The classified advertising columns afford the greatest market for used articles. You can obtain cash for anything of value.

A quiet wedding ceremony was performed by Judge Snider Sunday when Mr. W. H. Robinson late of Princeville and Miss Minnie Wallace of Lakeview were united in matrimony. The bride is one of the most esteemed young ladies of Lakeview, and the groom is a new comer who has lately engaged in business here. The Examiner joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

Gossips and scandalmongers are to get what is coming to them at last. A law has just been passed by the Oregon legislature which provides fines of from $250 to $1000 for circulating any scandalous or malicious report concerning another.

The little child of E. L. Rains received a broken arm by falling from a chair last Monday. The baby was brought to town and Dr. Hall set the broken limb Monday evening.

An Illinois farmer, who had always distrusted banks, recently found his strong box containing $28,000 which he kept secreted in his home, had disappeared. That farmer is now a strong believer in banks. And it might be that if our banks let the light of their countenance shine through the columns of The Examiner that many a hoard now secreted in an old stump or buried in a tomato can, would be brought out to do service in the interest of mankind.

A Texas exchange wants to know why an editor should tell his readers that Bill Smith came in and plunked down two plunks for his paper, any more than Mechanic Jones should get out on the corner and yell that the same Bill Smith had just bought a pair of 50 cent galluses. Well, we think so, too.

The Examiner is now sending out notices to all subscribers showing how they appear on the books of the office. Under the new ruling we are not allowed to give credit longer than one year on subscriptions, unless we place a one cent stamp on each paper, something we cannot afford to do. Therefore if you wish the paper continued be prompt with payment. Do not forget.

A dance was broken up at Bly because some one shipped in some stuff at $2 per bottle, that had lots of fight in it.

Petty thieving is going on at Bunsen and the Bulletin intimates something surprising will be doing soon.

The Legislature passed a law establishing an asylum for the insane in Eastern Oregon. Now, who wants it? Does Lakeview?

One of our Minneapolis subscribers, Mr. A. Kylander, has our thanks for a copy of the Sunday Tribune of that city, long a welcome visitor in our former home.

L. F. Conn, who is considerable of a hunter, wrote a letter discussing the game laws, which was published in a recent issue of the Oregonian.

G. R. Boyden, of Sioux City, Iowa, after traveling extensively in this and Harney counties, looking for a location has finally settled at Summer Lake, having purchased some relinquishments and some deeded land. He believes that that section has the making of one of the greatest fruit producing sections in the United States.

The Bank of Lakeview is to be removed into the Daily Building. It will occupy the room in which Daly and Hall's Drug store is now located. New and modern fixtures are being made now for the bank. It will probably be about two months before the bank will be able to enter its new enlarged quarters.

W. C. Ford and wife returned Friday from their stay in Alturas. Mr. Ford will re-open the rink as soon as his skates arrive from that place.

DEATH OF ONE OF OUR OLD PIONEERS

C. C. Cannon, one of the early pioneers of this section died at his home, near New Pine Creek, Monday morning.

He left here last fall for a visit in California. The climate there did not seem to agree with him and he returned home about three weeks ago, suffering from a complication of diseases resulting in a general break down, which soon culminated in his death.

Mr. Cannon was born in Holt County, Missouri Feb. 11 1842. In 1853 he crossed the plains with his father and settled in Polk county. The next year he located in the Umpqua valley. In 1861 he took up a prospector's career and for several years followed that calling all over the west. 1869 he located in the Goose Lake valley, at Lassen creek, adjoining New Pine Creek and at time of his death possessed 300 acres of fine land, well improved which is considered one of the most valuable estates in this valley.

In 1887 Mr. Cannon married Miss Blanche, the daughter of Capt. E. Pollette, who survives him, together with a daughter, Olive, who are thus bereft of a loving and indulgent husband and father.

Mr. Cannon had the reputation of being an industrious, honest and upright man and was highly honored and respected by his friends and neighbors. He was a staunch republican and his honesty of purpose was such that he never scratched the ticket.

He was buried at New Pine Creek Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Terrible wind storms of late are reported from Oklahoma. At Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Ardmore and Guthrie, brick walls and plate glass windows were blown down and big trees were broken down by the force of the wind. At Enid, several people were seriously injured by the wind. In view of the prevalence of these storms, The Examiner ceases to wonder at the rapid increase of its list of subscribers in that state.

MANY WILL BE HELPED BY IT

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders, or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

A Needles, Calif. youth received a circular setting forth opportunities in the navy, in answer to which he wrote the recruiting offices, as follows: "I will cut off my right hand before I face war. I wouldn't work for the United States navy because Japs work for less money than white men get. All us white boys go without jobs; the Japs take them."

Revolts at Cold Steel

"Your only hope," said three doctors to Mrs. M. H. Fisher, Detroit, Mich., suffering from severe rectal trouble, lies in an operation. "then I used Dr. King's New Life Pills," she writes, "till wholly cured." They prevent Appendicitis, cure Constipation, Headache, Etc. at A. L. Thornton's.
