It now begins to look as though Lakeview would soon have a "Railroad Day" to celebrate, the same as has been the case this week with our neighboring city of Klamath Falls.

The Paville Family are now at Astoria, over the line headed this way. Good! They will be welcomed in Lakeview.

The O. V. L. Co.'s saw mill on Cottonwood is now in full blast getting out timber for the dam and flumes.

Sheepmen fresh burned line at Babn & Kelley's north Lakeview.

Men's oxgangs at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

There will be services at the M. E. Church Sunday morning for the children.

The baseball tournament begins July 2nd. Do not forget the date, and be sure to come here with your best girl.

The Court House grounds are now surrounded by a broad cement walk. The tread of the same seems good to us even though it did give us a momentary twinge of home sick feeling, for good old Minneapolis!

Potatoes at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Don't forget the Baseball Tournament at Lakeview the week of the Fourth.

It is reported that Dr. Smith and Andy Hammers have ordered Maxwell runabouts.

The lands around Goetz Lake thrown open for settlement will not be available until August 16, 1909.

The Prinerville Journal has this to say of a former Lakeview boy: George Storkman, the cigar maker, is spending several days this week extending his trade in Bend, Redmond and Sister's country. The pocket, he came in and thanked The Examiner man for booming the country so he could sell his property at a big profit, and then stopped his paper, as he is going away! The editor naturally becomes cynical, and wonders there is such a thing as gratitude to the world.

Rev. Smith, of New Pine Creek, is soon to take up his abode in the parsonage and fill the Baptist pulpit.

The new pastor of the M. E. Church, Mr. C. B. Rees, is holding meetings every night this week.

A. C. Mills, proprietor of the Mills Lodging House received 40 new and complete beds yesterday, and is now prepared to take good care of all who come his way.

Prof. Buchanan and a party from Eagle Grove, Iowa, arrived Thursday and at once went out to Flagstaff Lake, Warner Valley to look after their interests out there, and to take the initial steps in an irrigation enterprise for lands immediately adjoining that lake. The Examiner hopes to have full particulars for publication at a later date.

The name applied to the driver of the whiz car is a French word and is spelled chauffeur but its recognized English pronunciation is Sho-fer, with the sound of a long 's' in the word gobber. It is not at all necessary to twist your face into all sorts of shape in order to get the French pronunciation.

P. B. Cross, of Los Angeles, the leading spirit in the Southern Stage Co., operating between here and Alturas, was in town last week, with a Mitchell auto, which he has placed on the run, and will soon add more machines of the same make to that line, and will also place them on the route from here to Klamath Falls. He makes a round trip daily between here and Alturas each day, which is a big change from the stage coach pace and will be appreciated by the traveling public.

L. C. Beckwith and A. O. Kelley, of the Goldring mines, are in town.

Mrs. Bieber left on the auto stage yesterday noon for Alturas, to meet her daughter Dorothy who is returning home from school at San Francisco. Mrs. Harrow accompanied Mrs. Bieber.

Latest things in men's wear at Lakeview Mercantile Co.

The Klamath Express has this to say of the company to show in Lakeview during the Fourth: The Margaret lies Co. more than made good last night in "Sturck Oil," and though it drew the smallest house the company has had it was a most appreciative audience. The specialties were good, especially the singing and dancing by Miss Hammond, who has captured the theatre goers by her wonderful talent.

On the night of the 5th of July the Arcadia Theatre will give its patrons a chance to draw a gold watch valued a $25 for adults, and a $5 gold piece for children. The scheme is a fair one in this: Banker Miller has selected two numbers, and locked them up in the vault. Each ticket is numbered from one up for both adults and children. Those who purchase the lucky numbers will get the prize.

There will be a special number during the week of the 4th, mention of which will be made later. Messrs. Smith & Kirk have wired for the latest model of motion picture machine which will be here in time for the 4th.

The Edison phonograph and 4-minute records at Thornton's. Price $30, $40 and $55. 10-11.

FOUND MASONIC APRON IN PERU

Seattle, June 6.—A valuable gold embroidered Mason's apron at least 1000 years old was found on a mummy which Captain E. W. Sprague of the American schooner Columbia picked up on his last trip to Callao for a few dollars.

Captain Sprague is now in Tacoma. The apron is hand embroidered in real gold thread. Captain Sprague bought the apron from a contractor who had unwittingly purchased the mummy and was anxious to get rid of the thing.

Many high Masons have called upon Captain Sprague and attempted to decipher some of the symbols, but none has yet been able to read all of them.

Hotel for Women

Seattle, June 8.—Seattle will have a hotel exclusively for women during the exposition. It will have accommodations for 100 guests and was built at a cost of $500. This was borne in large part by the various churches of the city, clubs and social and religious organizations. It will be conducted under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., who already operate a woman's hotel on Queen Ann Hill.

Washington, June 10.—Senator Aldrich and other republican leaders in the senate this afternoon are confidently claiming that they have votes sufficient to defeat the income tax proposition. They intend to try to have adopted instead an amendment putting a tax on the dividends of corporations.

The notion is pretty well outgrown that a frost works any real good to a field of immature corn in the matter of helping to ripen it. A heavy or killing frost means death to the leaves and hence death to the stalks. Following this, the juices in the stalk turn sour and thus render little or no assistance to the ears in the conversion of the starch which they contain.

The parent who has the real welfare of son or daughter at heart will take pains to see that there is as little interruption as possible in the school work at the beginning of the year. While keeping the pupil from school on almost any pretext should be discouraged at all times, it is especially imperative that the work of the first few weeks after vacation should be prosecuted with the least possible interruption.
