CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

Notice
Business Locals or Advertisers inserting in this column of notices, descriptions, 10 cents a line for each insertion.

The classified advertising columns afford the greatest market for local articles. You can obtain cash for anything of value.

The Examiner is inclined to suspect that some of our bachelors who are away at present will have become Benedicts before they return. We may be "mistook," as was said in Kipling's "Captain's Courageous." But, Father Time will make clear what now is merely surmise.

Poultry netting—all kinds, at Auten Hardware Co.

The coyotes are running in bands up in Crook County, and are raiding poultry and sheep. They must be plentiful here, as some nights one would think there were a million of them on the hills above town.

Ice Skates, all kinds and sizes, Auten Hardware Co.

F. M. Christman, the leading merchant at Silver Lake, has favored the Examiner with a calendar containing a portrait of an exceedingly handsome girl. If it gets noticed abroad that the portrait is a sample of Silver Lake beauty, the rush of young men for homesteads up there will keep the Land Office busy for days and days to come.

One bargain counter values are the best over, Bailey & Musingill.

If any one noticed a couple with a lantern in the rain, peering and wading about in the muddy streets of North Lakeview last Thursday, some where about midnight, don't say it was Mr. & Mrs. Dlogens looking for an honest man. On the contrary, it was one of our young lady society leaders and a kind-hearted man looking for a jeweled back-comb, a Christmas gift from "One who is very dear" to her—We never learned his other name! The comb was found, uninjured, and the young lady, free from worry, doubtless was soon dreaming blissfully of the donor. The rescuer was probably forgotten.

"Wanted"—A few good second-hand cook-stoves. Auten Hardware Co.

O. L. St. Clair, of Montrose, Wash., north of Seattle, arrived in town Tuesday, with Oda Craven, and filed on a homestead with the intention of becoming a future resident of the county. Mr. St. Clair is a hotel keeper, but believes this section is the coming country and will make his home with us.

It has just reached the ears of the Examiner that J. B. Auten has had a brand-new baby at his home for a couple of weeks, and never let us know about it. If you don't tell the Examiner the next time the stork calls, we shall send for Teddy with his big stick.

The Klamath county court has found a way to levy a tax for a new court house.

New and complete line of carpenter tools—Auten Hardware Co.

A midnight fire the 12th inst. destroyed the chapel and class room of the Klamath Indian Agency. The loss was about $2,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

P. Wertenberger, of Chicago, arrived in town Tuesday, and came to stay. The gentleman came by way of Klamath Falls, and had a hard trip all the way from Chicago. In spite of all the hardships, he is glad to get here, and feels satisfied that we have a big future here, in which he wishes to share.

J. M. Beveridge, the lucky chap who secured a homestead so near town a few weeks since, is razing the old building formerly occupied by the planing mill, on Main St. and is taking the material out to construct buildings on his claim.

The Shakespeare Club meets tonight (Thursday) with Mrs. Ryan.

The Scientific American has figured that if all the salt in solution in the oceans, were solidified that it would cover the entire earth's surface to a depth of 112 feet. Under such circumstances there is no need for people being too fresh.

Our bargain counters contain dishes, childrens and ladies shoes, ladies knit sweater vests, boys corduroy clothing, in fact, too many things to mention. Bailey & Musingill.

The Bend Bulletin up in Crook County is one of our best exchanges. It evidently intends keeping abreast of the times, as it has recently added a power press, which from the handsome appearance of the Bulletin must be a little daisy.

Rubber roofing—cost of shingles—guaranteed 19 years. Auten Hardware Co.

Bernard, the Hardware man, got out one of the cutest calendars we have seen—"Talkin' bizness," a young "coon" and his girl sitting on a rail fence—a bit of typical Southern humor.

The Episcopalian Club will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m. with Mrs. E. H. Clark.

The schools, skating rink, and lodge organizations, all opened their doors as usual Monday. The theatre, being dependent on electric lights, could not do so.

The town is still in darkness owing to a complete break down of our electric light system. The proverbial "stack of back cuts" is nothing compared with the darkness of our streets.

The first mishap was due to the breaking of the waterwheel, and Mr. Jensen immediately wired for a new wheel to come by express. The washouts have delayed its arrival. He attempted to run the lights until 10 o'clock each night, by means of auxiliary steam power, when, to cap the climax, 6 to 7 feet of snow fell, and buried his fuel supply, compelling indefinite shut down of the complete plant.

Mr. Jensen is doing all in his power to remedy conditions, and none regret more than he the complication of affairs that have brought about a temporary shut down of our electric lighting system.

The frogs have thawed out, and are croaking quite merrily. It may be these harbingers of spring are a day or so ahead of time.

W. H. Moore, of New Pine Creek, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Moore is a recent arrival from Roseburg, in the far-famed Umpqua valley. He is very much pleased with the Goose Lake valley, and predicts a great future for it, in way of fruit production. He is so well satisfied that he has settled at New Pine Creek and will grow up with the country.

L. A. Carricker, of the West Side, was in town Monday, and reports big floods cut his way that kept him hustling Saturday to keep from suffering considerable damage.

CHURCH SERVICES.

At M. E. Church. A. M. The Hour of Prayer. Evening service, "Man is Immortal."

In our Thursday evening Prayer meeting, we will begin the study of the Book of Romans; will continue the study of same until we have covered the book. All Christians are cordially invited to be in attendance, and study with us. We are sure there will be found many things of interest.

Don't Get a Divorce

A western judge granted a divorce on account of ill temper and bad breath. Dr. King's New Life Pills would have prevented it. They cure constipation, causing bad breath and Liver Trouble the ill temper, dispel colds, banish headaches, conquer chills. 25c at A. L. Thornton's.
