CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

A good big stock of lumber is being brought into town from the mills, and those who desire to build can now be accommodated with building material.

Another brick kiln is being opened south of town.

L. F. Conn and J. D. Detrick went fishing recently and as a result the editor on two different occasions got a good square. We thank the gentlemen for their kind remembrance.

The gold watch given by the Arcadia Theatre as an attraction for the benefit of the baseball tournament, was secured by a gentleman from Santa Cruz, California, who held ticket No. 967.

Owing to the fact of having being general, our steers are a little bit deserted these days.

The Burns News complains of a lack of houses for rent, and says capitalists can make a good thing supplying the need. The same condition of things exists in Lakeview.

Rancher Koozer, of the West Side, says in spite of the frosts he will have half a crop of fine apples this fall.

W. L. Clapp has established an auto line from here to Klamath Falls. The run is made in seven hours.

A 4 horse extra stage coach loaded with passengers, arrived from Alturas Tuesday morning.

C. H. Dusenberry, the well known land locator, has been having a severe illness from rheumatic fever. He was taken very ill at Plush, and was confined to his bed some weeks. Three weeks ago he was brought to the hot springs at Lakeview, and the waters have helped him so that he is now able to be about again. Mr.

Dusenberry says big irrigation undertakings are on tap for the Warner valley and that to watch for a big rush for free government land there this fall.

The new cent pieces will soon be in circulation. It may be they will not reach here as we have little use for them. They will bear the likeness of Abraham Lincoln, instead of the familiar head of the American Indian.

Four wagon outfits arrived in town Sunday from Idaho, having driven overland. They all have good horses. The company look as though they would make desirable citizens.

The Arcadia Theatre has the full orchestra in attendance each evening and in consequence is drawing good houses.

The Citizen's Band gave an open air concert Sunday afternoon from the porch of Hotel Lakeview.

Silk embroidered waste patterns at B. & M's.

Our line of ladies' muslin and knit underwear cannot be excelled in Lakeview. B. & M's.

A magnificent crop of hay and alfalfa is being gathered in this valley these days.

DeJong and Bliss have purchased the Nelson restaurant and rooming house.

Fire will be put under the Bartley brick kiln Saturday.

We call your special attention to our line of Cluett Peabody shirts at B. & M's.

Col Light of Hotel Lakeview with a face as solemn as an owl informed The Examiner that his Honor Mayor Bailey while picking daisies by a spring on Dead Man's canyon was bitten by a rattlesnake. The Colonel is doing sorely as a newspaper reporter. We shall add him to our staff—especially when news is scarce.

All kinds of fishing tackle at B. & M's.

Clarence Riechart and Geo. Hankins are building a large garage on East Main St.

It is reported an auto club will soon be organized in Lakeview.

We have an excellent line of ladies' dutch collars. They are the very latest thing. B. & M.

The Examiner gleaned this from a Kansas exchange. It maybe all right. At least it is worth trying: Instead of shelling peas, throw them, pods and all, into a kettle of boiling water, after washing and discarding all spoiled ones. When they are done the pods will rise to the surface while the peas will stay at the bottom of the kettle. Peas cooked in this manner have a fine flavor.

Mexican Tamales every evening at 5 o'clock at the Blue Goose, opposite Odd Fellows Hall.

Mrs. Walters is moving her pioneer home off the street in order to make room for the march of improvement now upon Lakeview.

Fruit jars and rubbers at B. & M's.

E. T. Shepherd and brother, who arrived Tuesday from Ashland, Ore. were much surprised at the progress made here in the last two years.

From the way new houses and buildings have been going up the past year he thinks Lakeview is making more progress than any other town in Southern Oregon. Mr. Shepherd is in the piano trade and his firm has been visiting this town for nearly 20 years, so that he is well known here.

We have a large assortment of door locks, door bells hinges etc. B. & M.

A new assortment of Cluett Peabody shirts at B. & M's.

Mrs. Edward Benson, wife of a confectioner, of Hillsboro, was electrocuted on the Fourth by an electric lamp, which she was attempting to light. She had grasped the brass of the lamp with her left hand and the floor being wet from melted ice, a short circuit was at once formed, the current being of sufficient force to cause electrocution. The woman's hand was badly burned in the palm and one finger showed the effects of the current. In falling the woman tore the wiring from the ceiling.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Hall of Rebekah Lodge, No. 22, 1. O. O. F. Lakeview, Oregon, July 9, 1909.

The members of this lodge are again called upon to commiserate their sorrows and tears with the bereaved family of our beloved sister, Charlotte Augusta Venator, who departed this life on the 5th day of July, 1909. Verily has our lodge suffered an irreparable loss and an inconsolable bereavement has visited upon the family of the deceased.

In all her relations of life she has acted well her part, whether at the bedside, administering to the wants of the sick and distressed; whether in the social realm, happy and making others happy, or in the home, she was an active untiring Rebekah, and an affectionate wife, a loving daughter and a true friend. Therefore, be it resolved that this lodge tender its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of our deceased sister in this their sad affliction.

Resolved, That we drap our banner in mourning thirty days; that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the lodge; that a printed copy, under seal of the lodge, be sent to the family of our deceased sister, and a copy to the Lake County Examiner for publication.

Fraternally submitted,
W. J. MOORE,
L. J. MAGLTON,
DELIA HERYFORD, Committee.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

There have been nearly 1,000,000 divorces in this country during the past twenty years. Other millions might have been divorced, many of whom are living apart, had it not been for children, or from family pride. Such conditions are lamentable, but there seems to be no cure.

The younger set in this respect are worse even than their fathers and mothers, and on the first marital disagreement rush to the courts for relief from what in most cases are merely fancied wrongs. Instead of a divorce such kids should be soundly spanked and put to bed.
