The Kangaroo Court

The Kangaroo Court held in the Methodist Church last Thursday evening was a declared success by all who attended and the house was filled with an appreciative audience. V. L. Snelling presided and gave honor to the official robe. The way he thwarted the lawyers and showed the incapacity of an ordinary jury was greeted with applause. Leavitt was a good questioner and quick with repartee. The plot was well laid and each witness did well. The verdict was: "We find the defendant guilty of stealing the horse." The sentence was: "Turn the prisoner loose, fine each lawyer $100, the fine to be paid to the defendant." And it was further recommended that both lawyers be barred from further practice. The literary society received much favorable comment, and will receive much more attention from the public. Likes Our Climate M. Erickson is a new settler on Flag-Staff, or North Warner lake. He says that when he lived in Portland and vicinity he was sick all the time, but since coming to Flag-Staff he is well and hearty. He says the climate there is fine, and that except the nights and mornings are cool, he can not realize it is winter. He is much pleased with his new home.

NOTICE

For that Dull Feeling After Eating
I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—DAVID FREEMAN, Kemp, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost more. Get a free sample at Daly & Hall's drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

The Big Four Development Co. will not be responsible for any orders or debts contracted by M. H. Gillman on or after this date, for the reason that he is failed to qualify as secretary and treasurer of said Company or to provide his share of expenses in operation of same, as agreed. The Big Four Dev. Co.

Singing School
Rev. J. A. Davis has organized a singing class. The first lesson will be given next Tuesday evening in the Baptist church.

Beware of Frequent Colds
A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. Whitel, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Some one told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well. For sale by Daly and Hall."

For Eczema, Tetter and Salt Rheum
The intense itching, characteristic of these ailments is almost instantly allayed by Chamberlain's Salve. Many severe cases have been cured by it. For sale by Daly & Hall.

Last Friday after-noon a regular meeting of the L. C. H. Literary Society was held. The following officers were elected to succeed those in office during the first quarter: Emily D. Ayres, president; Kate Dutton, vice president; Lynn Crommiller, secretary; Henry Newell, treasurer. Fred Crommiller was appointed sergeant-at-arms.
After the election, the oath of office was administered by the old president, Miss Ayres, the newly-elected president then favored the society with a speech of acceptance. A program had been arranged for, but on motion the society decided to postpone the exercises, as so much time had been consumed by the quarterly examinations, and thus little opportunity had been given for preparation.

OPPORTUNITY FOR COLONIZATION

J. E. Cornish, of Bowdenham, Maine, was in town Monday, on his way home from a short visit to Warner Lake valley. The gentleman has been here before, being a stock-holder in the Warner Land and Cattle Company, owning valuable land in large amounts in that rich valley. Mr. Cornish is much impressed with present and promised development in the Goose Lake valley, and thinks there is a similar opening for real estate men of financial and capable ability to inaugurate and carry forward a colonization proposition similar to that of the Oregon Valley Land Company for Warner Valley. He says the land is there and can be acquired, and that the opportunity is there for such an enterprise.

Bishop Paddock Coming

Bishop Paddock, of the Episcopal Church, will arrive here from Portland Friday morning, the 11th inst. He will hold service that evening at the usual hour in the M. E. Church. On Saturday evening he will meet all gentlemen of the town who care to attend at the residence of Mr. S. O. Cressler, where he will talk to them of his travels in Russia, Turkey and other countries, which will be of a very interesting nature.
On Sunday, he will fill the pulpit of the Methodist church, either in the morning or evening, the time not being fixed at this writing. This is a courtesy on the part of the Methodist pastor that will be greatly appreciated by the Bishop and his friends.
Some time during the stay of the Bishop there will be a meeting of the Guild at the home of Mrs. E. H. Clark.
