

The Home of Santa Claus,

Toyland, November 26, 1908.

TO ALL THE GOOD CHILDREN OF LAKEVIEW AND VICINITY:

My Dear Children:

During all this year I have planned to come to Lakeview, where all of you could come and visit me. My intention was to make my headquarters at Biebers the most popular store in the town.

The recent storms have made Automobile travel impossible, so I had to make other arrangements and decided to send all Christmas presents which good children deserve to Biebers with my instructions to show them to you in time, so that you can select from this large assortment just what you like for Christmas. I sent to Biebers a bigger variety of presents than you ever saw before in Lakeview. They are all kinds of Dolls--Doll Buggies--Rubber Toys--Building Blocks--Humpty Dumpty Circuses--Games--Tea Sets--Printing Presses--Tool Chests--dominoes--Paint Boxes--doll's heads--all kinds of Mechanical Toys--Magic Lanterns--Books--Targets--Shaving Mugs--Fancy dishes, and a thousand other things suitable for Christmas presents for your Father, Mother, Sister, Brother, Relatives and Friends.

It may be, if the weather changes and I can come to Lakeview Christmas I will be very happy to meet you personally.

Your Friend,

SANTA CLAUS.

LOCAL LAND OFFICIALS FAVOR BEND MAN

In the Rosland correspondence of the Prineville Journal we had the following item: The officials at the general land office at Lakeview have passed favorably on the contest of Carl E. Wisve vs. the state desert section No. 11. These decisions seem to bring out the smiles all over this community.

The Cedarville Record says: We have recently seen a number of estimates on the population of Cedarville, giving it at from 700 to 1000. As a matter of fact the population is just about 500, probably not that. At the census taken two years ago there were hardly 500 people in an area of two square miles, including Cedarville and the population has grown but little, if any since then.

TURKEY SHOOT SCORE OF THE BOYS YESTERDAY

J. E. McDonough is holding a turkey shoot near the foot-hills east of Hotel Lakeview, and will continue it until after Thanksgiving. The distance is 200 yards. The result Tuesday was: C. H. Ingram, 2 birds; L. E. Cobb, 1; Arthur, 1; E. B. Ely, 1; Woods, 1; McKendree, 1. If we told the score, some of the shooters would want to shoot the editor, so we refrain.
