SAVE YOUR MONEY. Lakeview has a Loan and Savings Bank. It does not advertise, by the way, but it is a worthy institution, and well conducted.

Such institutions are a good thing in any community. They encourage saving which means thrift to the depositors, little or big. The saving habit has laid the foundation for many a great fortune.

Nearly every capitalist in the country will give the same answer when asked the secret of his success. "Saving has been primarily the cause of my success, Tom L. Johnson, mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, and one of the wealthiest men in the middle west, once said: "Every cent I could lay my hands upon went into the bank. When I needed money I could always draw it out—but I always saw to it that I put in more than I took out."

One capitalist and financier, nationally prominent, tells a strange tale of his start in life. He had gathered together a few dollars as a youngster and had planned to buy himself a horse. However, he did not have enough to purchase the animal he wanted so, at his father's suggestion, he put the little sum he had in the bank. The horse which he had intended buying died. By that time, however, he no longer wanted the horse. He wouldn't have taken the money out of the bank for any thing. The saving mania had taken hold of him.

Dollar by dollar he added to the account—a dollar a week he declares. Before he knew it he had $500. This he invested in land, but kept right on putting the dollar a week in the bank. Now he is worth $12,000,000 but even yet that dollar a week goes into the bank—this time his own institution.

The moral of all this is that you should teach your children the value of saving. The pennies thus saved, day by day, from needless and vicious spending, in time will make them independent and start them out in the world on a career of usefulness to themselves and communities in which they cast their lot.

If you wish to see a wonderful record in County finance take note of the reports of the officials of this county, in which there is shown a resource of over $61,000 and liabilities of only $225 against the County. The Examiner may be egotistical and saturated with optimistic optimism, but we believe that is a record that can not be duplicated in America!

Lieutenant Shackleton, of the British navy, who returned with his party on the barkentine Nimrod to Ivercargill, N. Z., Tuesday, after exploring the Antarctic regions, reports that they got to within 111 miles of the South Pole. The expedition started in July, 1907, and made a 1700 mile sledge trip southward, reaching longitude 162 east, latitude 88.26

Major Fremont, is to be dismissed from the army because of insubordination. He is a son of Gen. Fremont the "Path Finder" who discovered and named some of the lakes and valleys in Lake County, and whose name is perpetuated in the Fremont National Forest.

Harriman told a Reno newspaper man that all railroads should be under one gigantic combination. We think so, too, Ed. But—the combination should be taken from private ownership for the benefit of the few, and placed under government ownership for the benefit of the nation. Other countries own the railroads, and any one with a thumb-full of brains who will take the trouble to investigate can see the need of the taking over of all railroads in this country by the general government.

Heart to Heart Talks.

SPECIAL FAVORS TO THAW. Harry Thaw killed a man. He was saved from the electric chair by his plea of insanity and the expenditure of $700,000 in high priced lawyers, experts, etc. He was finally declared insane.

During his stay in jail he had special accommodations and enjoyed many luxuries refused to the ordinary jail prisoner. In the lunatic asylum where he was sent he was given comparative freedom and was served with many dainties.

Then Thaw was released from the insane asylum by a writ of habeas corpus.

He was taken to jail, where the privileges granted him became a constantly increasing scandal.

Thaw had an entire floor of the jail to himself, with thirteen cells for his bedrooms, the hall for a smoking room and dining room. His meals were served by a private caterer; he had flowers, books and magazines in profusion.

Besides—This degenerate Pittsburger with sybaritic tastes enjoyed frequent automobile rides—ostensibly on business—gay excursions to the referee's office, court hearings at White Plains, etc. And all this was done under the legal fiction that he was "a dangerous lunatic with homicidal tendencies," but really—

BECAUSE THAW HAD PLENTY OF MONEY.

No poor man could have had such privileges and attentions. For the ordinary prisoner—the narrow cell, the iron cot, the coarse food, the gruff orders.

Now, such discrimination is not only subversive of justice and wrong; it is impolitic and DANGEROUS.

It tends not merely to break down prison discipline; it outrages every sense of justice. When you show the poor man that equity is denied him in the courts because the rich man can hire able lawyers, when you show him that money will buy special privileges and immunities from prison officials, privileges denied the poor prisoner, you foster class consciousness and strike a body blow at Washington's republic.

The nauseous details of the Thaw trial carried contamination and moral danger. The story of the special favors granted this weak-minded murderer is even more dangerous socially.

The Biggest and the Best Net For Getting Res. Its.

In seining fish to get results You have to take the net results. In business, too, to get results You figure on the net results.

Netting fish and netting profits suggest each other. In each case you must put out a net that moves around and gathers up the results.

So far as business goes, the local newspaper is the biggest and best net for getting results. It circulates around town and in the country also.

The farmers and fruit growers of California are entering a vigorous protest because restaurants charge prohibitive prices for fruit. For instance from 10 to 15 cents is charged for a dish of tomatoes, when whole box is bought in the market for 20 cents. The same may hold good for peaches, and yet they ask fancy prices. There is to be a concerted effort to remedy this evil.

Some of the late hour denizens of Dayton, had their superstitious fears aroused recently by seeing two moons appear among the clouds. Well, most any brand will bring about such peculiar conditions of vision. Once there was a man who plainly saw two women at the head of the stairs awaiting his laborious ascending, and exclaimed: "Zheres, two women hic, wit-a stiek, hic, but only one's a talkin', hic!"

Get a ranch in Lake County; get a 10 acre tract in Goose Lake valley; get an acre or get a lot in Lakeview. Your children will then call you thrice blessed.

A Roseburg woman wants a divorce because her husband has a habit of kicking a pot full of hot coffee into her lap. Well, we have had hot coffee that would give even Saint Peter a touch of temporary insanity. Instead of a divorce that woman should study Mrs. Rorer.

My! My! Now see what some one has went and done! Invented a machine for detecting liars. If our wife finds that out, and gets one, we are elected to stay at home nights. No more "lodges" or "pressing" business excuses will then be available. But, as a last resort, there is an ax in the wood shed, and we might have provocation to smash the darned thing!

The tariff tinkers have stirred up a pretty muss with women kind. They resent the increased tax on gloves and stockings and say they won't wear 'em, so there!

Just because a preacher found a hair pin and a trouser's button alongside the single oyster in his soup, at a church social, he has uttered a tirade against church suppers.

A young man got fined $300 for attempting to hug and kiss a 6 foot, 14 year old girl. He should have taken some one of his size and years.

A Fresno man got fined $300 for attempting to shoot a real-estate man. He had previously killed one man and got free. It is evident that it is safer for other people to have such blood-thirsty devils where they will have no chance to make use of handy guns.

The country is getting so "dry" that old toppers are beginning to put whiskey advertisements in their Bibles for future reference, as a precaution against extreme drought in their neighborhoods. J. D. Venator, Attorney for Plaintiff.
