O'Connor-Clahorty

An interesting ceremony took place at the Catholic church, at 7 o'c'ock Tuesday morning, when Katie Cla-horty of Lakeview and James O'Con nor, of Plush, were united by Father Tomkins in the sacred bonds of matrimony. Very prettily dressed, and wearing the blush of youth and hope, the happy couple looked very attractive, and a very lovely, quiet time was the share of the little mar-riage party. Miss Illenin O'Shea performed the functions of bridesmald very nicely; and Philip Barry gave the bride away.

The married couple spent the day Catarrh that carnot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Core. Frank J. Cheney. by a host of invited friends. A dellicious supper was shared by all present; while music and dancing served to amuse the young folks till every one was pleased and delighted.

Barre, Vt., Dec. S.-"Does a iver-tising pay? Well, I should say it did, particularly in religeon," said the Rev. Francis A. Poole, partor of the First Congregational church.

Mr. Poole took charge of the church three years ago. It was then a moribund organization. Mr. Poole started with advertisements in the news papers-big ones, a page when he had the money and three or four columns at other times. He took big black type, and he told the people what was going on in the church, what the ser-mon would be about, and who would be there.

"As a result, "says Mr. Poole, "the congregation has quadrupped in three years, and at a meeting of trustees decided to enjarge the church building to twice its present size."
