Judge Noland Talks for a Klamath-Lakeview Electric Line

Klamath Herald, 25 old Judge Noland is much pleased with his trip to Lakeview and speaks in high terms of the possibilities of that county. He believes that the resources of Lake county, from an agricultural standpoint, are similar to those of Klamath County except that this county has the advantage of greater development. Big irrigation ditches are planned and the reservoirs are being constructed which will furnish water for a large section of rich valley land, which is bound to be very valuable in the near future.

People from the east are looking for homes in the west and the work done by the Oregon Valley Land Co. will bring thousands of settlers to Lake county within the next few years. This will mean an immense trade to be supplied, and Mr. Noland states that he is surprised that some of the Portland capitalists have not taken advantage of the wonderful opportunity before and constructed electric lines into the territory.

"If I were a younger man," said Judge Noland, "I certainly would make the attempt to secure capital to build an electric line from this city to Bonanza and on to Lakeview. I know it is a paying proposition, and the man who takes hold of it will make money."

"If Portland expects this trade, her business men could not do a wiser thing than to support an electric road, as it will bring all the trade this way. If the trade goes the other way it will go to California. Alturas and Reno are making quite a fight for the trade, but they are handicapped with their narrow gauge road, and unless this is rebuilt I believe the trade is certain to come by way of Klamath Falls."

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

M. L. and L. L. Hopkins, father and son are on a fishing and hunting trip at Deep Creek. The Examiner acknowledges receipt of some speckled beauties, from the gentlemen.

Evangelist Markland left town Tuesday morning "for parts unknown" he said.

The hot weather has given the ice cream vendors a thriving trade.

J. Wendel and family left Tuesday morning for their home in Dunsuir, Calif.

L. A. Carriker, and J. C. Oliver, West Side farmers, were in town Saturday with faces wreathed in smiles over their good crop prospects since the rain.

The Lakeview teachers have all left town. Miss Austin has gone to her home near Florence, Miss Verna to her home near New Pine Creek, and Miss Goodman has gone for a week's rest and will return to accept a position with Mrs. Nelson.

On her arrival at San Diego, Mrs. Schmick found her sister, Mrs. Hartin somewhat better, but very weak.

G. B. Stickle, of New Pine Creek, was in town Friday.

C. W. Jessup 4-36-21 was in town Friday.

W. C. Walling representing Wymore Partridge Co., of Minneapolis, was in town the past week endeavoring to work up a trade with our business men. Mr. Walling is a pleasant young man and being backed by such a big concern should make a success among Oregon business houses.

Claud Dixon was in from the ZX ranch last Tuesday.

Jack Leonard of Hawthorne Nevada came up last Friday to look over the mining prospects of this section.

Leland Proctor was in from Keno Springs last Monday. He says he is herding bragos for Dave Adler the sheep king of Lake county.

Chas. Lambert and D. R. Doler were Klamathites in town this week.

Soldiers' Graves

Flowers we bring to these war heroes
That are sleeping by the way;
Not for the few but for the many
That are slumbering to-day;
Those that donned the uniform of blue,
And marched forth at the bugle's blast;
And on home and friends
Many that day looked their last.
And on the field of battle comrades
Were falling thick and fast around;
They wavered not, nor faltered,
Till they with victory were crowned.
And when the flag was imperiled,
They with swiftly flying feet
Grasped it at risk to their life
And bore it away to a safe retreat.
The hardships and privations
That it was their lot to undergo,
While they did service for us and country,
None but these soldiers know.
His youth and young manhood
To his country he gave;
The great cause he won for us—
For himself an early grave.
But they've been disbanded, mustered out,
The last roll call has been answered here,
And they only will be reunited
In a better and higher sphere,
Plant hither the flag they loved—
Flag bought with the blood of the brave,
Where could it find a better place
Than on a soldier's grave?
And the flowers we will heap high
Over the slumberer's breast,
They've fought their last battle—
Calm and peaceful is their rest.
After they did so much for us,
Did we ought to recompense them here;
Or is it that we only have
Flowers for their bier?"

SCLATO T. JONES.

Canal Construction

Herbert Wells, of the St. Louis, and Mr. Jansen President of the Hall construction Co. Los Angeles are here looking over the ground for Drava Creek canal of the O. V. L. Co. with view of bidding on construction work. The work is to be finished Sept. 1st. The contract requires the removal of 500,000 cubic yards of earth and rock. Such work can only be done by the argest contractors. The construction Co. are just completing 25 miles of heavy work on the Pacific railroad, and the St. Louis concern is finishing up 300 miles of the same road and also did most of the work for the government on the Klamath Irrigation Project.
