PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: Naturalization of a father operates to make citizens only of his foreign born children as are under 21 years of age at the date of the parent's naturalization papers.

Financia condition of nation at present time is excellent. Under the interstate clause of the constitution the United States has complete and permanent right to control all agencies of interstate commerce.

Rates must be made as low as compatible with giving proper returns to the share holders and all employees. Believes that there should be a premium upon individual initiative and capacity.

Labor should share in the profits of the manufacturer and the farmer should own his own land and not be a slave to the mortgage.

The man of small means should be protected in all investments by careful supervision of corporate finance. Dealing with courts, believes that salaries of our judges are entirely inadequate; decries attacks on courts when same are not based in fact; urges courts to weigh more carefully the effect of temporary and permanent restraining orders. Legislatures frequently to blame for slovenly and conflicting laws.

Forests form the first and most important factor in the conservation of natural resources and it is the plain duty of the country to protect them before it is too late. River navigation can only be maintained through the preservation of our forests.

Supports the contentions of those interested in inland waterways and urges legislation in their cause. Improvement of rivers should not be left in the hands of army engineers whose training does not fit them for such work. The system impairs the work of the army as an army and works a hardship on the people who wish the work of river improvement put through on scientific lines.

Amendment ruling that there shall be no detail from the secret service for other than government work declared favorable only to criminals. Again recommends that postage saving banks will be beneficial for the people. Commends extension of parcel post.

Advocates the immediate admission of New Mexico and Arizona as states. Advocates the extension of the ocean mail act of 1891 and better Trans-pacific mail lines.

Briefly praises the work of the engineers in charge of the Panama canal and declares that the work is being done with speed and efficiency. He urges, the navy and our island possessions are briefly dealt with along lines of the president's first message to the Sixtieth congress, first half of session.

One of the most important gatherings to be held on the Pacific Coast during 1909 will be the convention in Portland of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, brought there through the instrumentality of President W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College. The American Association of University Presidents, the American Association of Farmers' Institute Workers, the Economic Society, and the Association of Agricultural Chemists always hold their conventions at the same place and time as the Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, and will therefore be there also. Delegates to these meetings comprise college and university presidents, directors of experiment stations, experts in the different branches of the Department of Agriculture, and other specialists, and an attendance of between 1200 and 1500 is expected. An extended visit to the V-P Exposition is included in their schedule. The exact date of the convention will be announced soon.

Something Wrong With Bud's Merry Christmas

'Twas merry Christmas till des now, an' I was feelin' dandy. But I don't feel so merry now. Say, what did all dat candy?

Little Rastus And the Turkey

MA SAY, JIM, KETCH DAT TURK, SEZ SHE -

BUT, COLLY! DAT TURK, HE DONE KETCH ME!

A little Klamath Falls boy 3 years old fell backwards into a pool of boiling water. In order to prevent him from being a cripple for life seven brave little boys of that town submitted to the operation necessary of removing strips of their own skin from their arms half an inch wide and about four inches long, so that the same could be grafted on their little playmate. About 50 grafts were necessary. The operation was pronounced a success.

Good Cough Medicine for Children: The season for coughs and colds is now at hand, and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ribley, W. Va., says: "I have never used any thing other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by A. L. Thornton.

The Gift.

By FRANK H SWEET

THE Christmas chimes are sounding on the air. And, as I sit and listen to their sweet, unearthly music, gone is every care. Forgotten is all the turmoil of the street. The troubles that the path of man beset. The vast anxieties of human life. All fade away, and every fond regret is lost in all their glad and joyous strife.

WHAT though I seem alone on this fair day, From happy comradeship stand isolate. With none to greet me as I walk my way. To merely live I count a happy fate— To merely listen to those joyous sounds That listen to the crisp of winter call so free. Although the merry-makers on their rounds Pause not to think of or remember me.

'T'S not enough that on this Christmas morn, This glad birth morn of him whose day it is, My heart, but yesterday so sad, forlorn, Doth open to the message that was his? 'T'S not enough to know that from above The tidings of a sacrifice divine Come as a gift of an eternal love That I have but to take to make it mine?

The Christmas Prayer

IRISH POINT OF VIEW.

It is a merry Christmas When there is lots of snow, For then through my good shovel Some golden coin I know. And 'tis a merry Christmas When not a flake is seen, For Christmas to the Irish Is merry when it's green. R. K. MUNKITTRICK. This is Worth Reading: Leo. F. Zolinski, of 98 Gibson St. Buffalo, N.Y., says: "I cured the most annoying cold sore I ever had, with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I applied this salve once a day for two days, when every trace of the sore was gone!" Heals all sores. Sold under guarantee at Thornton's drug store, 25c.

METHODISTS SCORE A GREAT SUCCESS

The Methodist Bazaar held Tuesday was a success in every way. The supper provided was of the highest order of merit, and showed conclusively that the ladies of Lakeview are adepts in the culinary art. The program opened by the singing in a very creditable manner of "The Old Oaken Bucket" by Dr. Smith's Home Quartette, the singers were Dr. Smith, Prof. Leavitt, Guy Ingram and Roy Shick. The Japanese wedding ceremony was introduced by a little talk by Prof. Handy describing the marriage customs of Japan. The impersonation was by James Judge as groom and Mildred Gibbons as bride. The bridesmaids were Mabel Rice, Chloé Amick, Ella Stone, Lucile Jaquish, Agnes Tracy, Margie Bernard and May and Fay Barnes. The groomsmen were George Whorin and James Bernard. The ceremony was very pretty. Lack of space forbids further mention.

After the wedding the following young ladies, attired in Japanese costumes, gave a little tea, a very charming little affair: Kate Dutton, Valerine Stuckel, Cora Funk, Mildred Behart and Emily Ayers. The latter was pianist for the evening. These young ladies also deserve great credit for the artistic decoration of the stage for the Japanese wedding. The booths were all well patronized. The banner booth in charge of Miss Ella Stone, Miss Nellie Simpson, and Mrs. Walter Dyer sold needlework and novelties to the amount of $62; the candy booth, in charge of Mrs. Norn and Mrs. Batchelder, received $28; the popcorn booth by Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Loren Bailey got $8; the fish-pond by Mrs. Jaquish and Mrs. Dykeman caught $21; the supper tables conducted by Mesdames Woodcock, L. G. and E. E. Lineville, Marjorie Barnes, C. W. Dent, Boone, Russell, Willits, McDonald, Peacock, Neff and E. H. Smith, and Miss May Snider as collector brought in over $40, and the receipts from the Japanese wedding brought the total receipts up to $132.

The ladies extend hearty thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed and to those who lent their aid in making it a financial success. After the supper was over the gathering was treated to a number of best selections by the Citizens' band.

Smiles and Squalls

By "THE VERDANT ONE"

The story is told of Helen Hunt, the famous author of "Ramona" that one morning after church service she found a purse full of money and told her pastor about it. "Very well," he said, "you keep it and at the evening service I'll announce it," which he did in this wise: "This morning there was found in this church a purse filled with money. If the owner is present he or she can go to Helen Hunt for it."

That restaurant man who made sandwiches of rotten meat at the launching of the U. S. Collier "Prometheus", at Vallejo, Calif., from which hundreds were sick, including the Governor, and some died, is as guilty a murderer as he would have been had he loaded a shot gun with buckshot and fired indiscriminately into the crowd.
