CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Notice.
Business Locals or Readers inserted in this column at whatever description 10 cents a line for each insertion.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will give a Bazaar and Supper Tuesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 22. The price of the supper is 50 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children. The Citizen's Band will furnish music during the evening. It is to be hoped everybody will patronize the Ladies. Those who have not already supplied themselves with Xmas gifts, will find things both useful and ornamental at the Bazaar at reasonable prices.

A beautiful Xmas gift, 24 Piece Silver Ware Set, Auten Hardware Co.

The property on Main Street recently acquired by W. J. Moore is being repaired and will be occupied as a paper hanging establishment and a restaurant, by Nelson & Gates, both recent arrivals in town.

A Grand Masque Ball will be given at the Opera House on the evening of December 25th. Music by Orchestra. Tickets $1.50.

H. Fox, late of Chicago, has taken up a homestead on the West Side, and will engage in general farming, to be replaced by an orchard so soon as the Oregon Valley Land Co. provides him with water for irrigation purposes.

New and complete line of carpenter tools. Auten Hardware Co.

For a gift that will be appreciated see those Holiday Boxes of candy at The Frost.

When you come to town drop in and tell The Examiner all the news of your neighborhood.

Ice Skates, all kinds and sizes. Auten Hardware Co.

Landed Stein, of the popular stopping place at Mud Creek, half way between here and Plush, was in town Saturday. He says he will have great fishing there in the spring—tells of trout over so long!

Rubber roofing—4 cent of shingles—guaranteed 10 years. Auten Hardware Co.

Fancy Walnuts, Almonds, Peas and Brazil at The Frost.

A. M. Hardisty, of Crooked Creek was in town Monday and called on The Examiner to see the typesetting machine at work. Mr. Hardisty has a ranch and feed supply larger than his needs, and for that reason will take cattle or horses to care for during the winter.

"Wanted"—A few good second-hand cook-stoves. Auten Hardware Co.

Full Brass Band will play all evening at the Skating Carnival New Years Eve.

Oranges and Lemons at The Frost.

A young lady in Portland, while holding a telephone receiver in her hand reached up to turn out an electric light, and got 220 volts of electricity, knocking her senseless. When found a few moments later it was necessary to pry her hand from the receiver and cut the electric light wire before she could be released. She had a close call from death, but it is believed she will recover.

Poultry netting—all kinds, at Auten Hardware Co.

N. O. Herring, of Portland Oregon, was in town this week, and while here purchased 4 1/2 acres of land in Drengle's addition to Lakeview of the firm of Drengle & Paine. Mr. Herring will move on to his tract in the spring. He is highly pleased with Lakeview and can see a big future ahead for both town and country.

Shoes of all kinds—just in at Ahlstrom Bros.

Geo. Hankins has returned from his trip to Pasley, where he went to round up his stock for the winter.

J. F. Root, of Rochester, Minnesota, has been here the past week looking the field over with a view to settlement. He expressed himself well satisfied, and believes this region has the making of a great future in every way.

Just the thing to buy your wife or lady friend—a nice piece of China-ware. B. & M.

N. P. Jensen, the electric light man is in town trying to bring order out of chaos. We hope he will succeed.

We have some beautiful Xmas goods. B. & M.

W. C. Counter sold his residence on Water St. to Mr. Bemis, who now occupies it with his family.

Come early and select your Xmas Goods. Our stock is complete. Ahlstrom Bros.

Sam Cogburn is back from Los Angeles and reports a big crowd from that section will be up here in the prize to secure some of the free lands that still remain in the hands of the government. He found a big demand there for homesteads and desert claims.

Go to the Skating carnival New Years Eve—7 to 12.

All people live in shoes part of the time—they live well who live in Han-an shoes. We have them in stock. B. & M.

Ladies silk shawls at B. & M's.

The Portland Journal of the 9th inst says: Some stalks of corn 15 feet 8 inches high, have been received at the Chamber of Commerce from Reeler's Landing Oregon, as samples of what Oregon can do in the corn line. The stalks all bear large and perfect ears of corn.

We are recognized as leaders of men's fashions. There is quality, Style and Finish and Comfort in wearing one of our suits. Let us show you.

Dr. Daly reports that W. J. Sherlock is on the way to recovery, which will be good news to his many friends.

FATHER TOMKIN HERE FOR HOLIDAYS

Father Tomkin arrived from Klamath Falls Friday. We received notice of his coming too late for publication last week. He will be here until the 9th of January. His visit is for the purpose of giving Catholics an opportunity to receive the Sacrament during the Holy Season; and also to prepare the children for their first Holy Communion privileges that doubtless will be generally availed of during his stay here.

AN OLD-TIME PRINTER IN TOWN

It appears that J. C. Eubanks, of the San Francisco hat firm of O'Rourke & Eubanks, incidentally mentioned last week, is an old-time printer and used to stick type on the Tidings, the first paper in Lakeview and predecessor of The Examiner. He has been covering this territory for twenty three years now and knows every cow trail in the country. Knowing the present editor is a stranger, Mr. Eubanks, why didn't you drop in and see the change in this printery since you were one of us? Don't let it happen again when in town.
