Commercial Printing

WE use the best cuts, the best type, the best presses, the best ink, the best paper and the best workmen, in the production of our printing. THAT'S WHY

Our Printing Gets Business

MONEY paid out for good printing—the kind that brings results—is just as much and just as good an investment as that put into goods on your shelves, or the material and machinery in your plant. While that money paid out for the ordinary kind, is money wasted, thrown away, just as it would be if spent in a midnight debauch. And the result is largely the same, a sore head accompanied by a gone feeling, when you come to

IF YOU WANT RESULTS— TRY SOME OF OUR QUALITY

Eat What

You want of the food you need Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it. Also you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength. You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you. It would bankrupt us.

The dollar bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Unwise Combination.

To the mind of Mrs. Abigail Jennings there was a sort of disloyalty in admitting to any outsider that a native of Willowby could be really eccentric. As for anything beyond eccentricity, Mrs. Jennings would never have admitted it, even in the case of Miss Rachel Gregg, who was frankly called crazy by the summer visitors.

"Now, Mrs. Jennings," said one of the boarders, "do you really mean that you've never known Miss Gregg to do anything that you'd call crazy?"

"No, I haven't," said Mrs. Jennings, with a firm and unyielding expression about her prominent chin.

"Why, what do you think of her sending that bag of eggs over to the Corners to Mrs. Cole right in the box with her laundry work and never telling the stage driver and letting him throw the box right off?" inquired the summer boarder. "Mrs. Cole says there's one shirt waist she'll never be able to wear again."

"Well," said Mrs. Jennings calmly. "I should say about that as I have about a number of little things Rachel does and has done. She may lack in wisdom and forethought now and again. But, then, who doesn't. I'd like to know?"—Youth's Companion.

Showing Our Monkey Blood.

The batsman, congratulated on his home run, slapped himself proudly on the chest and began to boast of still finer home runs that he had made in the past.

"Did you see that gesture, the stricken breast?" said an ethnologist of Harvard. "Whenever we make that gesture in our vanity we prove the Darwinian theory up to the hilt."

"You know the gorilla. Kipling and Du Challa describe him—an enormous ape that in his indomitable bravado beats his breast with a sound like the rolling of the muffled drums of Memorial day.

"As big as a bull, as swift as a cat, as powerful as an elephant, the gorilla believes himself unconquerable, and in the vain glory of that belief he inflates his lungs and beats his swollen breast till the jungle rings like a gong."

"We in our moments of foolish and excessive vanity inflate our lungs and slap our swollen breasts."

"Thus, alas, we show the monkey blood in us!"—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Too Much Music.

"I like churches to provide fine music at all times," said a prominent clergyman, "but there are cases on record where the music has been given too prominent a place."

"An eloquent brother divine from South Carolina once told me that going to preach at a strange church he was taken aside by a deacon, who whispered:

"'Beg pardon, sir, but I must ask you not to preach longer than ten or twelve minutes. It's the music that the people come here for.'"

"That was wrong. But worse still was the case of a supply preacher in a church famous for its anthems and choruses. The stranger, not noticing the scraping and tuning of fiddles, rose and began to preach, when the choir leader jumped up and shouted angrily to him from the choir loft at the other end of the church:

"'Sit down, man! When it's your turn we'll tell you.'"

Jays of the Interne.

"If you could see some of the vicious home treatment applied to cuts," the young interne at Bellevue said, "you'd wonder at the comparatively few cases of tetanus. If a playful mongrel pup snaps at you, the east side knows that the only thing to do is to put some of the hair of the dog that did the biting—the hair must be from that particular dog—into the cut. They come with incisions reeking with all the fifth imaginable—the dirtiest cobwebs from the garret, for instance, which are even more popular as a poultice than those made of a chew of tobacco. Two boys came in recently the same day with cuts to which cigar butts had been bound down because, they explained, they don't chew tobacco. You can't convince the east side that it's wrong. Don't waste time, but clean the wound scientifically, pray for good luck and yell 'Next!'"—New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

English as Sung.

I live opposite to a school where music is carefully and constantly taught. The children have acquired the difficult art of dropping a semitone a minute. But the accent employed is even more interesting than the tone system. Here is a favorite school song:

Flahra, luvly flahra, in a garden yeh my see.

The rowsees there with their reuby lip, Fenks the 'unny by loves teh sep.

Teutips, teutips, ky as a butterly's wing, Merrygolds rich as the crahn of a king.

Rich as the crahn of a king, But none seh fair teh me.

None seh fair teh me, As these wildwood flahrs, Sweet wild flahrs.

—London Academy.

The Tip Terror.

"Give me a penny, sir, for something to eat."

"But you've got sixpence in your hand now. What's that for?"

"Oh, that's to tip the waiter, sir."—London Globe.

Beezumbots Bad as Dialect.

Southern people have much to be learned in the articles in the magazines, for example, in which northern contributors try to put out negro dialect! It's enough to give one the beezumbots.—Galveston News.

There is none made so great but he may both need help and service and stand in fear of the power and kindness even of the meaneast of mortals.

In many respects the Toledo Blade is the most remarkable weekly newspaper published in the United States. It is the only newspaper especially edited for National circulation. Furthermore, it is the cheapest newspaper in the world as will be explained to any person who will write us for terms. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven from the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 300,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the United States.
