Walter D. Tracy, the big, jolly layman from Drews Valley was in town Saturday and left a big order for butter wrappers at this office. Walter evidently is getting ready for the big rush of new comers headed this way this year.

The Cedarville Record says: Opa's sorrow was badly aimed one wedding last week, and although a wedding resulted the bride being under age, was taken to the parental abode where she still remains and the

A bill is before the legislature to reduce time for holding estrays from 2 to 6 months. The present law was enacted in 1862 when means of communication were poor and newspapers were scarce.

Our electric lights came on uncommanded Sunday night, much to the relief of those who were using kerosene and old fashioned tallow candles.

Get into the habit of telling your friends abroad what a good town and country you live in, and don't destroy The Examiner. Wrap it up and send it to your eastern friends.

People take newspapers now a days, read them and then throw them away. They never think what a source of pleasure and profit—or reminiscence and thought a file or even a few numbers of such a paper would be to them twenty or thirty years afterwards. Pay for your papers and keep them.

Drenkel & Paine have sold 80 acres in Sec. 9-10-19 to M. T. Searf, also 2 lots in Sberlock's addition to Ell Vogel, of Fort Doyle, Iowa, for $500.

BORN:—January 24th, 1909, to the wife of Tom Cloud, a daughter.

The cattlemen of eastern Oregon, are asking the legislature for a fence that will require posts 32 feet apart, with three wires, with supporting stakes every 8 feet, and the fence to be at least 4 feet high. On each side

The paper that reaches the home is the one that brings results to the advertiser. The Examiner is pre-eminently the home paper, and that is why it leads in circulation and is the best medium for profitable publicity.

CARDS OF THANKS

We take this opportunity to thank the good people of Lakeview who so kindly and sympathetically assisted us in our hour of bereavement.

Mrs. Wm. Ogil and Family,
L. B. Hayes.

We take this means to thank all who so kindly gave us their sympathy and assistance during the illness and burial of our wife and mother.

W. T. Powell and Family.

Quarantined Town Again

The town has again been placed under strict quarantine, on account of several new diphtheria cases. No further deaths have occurred, and those sick are not considered in a dangerous condition. The schools, rink, theatre and churches are all indefinitely closed and school children of all ages are forbidden to be on the streets under pain of being placed in the calaboose.

DIED

Another child of the Hastings family, Lella Mulkey, aged 8 years, died of pneumonia the 21st, and was buried the 22nd. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. I. C. Parker. This family has been sorely afflicted of late, and in their losses they have the sympathy of all.

NOW IS BEST TIME TO TAKE

A well known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable, though harmless, prescription, which anyone can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.
