Smiles and Squalls

By "THE VERDANT ONE"

Albert Chrisman, a Chicago barber, with a wife and baby, tramped the streets of that city looking for something to do to earn a living. He had only 20 cents that he had begged. He was utterly discouraged. He took a dice box and said if he got two sixes, he would try again; if not they should all die. He got two aces. He then stabbed his wife and wounded the baby, then took carbolic acid. He is dead. His wife will die. The baby, seriously wounded, is cared for by neighbors. Poor fellow! No work. No money! And Rockefeller with billions, and grabbing more day by day, and in the face of such pitiful cases as the above the old whelp expects to get to Heaven!

But the World does business just the same.

A New Jersey Justice has decided that a man cannot legally caress his wife against her will. Well, of all the jumping Cats in Jerusalem, if he is not allowed to caress his wife, nolens, volens, who is he to caress? OREGON APPLES SUPPLY THE WORLD

The Salem Statesman says: "Right on the heels of the New York firms representatives, who declared Oregon apples to be the best in the world comes this statement from a Portland buyer, who recently secured a quanity of 'second grade' apples at Hood River yet to be gathered: When the public becomes aware of the price that we paid for the apples that we purchased from the Hood River Apple Growers Union they will be astonished. We feel however, that we are justified in doing so on account of the oriental trade we have secured. I expect in the near future that the trade across the Pacific will become as important as the trade to Europe. It is the fact that leads me to believe that the Oregon apple is destined to play a very important part in the apple trade of the world. Situated between the nearest to the consuming markets of any in the successful apple of Oregon are located at comparatively a price that will make them the most profitable crop that can be grown in the state.
