CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

All the crops being raised here are in the best of health and are expected to yield a bumper crop. The weather has been very favorable for the crops at all times in the season, for so far as the crops are concerned.

There will be some all night dances at 8 o'clock at the following places: Lakeview, Astoria, Cannon Beach, and other places.

The big fall weather has returned. Misses Shelton and Finkler left Tuesday morning for Astoria for the purpose of visiting at the new home they have just purchased. The trip was a very successful one.

Outside papers report the worst weather in 21 years for November. Prof. Burgess while visiting kind had the misfortune to cut his hand so badly that it required several stitches.

Mr. Michael has sold his place at the south end of town and he and his wife will soon leave for California.

Mrs. E. E. Chesney has been serious for the past two weeks. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

M. S. Hoffman, of Alturas, came up Monday to get prices on Lakeview real estate.

Our fine fall weather took a slump this week. There has been considerable precipitation. On the 11th there were 22 inches; on the 10th, 10; on the 11th, 2. Some of it was snow and some of it was rain. On the 12th the mercury stood highest 75, lowest 32. On the 12th 20.7, the 13th 28.1, the 14th 29.9, the 15th 29.9.

Andrew Morris, of Astoria, the Clatsop fishingman reports that he has made and sold over a ton of herring this season.

Register Oregon wants eight cords of wood delivered immediately at its new residence on Walters addition.

Gene spent a jolly evening with four friends at Snider's Opera House, the night of Nov. 25. Any thing in the dance line you desire.

R. A. Jerome and family arrived Monday from Los Gatos, California. They drove all the way with their own team, and report a hard trip, with rain in the Sacramento valleys and three or four feet of snow covering the mountains. They are here to stay, and glad they came.

James Young is building a new home on Dreusel's addition.

Res. R. E. Dugan, of Astoria, District Superintendent of the M. E. Church, held quarterly conference here Saturday. He left for his home yesterday morning.

Raymond Ballard, the freighter arrived yesterday from Alturas with a load for our dealers.

A. Bieber expressed two boxes of big Winter Banana apples Tuesday to San Francisco friends.

The surveying crew under Chas. Faulkner, with Geo. McCool, Harvey Proctor, and "Tuff" Storkmann as

MARRIED

Two of our most popular young people, Miss Sylvia Heryford, next to the youngest daughter of W. R. Heryford, and Fred Reynolds of the Lakeview Pharmacy, son of merchant Reynolds, were married Sunday by Judge Daly. The young people at once began house-keeping in the little cottage built for them on East Water Street. The entire community are interested in this young couple and wish them all the good and best of the latter's life's existence.

GREED MCKENDREE

C. H. MCKENDREE wishes to announce that his services are at the disposal of the purchasers of the land at the Oregon Valley Land Company's Sale in Oregon. For two years Mr. McKendree was assistant, having charge of all the lands entrusted to the Military Land Grant, which was not until 1914 by the U. S. L. Co. In that capacity he familiarized himself with every tract of land on the grant, been acquainted with the owners, and can tell you from personal knowledge the location of every acre and every acre. He has a full and complete list of all the lands on the grant and will give you the name of the owner and the location of every acre.
