Printer Raises Chickens

F. W. Riggs formerly a printer in the Examiner office, but now of Klamath Falls, is the owner of fifteen hens that have paid him a profit of $2 a piece during the past year. The hens laid 175 eggs, which at an average price of thirty cents a dozen were worth $52.50. The feed for the chickens cost him a trifle less than $15. During the year he ate chickens frequently, and he still has fifteen hens, which cost him originally $7.50. He realized a profit of more than 400 per cent on his investment.
