LAKE COUNTY ABSTRACT CO. INCORPORATED

A Complete Record

We have made an entire transcript of all Records in Lake County, which, in any way, affect Real Property in the county.

We have a complete Record of every Mortgage and transfer ever made in Lake County, and every Deed given.

ERRORS FOUND.

In transcribing the records we have found numerous mortgages recorded in the Deed record and not indexed; and many deeds are recorded in the Mortgage record and other books. Hundreds of mortgages and deeds are not indexed at all, and are most difficult to trace up from the records.

We have notations of all these Errors:

Others cannot find them. We have spent hundreds of dollars hunting for these errors, and we can guarantee our work.

cause it's your show. You let 'em spin."

"She is to have nothing more to do with the affair," Mrs. Ess Kay answered for me quickly. "She is very sorry she commenced it and has lost the small interest she felt in the beginning. I do hope that tramp or beggar or whoever he is hasn't got it in his conceited head that Lady Betty Bulkeley has bothered herself about his insignificant affairs, or he'll be thrusting himself upon her notice in some way which will be very disagreeable to me, as her guardian."

"Well, he has sent a message of thanks to every one concerned," said Mr. Tommy Doremus. "I don't know whether he put Lady Betty at the top of the list or not, and if that's the way you feel about our nice little stunt I expect it's just as well not to inquire further."

All the rest of the trip has been spoiled for me by the hateful way in which the excitement of that day ended, and it does seem too bad, for everything might have been so nice. Whether people really do make ill-natured jokes or not I don't know. But anyhow, Mrs. Ess Kay keeps hinting that they do, which is almost as disagreeable to me. She says that they have nicknamed the bronze man "Lady Betty's hero," and this has made me so self-conscious that I can't bear to go near the part of the deck where you look over into the steeple for fear some silly creatures may think I'm trying to see him. I feel as if I had been a conspicuous idiot, and I'm so uncomfortable with Mrs. Ess Kay now that I expect to be wretched in her house. I can't talk it over even with Sally, because after all she's Mrs. Ess Kay's cousin. I wish I had a nose two inches long and green hair, and then perhaps mother and Vic would have let me stop at home.

Still I can't help taking an interest in ship life, and now that it's the morning of the last day on board I look back on it all as if it ought to have been even more fun than it was. I enjoyed hearing about the marconigrams when they came. It seemed like living in a tale by Stan's favorite, Jules Verne, to have messages come flying to us in midocean like invisible carrier pigeons. I enjoyed having Mr. Doremus tell me about his luck in the big pools when the men bet on the day's run, and I'm afraid I rather revelled in seeing a row on deck one evening when one man accused another of being a cheat and a professional gambler and almost cried about some money he'd lost. If I had been the first man I wouldn't have trusted the other in the beginning, because he had fat lips, greasy black curls and wicked eyes so close together you felt they might run into one if he winked too hard on a hot day. But if I had been so stupid as to trust him I would have been ashamed to make a fuss afterward. I think people ought to be sporting.

I liked the "captain's dinner," too, in honor of the last night on board, with the flags and paper flower decorations, the band playing military music, the dishes on the menu named after famous generals and the stewards filling in a long procession when the salon had been darkened, each carrying a bright colored, illuminated ice and cake with tiny English and American and German flags stuck into the top. Yes, I liked everything, except—but now it is nearly over. America is just round the corner of the world.

America's Greatest Weekly

THE TOLEDO BLADE

TOLEDO, OHIO

The Best known Newspaper in the United States

CIRCULATION 200,000
Popular in Every State

In many respects the Toledo Blade is the most remarkable weekly newspaper published in the United States. It is the only newspaper especially edited for National circulation. It has had the largest circulation for more years than any newspaper printed in America. Furthermore, it is the cheapest newspaper in the world, as will be explained to any person who will write us for terms. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do not read daily newspaper, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven from the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 200,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the United States. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year.
