Care of Fruit Trees

To The Examiner:

It is very important to start spraying at the right time. No fixed rules can be given for this. When the apple buds begin to appear, the trees need to be inspected closely to note when the insects begin their damaging work.

Following a warm period in March, I have found the buds of apple trees covered with young aphids that had come out before the leaves. It is also very important to spray these at this early time; otherwise they will injure and weaken the buds in their development, lessening the quantity and also injuring the quality of the fruit.

The Tent caterpillar frequently hatches before the foliage comes out, when it is forced to live upon the buds. They are even more destructive than the aphids. Both of which occasionally are preying at the same time upon the buds.

The crop of fruit at this time is nipped in the bud by these insects that come out in advance of the foliage. Bordeaux is beneficial when applied upon the swelling buds; and if sprayed at the same time, with arsenate of lead, will check the aphids some by contact, while it will quickly kill the young caterpillars.

To obtain well developed fruit with high color the leaves of trees must be protected. There are many kinds of leaf eating insects that so injure the foliage that there can be little or no perfect fruit obtained, as it is through the foliage that the trees and fruit are nourished and developed, they going through the apple orchard and looking at the apple trees that have not been sprayed, there will be found very few perfect leaves. Nearly every leaf will be more or less eaten, in many instances only the stems being left. The fruit will be small with no color and of poor keeping quality.

By spraying with Bordeaux, to which is added two pounds of arsenate of lead to each fifty gallons, as soon as the blossoms have fallen; again in ten days and a third time two weeks later, the codling moth, tent caterpillar and other leaf eating insects will be destroyed, the foliage not only saved, but the fruit will be of much finer quality.

Personal Mention

W. P. Hereford and wife have returned from a two months sojourn in California. While away they stopped at Lodi, Santa Rosa, San Francisco, and other points. The weather all the time was vile foggy and damp, and none of the sunshine that is the boast of the Golden State. They were glad to get back to the real banana (apple) belt of America, the Golden Goose Lake Valley.

Dr. Hall has been confined to his room with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. He is reported in a very serious condition.

The Klamath Herald, of the 23rd inst says: "John P. Cobb, of Lakeview, is stopping at the Lakeside."

Engineer Williams and wife of the Cottonwood dam, who were in town several days last week, returned home Monday. Mr. Williams reports 1 ts of snow there.

Frank L. Ross, was up Monday from his ranch near Pine Creek.

Letch Holbrook came in from the sheep camp last Thursday.

C. W. Cakay, of Seattle, who has had the supervision of the construction of our new court house left yesterday morning for a few weeks stay at his home in that city. He intends returning, as he believes that Lakeview is on the point of bursting into one of the best inland cities in America.

H. L. Northrup, has located at Empire, Coos County, for the winter, and desires The Examiner forwarded to him.

Merchant Bieber left this morning for a stay of a month or more in San Francisco, where he will combine business with pleasure, in visiting friends and relatives and make heavy purchases for the spring trade.

H. J. Robinson, of Coalinga, Calif. arrived in town Monday.

Agood portrait of our representative in the Oregon Legislature, Hon. H. A. Brattain, appeared in a recent issue of the Oregonian.

W. H. Stephens, wife and child, were arrivals Monday from Omaha, Neb. If they like it here now, in face of the storm, mud and snow they have come through to get here, they will be more than pleased later when the weather settles and things get back to their normal condition.

J. W. Robinson and W. J. Candler, of Bend, were guests at the Hotel Lakeview Thursday.

Lem Valentine was over from Plush Thursday.

J. G. Allen, of Camasite, was in town Friday.

Geo. Hoffmiz was here Friday from Plush.

B. Kuhl, of Summer Lake was at Hotel Lakeview Monday.

Dan Chandler came in from Drews Valley yesterday.

Bonanza Bulletin, 21: W. A. Wingate returned Wednesday from Lakeview. He reports the court house finished and exhibits several fine views of the new structure and it certainly is a handsome structure. Mr. Wingate left today for the county seat and from there he will go to Seattle to spend the winter.

SOCIETY NOTES

Thursday evening Mrs. Warner Saldier entertained in honor of her sister, Miss Anna Jones of Paisley. Progressive whist was played, and a very pleasant evening was spent by the guests, who were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ahlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Schminck, Mr. and Mrs. Norin, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Misses Saldier, Applegate, Jones, Hereford, Dr. Faulkner, Messrs. Paine, G. W. and M. B. Rice.

Mrs. Norin entertained her friends with progressive whist Saturday afternoon, which was much enjoyed by the participants, who were: Mesdames Umbach, Ryan, Cronmiller, Cobb Cressler, Williams, Miller, Sherlock, Clark, Batchelder, Shirk, Faulkner, W. Snider, Wilcox, Schminck, Bemis, Misses Linton, Applegate and Jones.

Directories for Sale

This office has on hand a few copies of the county directory, which will be closed out at 50c-half price. Those wishing a copy should not delay sending their orders. It contains the name of every voter in the county. There is a special write up of the county and of the towns. In it there also is a synopsis of the same laws of the State, and much other valuable information regarding Lakeview and tri-county country.

Some Fellows Who Want to Know You Know

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 12, 1909. Editor Lake County Examiner.

Sir:—As I am one of the many holders of a contract for a portion of the Goose Lake Valley land and a town lot in the city of Lakeview and a reader of the Lake County Examiner and an all around booster for Lakeview and the Goose Lake County, (as I expect to make that my future home), I will take the liberty of asking you a few simple questions; remember I would not intrude upon your valuable time but for the reason of my boasting for that country. There are many questions asked me which somewhat embarrass me owing to the fact that I am unable to answer them intelligently and I believe you can enlighten me, but before propounding the questions I will say just a word about myself for the benefit of the marriageable ladies in your vicinity.

I am a bachelor of uncertain age—not good looking but am very taking; my brother had the same habit but he is now being entertained at one of our State Institutions and in all probability will not be able to accompany me when I come out there; so hoping you will not let the fire go out I will proceed to unload:

How far is it from Lakeview to Goose Lake? (5 miles, but there is a creek you can wade in to it.)

How large a body of water is Goose Lake? (35 x 35 miles.)

What is the distance to your nearest railroad station and name of station? (57 miles to Alturas, Calif.)

What is the distance to Klamath Falls? (110 miles.)

How is fishing and hunting near Lakeview? (Good.)

Is there a saw mill near Lakeview? (2 and more coming.)

What is the present population of Lakeview? (1500, good and strong.)

What is the political complexion of Lake county? (Republican.)

About what is the length east and west of the tract of land which is being sold by the Oregon Valley Land Co.? (18 1/2 miles.)

How far is it to Juniper Lake? (75 miles to Juniper Mountain.)

Those, and other questions of minor importance are asked me daily and I assure you it is quite embarrassing not to be able to give an intelligent answer so I will ask that you kindly answer them as best you can through the columns of your valuable paper and by so doing will make many friends of us Missourians.

I can assure you that there will be a large bunch of us "Show Me" folks sweep down on you at the opening of the Oregon Valley land. You might tell your citizens not to be afraid of us as we are nearly human and quite civilized as you will find by our last election of President and Governor. Also, some of us are great travellers—globe trotters, have been as far west as Kansas.

I am very anxious for the time when the railroads will enter Lakeview, in fact I think I would be on my way now if the railroads run there now, but I do not understand riding the bumpers and blind baggage on your stage lines for that reason I will ask you to excuse my delay.

By the way, there is one more question I would like to ask and that is this: I am often asked why that large body of water was named Goose Lake it is very puzzling, and I have lost many a night's sleep trying to reason why and finally came to this conclusion:

In the early days when Lakeview was a struggling village there was a large ship making her way up the lake towards Lakeview, the coming metropolis of the state of Oregon, when she run into a large flock of geese and one of them kicked out the wagon tongue and sunk the ship, hence the name, Goose Lake. I hope I am correct, at least in part, if not kindly correct me as I do not wish to mislead my friends on so important a point. (So many wild geese flock here.)

Oh yes! I had almost forgotten; some of my Missouri friends wish to know if there is a Y. M. C. A. there, while others wish to know how many saloons you have. (No Y. M. C. A. yet but there are 8 wet good places.)

I would also like to have you pick me out a good fishing hole so that you can direct me to it on my arrival. (Lots of them here.)

Now I hope I am not asking too much in view of the fact that it may be the means of a new subscriber and in that case don't forget my commission, and it will be accepted in cord wood, potatoes or alfalfa.

Wishing you all a prosperous year, I remain, Yours truly, Goose Lake Bill.

J. O. C. Menasha, Wis.—We have two big stocks of hardware. Not prepared to say. You would have to decide that for yourself.

M. S. Curtis, Colo.—The coal land is about 80 miles east of here, and if as good as reported can be mined and laid down very cheaply in Lakeview. We will try and keep you informed as to this discovery.

T. & S., Wheeling, W. Va. and J. O. O. Minneapolis, Minn.—No exclusive boot and shoe store here. All dealers carry such goods. The better way is to come and look over the field.

K. P. Dallas, Texas.—I see by your paper there are no banks in Lakeview, would you pay? There are two here. Dun's or Bradstreet's can give you the other information. There may be room later.

D. & W., De Witt, Neb.—Plenty of Game here from snipe to bear. Some like elk, spotted fawn, are closed all the time. Some game will be open in August. A non-resident hunter's license costs $10. Can use most any sort of a gun. Though it is likely high-powered guns will be forbidden this session of the legislature. Flies are used for trout bait. Can only catch lake trout in Spring—only time they will bite. "Lake County Directory," this office, 50c., contains the game laws.

B. & S., St. Joseph, Mo.—There is no exclusive clothing store here. All general dealers handle such goods, and all the leading tailoring houses of Chicago and New York have representatives here. Come and see for yourselves.

W. H. M., San Francisco.—There are two drug stores here. Neither advertise. Come and look the ground over yourself.

M. A. B., Syracuse, N. Y.—"Have you a jeweler? I see no mention of one in your paper." Yes, there is one. Others planning to come. First one in, stands best show.

A. Picotti, San Jose. There is a fruit and candy store here, and most dealers keep candies and nuts.

J. McC., Kirkin, Ind.—We have two meat markets. Both report big business. Don't know about room for another.

John O., New Ulm, Minn., Yes, the government land is all right, plenty to be had all over the county. Yes, plenty available for large colony, all together. The Co. you mention is posted, and reliable.

J. W., Newton Kan.—Not much building just at present, will be when spring opens. Carpenters get from $3.50 to $5. per day; brick and stone masons $6., and tenders $2.50 to $3.
