soundings with a view of placing the first steamer on the lake. If satisfied he contemplates building a 90-ton steamer, drawing 20 inches of water. A plan in order to make it useful to residents of Lakeview, as well as to those on the lake who are for freight and passenger business, he proposes to dredge the creek to Slush street bridge. Such an enterprise should pay, and considering the fact that the lake is 45 miles long and 15 miles wide, with the finest villa sites in the world on the west shore, it is a wonder no one has previously entered the field.

An autoline has been established between here and Likely, by W. L. Clapp, a new arrival in town. He has a 65-horse power, eight passenger car, and if the traffic warrants will add other machines. The car will make a daily round trip, leaving here at 8:30 p. m., arriving at Likely at 9 p. m., and leave on return trip as soon as train arrives from Reno. This service will be a big improvement over the long tedious stage ride necessary heretofore. The fare one way is $10, only $3 more than the stage fare.

Harry Peltz who came over from Klamath Falls with his Thomas Flyer last week says the road between the two places is so bad that cost of operation of the machine is greater than the receipts.

Maxwell and son are displaying some fine apples and pears that came from the orchards of Henry Leehman. Also some big potatoes of a fine quality grown on the same premises.

Robert Nelson, one of the successful dry land farmers of the West Side was in town Saturday with the finest span of mules we ever saw. They were bright bays about four years old and as sound and pump as percheron horses. They were the envy of all who saw them and if placed on the market would command a big price.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fisher who for some years past have operated a dairy at Drews Creek, will leave there this week and locate at Medford, in order to be near other members of their family. Their many friends here will be sorry to lose them, but wish them success in their new home.

The editor and wife are now permanently located in the J. B. Bernard home on West St.

The fine fall weather prevailing here for the last week or so makes it a joy to be alive.

Klamath Falls is rejoicing in the prospect that within a month stages in and out of that place California-wards will be a thing of the past.

The Indians of Harney county, who are reported never to fail in their weather prognostication, say: "Heap cold, heap snow this winter. Indian pony no stand him through; snow several feet deep." If that is what we may expect, wood-piles should be enlarged and extra clothing should be secured.

Last week The Examiner received a telegraphic order for 100 copies of its issue of Oct. 1st. Unfortunately we only had 50 copies left, but these, and many more were sent out, to spread good tidings of this favored land.

The guests of the Hotel Lakeview were all treated to a glass of fine new cider last Friday evening, by Mr. James Graves.

An auction sale of household furniture drew a big crowd to the north of Bieber's store Saturday. The goods belonged to the Joe Howard estate. T. J. Watson was the auctioneer.

The Degree of Honor will give a "Ghost Party" in the Masonic Hall, on Oct. 30, Halloween. A play will also be produced. Elaborate preparations are being made, so those fortunate enough to possess invitations will be favored with a treat.

Death of Frankie Steele

Frankie, the little four-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Steele, died Sunday at about one o'clock, after an illness of only a few days. The funeral was held in the Methodist Church Monday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. W. A. Hopkins, the Baptist minister. There was a very large attendance of neighbors and friends.
