The Oregon Magazine Hit of 1909

Al Coolidge and Jake McClaine, prominent oankers and business men of Silverton in Davenport's younger days

Beginning in the January issue of HUMAN LIFE, the Magazine About People, and running through the twelve months of 1909 will be published a story of his boyhood by Homer Davenport, cartoonist, traveler, humorist, lecturer and man of many stories. The scene of Mr. Davenport's boyhood and young manhood is laid in Oregon and covers many of the people that are well known there today.

Mr. Davesport, for pure and native humor, is the superior of any we have ever met since the days of Artemus Ward. Those who follow Mr. Davenport through this year's issues of HUMAN LIFE will remember 1909 as the year of laughs.

Mr. Davenport's articles will be illustrated by himself, and the pictures he has drawn, representative of his many delightful—that is, delightful to read about—adventures, will constitute not the least part of the fun.

If you want to read this story from the beginning, if you want to see Mr. Davenport's pictures of himself from early boyhood to manhood, his father, his family, and all of his Oregon friends, as only Mr. Davenport can draw them, be sure your name is entered as a subscriber to HUMAN LIFE—the best magazine, for the money, ever

Mr. Davenport starts his story at a very early age when his father tells him that they are to move from their farm in Salem, Oregon, to Silverton, Oregon. This is a burg of some three hundred people. Mr. Davenport, in his story, states that he feels that the city is calling them and that his opportunities for studying art in the Latin Quarter of Silverton will be exceptionally good.

The story will carry Mr. Davenport up to his San Francisco days, when he made his first big hit as a cartoonist.

Send us your subscription to HUMAN LIFE. We can start you with the January 1909 issue, this is the number in which Mr. Davenport's story commences, and we would call your attention to our wonderful offer at the bottom of this advertisement.

It has the greatest writer in this country of vigorous, virile, pun-gent, forceful, piquant English, as its editor-in-chief, Alfred Henry Lewis, the caustic contributor to the Saturday Evening Post, Cos mopolitan, Success and many other representative periodicals; the author of "The President," "The Boss," "Wolfville," "Andrew Jackson," and other books of story and adventure, every one scinrillating with strenuous life. Mr. Lewis's fingers are upon the public pulse; he knows what the public wants, and he gives them running-over measure. HUMAN LIFE is up-to-date in its fresh, original matter from the best authors and the best artists, and filled to over-

Some few weeks ago the district of East Kootenal, Saskatchewan, B. C. was visited by a forest fire which swept over a territory fifty miles in width, completely destroying the towns of Fernie, Cool Creek and Hosmer, killing 170 people, rendering 6,000 homeless and destroying property valued at

$5.000,000. This disaster seems to be traceable to slipshod methods of lumbering which have been followed by employees of the Cedar Valley Lumbering company, they having been careless and left their brush or timber slashings without burning them. Other disastrous forest fires which have raged more recently in northern Minsesota, Michigan and Wisconsin have been the result largely of an extra dry condition which made the forests as Inflammable as tinder and liable to ignition from passing trains, campfires and other causes. The prevalence of these destructive fires, whatever their cause, points to the need of greater precaution in lumbering methods and the establishing of patrols which shall report fires starting and summon ale sufficient to put them out before they gain headway. This method of safeguarding is followed by the federal government in its reserves on the Pacific coast with very satisfactory re
