The Alaska-Yukon Exposition Opened By President Taft

Three Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition, as will seem from a special elsewhere is now open to the public. It is international in scope, being devoted more especially to the interest of the Pacific Northwest, on both sides of the boundary between and the United States and the British possessions, and in that respect will be a revelation to the people of the world. Wide-spread interest is manifested in the undertaking, and the visitors promise to eclipse any previous gathering of the sort.

"Since people will visit the Pacific Northwest this year than in any previous year," says James A. Wood, Director of Exploitation of the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition, "My prediction is fully justified by the figures from our press clipping bureau, the letters I receive and the reports for the transcontinental railroads and their connections. St. Paul and Minneapolis News papers declare that more than a million travelers destined for Puget Sound and the Pacific Northwest will pass through Puget Sound. The probable extent of the movement is greatly increased by reports from all the other big cities of the United States. More publicity has been given the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition during the past five months than was given an exposition held in this country since Chicago. Eastern railroad offices report a more general inquiry than was made concerning any other exposition. The movement is already on. It is estimated that fully 10,000 new people have come to Washington, Oregon and Idaho and British Columbia, since March 15, largely drawn hither by the attractive homesickness rates, but the big movement begins with the first day of the exposition rates.

"In all our work of exploitation we have put the Pacific Northwest to the front with the exposition as a real feature of a trip this year. Not one visitor to a hundred who comes to the exposition should be lacking in general information concerning conditions and opportunities in this and the bordering states and the province to the north. This work has been most effectively advanced by the publicity and the passenger department of the railroads and I want to say that the Northwestern representatives of the various lines are the most active, energetic and helpful bunch of men that ever got behind any sort of project.

The Exposition is complete and ready. Attention has been drawn from every quarter of the globe. The visitors and homesickness are coming by tens and hundreds of thousands and it is up to the people of all parts of the Pacific Northwest to give them a welcome worth while.

SEATTLE, WASH., June 2d, 1909.—Promptly at twelve o'clock, on the first day of June, President William H. Taft pressed an electric key in the Capitol at Washington, and the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition was formally opened to the guests from every part of the world.

The opening exercises were conducted in the presence of a quartet of a million people. These impressive ceremonies were held on the shore of Lake Washington. The enormous crowd stood silent and awed as these solemn words of invocation were uttered by the Right Reverend Bishop Edward J. O'Dea, Bishop of Seattle. Not a flag or strip of bunting fluttered from the thousand flag staffs and domes; the entire exposition city awaited with suppressed eagerness the touch of the President's hand. With the first stroke of the bell announcing the arrival of high noon, the deep sounding whistle sounding whistles from the University House Power taken from the Russian Gun boat that announced the transfer of Alaska to the United States years ago, gave response to the flash from Washington, and every wheel of the exposition machinery was set in motion. It was the signal for general pandemonium; from every whistle, bell and siren of the great manufactories and steamers the sound was taken up, and the great throng gave vent to its wild enthusiasm. From the top of a giant flagstaff two hundred and fifty feet in height, the largest American flag ever made, broke loose and the exposition city was buried in a cloud of flags, banners and gaily colored bunting.

Over the blue waters of Elliot Bay came the thundering salute of twenty-one guns from the ships of the American Navy, and re-echoing this rang back the answering reply from the grim muzzles of the guns of the Mikado.

The program marking the most important happening of general interest ever held in the Northwest, was particularly elaborate and interesting. Its commencement was announced by the firing of the National salute from the guns of a mountain battery stationed on the grounds, and this was the signal for the movement of the military march and review. This was made up of one thousand regular troops, two batteries of mountain and coast artillery, two companies of cavalry, battalions of marines and blue jacketed men of the navy and two companies of marines and sailors from the Japanese Cruisers Aso and Soya. These were drawn up in parade rest just back of the amphitheatre.

The formal program opened with the playing of America, by James Band at eleven thirty; this was followed by the invocation by Bishop O'Dea which was brought to a close at the exact minute of twelve.

The address of welcome was delivered by Director General I. A. Nadeau and following this march, Gloria Washington, the official exposition march was rendered for the first time in public. Further addresses were made by Hon. Sir James Bryce, British Ambassador to the United States, Jas. J. Hill, President of the Great Northern Railway Company, Congressman Rodenburg and after these, President of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, J. I. Chilberg, turned the complete exposition over to the people of the city and state.

The benediction was pronounced by Right Reverend Frederick W. Keator, Bishop of Olympia, and closed the ceremonies of opening.

A magnificent display of daylight fireworks followed the throwing open of the fair, and this was continued throughout the afternoon. With the close of the program, a luncheon was served to distinguished guests and was attended by many prominent ladies and gentlemen guests of the exposition management. In the evening and official banquet was tendered visiting dignitaries at which short addresses were delivered by the governor of Washington, Mayor of Seattle, visiting governors and a number of distinguished visitors.

The opening of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition was worthy of the occasion. The presenting of the world's fair, complete and finished was something remarkable in exposition history, and when the fair presented had justified the claims of its builders, and made good the expectations of being the most beautiful exposition ever built, the natural enthusiasm of the boundless Northwest had sufficient cause for liberal expenditure.

No Need of Suffering From Rheumatism. It is a mistake to allow any one to suffer from rheumatism, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. Do not be discouraged until you have given it a trial. For sale by Daly & Hall.

WOMAN THE WAITRESS. "A woman," remarked the wise widow, "is always waiting for a husband."

For a Sprained Ankle. As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than a week's time. The liniment is a most remarkable preparation. Try it for a sprain or bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by Daly & Hall.

PROOF CONCLUSIVE. Lawyer (cross-examining): You testified that Miss Smythe was walking in her sleep. How do you know she was asleep?

Witness: Well, a mouse ran across the floor, right in front of her, and she never even flinched an eye.—Chicago Tribune.

Born in Iowa. Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from experience in the use of it. In fact when in El Paso, Texas, this writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Naricoussie, Fla., and have introduced the remedy there. It has proved very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—Ennis Bros. This remedy is for sale by Daly & Hall.

TWO KINDS. "There is quite a scandal in town because an elderly man of science was chasing a butterfly."

"No harm in that surely."

"Well, there might be. It seems the object of his quest was a society butterfly."—Birmingham Age Herald.

Sore Nipples. Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by Daly & Hall.

NO REASON AT ALL. He—The major is going to be married again.

She—Why, when his wife died he said that the light of his life had gone out.

He—There's no reason why he shouldn't strike another match is there?—Illustrated Bits.

Stomach Troubles. Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price, 25 cents. Sample free at Daly & Hall's drug store.

CULTIVATING THE SOUDAN. The area under cultivation in the Sudan was 1,223,971 acres, an increase of 415,329 acres over 1906. The Sudan irrigation service, in addition to its work connected with the various projects for increasing the water supply of Egypt, is also engaged in the proposed canalization of the Gezira, which will bring under cultivation large tracts of fertile soil for the growth of cereals and cotton.

A Thrilling Rescue. How Bert R. Lean, of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. $50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by A. L. Thornton.

WHY IS THIS? "All the world's a stage," "But you never see a crowd of girls hanging around a boiler factory, to watch the mattress make out."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Women Who are Envy. Those attractive women who are attractive in the face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be sickly and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvet skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. Size at A. L. Thornton's.

THE ETERNAL MOTORIST. Mrs. Gossip—They do say that her husband has acquired locomotor ataxia.

Mrs. Parvenue—I don't think much of those cheap cars; my husband has an imported one—Smart Set.

Could Not Be Better. No cure has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Chamberlain's Ankle Salve. Its the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Bolls, Clevers, Eczema, Salt Rheum, For sore eyes Cold Sores, Chapped Hands its supreme. Infalible for pimples. Only 25c at A. L. Thornton's.

BIG DEMAND FOR APPLE WOOD. The great demand for apple wood for the manufacture of saw handles has been appreciated by the large number of farmers who have lost their orchards through the ravages of the San Jose scale. Buyers have been going through New Jersey making tempting offers for the timber. In some cases farmers have found it more profitable to cut down old trees that are not prolific rather than depend upon an uncertain crop in the future.

There are many imitations of DeWitt's Carbolicized Witch Hazel Salve—DeWitt's is the original. Be sure you get DeWitt's Carbolicized Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. It is good for cuts, burns and bruises, and is especially good for Piles. Sold by Daly & Hall.

TELEPHONES IN SOUDAN. French business interests in the Western Sound have grown until the telephone has become a necessity. Hundreds of natives are now engaged in stringing telephone wire to the Niger and down that river to Timbuktu.

We do not know of any other pill that is as good as DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills—small, gentle, pleasant and sure pills with a reputation. Sold by Daly & Hall.

A FAMILY AFFAIR. "Cordelia," ordered the teacher, "throw that gum in the waste basket!"

The pupil's face grew scarlet but she did not stir.

"If you do not put that gum in the waste-basket immediately I will send you out of the room," said the teacher gravely.

The girl walked reluctantly to the desk. "I can't, teacher," she confessed. "It's my gum and she'll lick me if I come home without it."—Success Magazine.

Sometimes you may be told that there are other things just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. That isn't so. Nothing made in as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for any ailments of the kidney, or bladder which always results in weak back, backache, rheumatism, pains, rheumatism, and urinary disorders. A trial of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder pills is sufficient to convince you how good they are. Send your name to E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, for a free trial box. They are sold here by Daly & Hall.

HE LIKED HIS STRAIGHT. "Intemperance," said Horace Bixby, the oldest Mississippi pilot, "is what kills most of us off. Once we flashed out a passenger who had been smoking in the river for half an hour. When the whisky was brought, the victim's lips moved slightly, and I stooped to get his last words."

"Roll me on a bar'l' foot, and get some of this water out," he said faintly. "It'll weaken the liver."—Success Magazine.

ALWAYS THERE. Mrs. Binks (reading)—John, I read where a scientific expedition explored an extinct crater 2000 feet deep and at the bottom they found the bones of a prehistoric woman. How do you account for it?

Mr. Binks—Oh that is easily accounted for. Martha. You know a woman is at the bottom of every thing.—New York Globe.

Trouble Takers Ousted. When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his Dyspepsia and indigestion fly, but more—he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigorous, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25c at A.
