CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

The Examiner wishes its readers a Thanksgiving in fact, with plenty of turkey and all the other accessories.

Susberibers will greatly oblige, if they will give their old address, as well as new in ordering changes in their Post offices. It is a big task to hunt through three thousand names to find the right one.

The Snelling-Faulkner auto is in town. It is a high wheeled, solid tired, two seated machine, with top and has a very business like appearance.

S. J Dutton, of Davis Creek, was in town Monday. He reports roads very bad and much freight and express held up at Alturas. Hurry up that railroad, Mr. Dunaway.

An enterprising strawberry grower in this state is alleged to have grafted strawberry vines on alralfa roots, with the result that he gets three crops of berries a year. This may or may not be a fake. And it is worth trying.

Six two-horse team "movers" outfits arrived Monday morning from the North.

Three years ago Robert Kyle bought some land near Central Point, in Jackson county, for $80 an acre and was recently offered $1000 an acre for it. There is a moral right here if you look for it, and you do not have to go outside Lake county or Golden Goose Lake valley to find it!

Poor old Portland is hard hit. Even the S. P. Ry. has forbidden its contractors from purchasing of the jobbers of that burg.

Statistics prepared by the United States Board of Agriculture show that the earinig of poultry in the United States in one year were greater than either cotton crop, the wheat crop or the swine output. The last report of the deparatment showed that the value of the egg output for the single year amounted to more than $200,000,000.

About eight 4-horse outfits of immegrants and their moveables passed through town Sunday on their way north to secure some of our government lands, of "The last and Best West" These lands are going fast and soon there will be none left.

We understand that some Lakeview parties want to contract about 20,000 pounds of bacon with someone in Surprise valley. Now who'll take the job?—Cedarville Record.

Three blanket-men, drunk, attempted to waylay an Alturas wood teamster and got everlastingly walloped, and landed in jail to boot.

The big co-operative store at Alturas has taken a firm step to hereafter sell only for cash.

John Peterson, of Bidwell was fined $250 for cotempt of court at Alturas. He was placed on probation for two years and ordered to pay $15 a month into the county treasury.

The Silver Lake Leader is erecting a building for its own occupancy. This shows prosperity. We congratulate you Bro. Holder. The Examiner is also planning faster equipment, and a new office building.

Alturas New Era, 17: Tom Sherlock came down from Lakeview last week and remained several days. He was looking around with view to purchasing a sheep ranch, but as yet we believe that he has not been suited.

The Oregon society, of Sons of Americana Revolution offers cash prizes for the best essays on five subjects, written by High School pupils in the state. The papers must be handed in to B. A. Taxter, 443 Eleventh St., Portland, Oregon, before Feb 10 1910, to whom application should be made for further information.

The heavy rains of late caused the side of a mountain to slide, destroying the ditch of the Alturas lighting plant and put the town in darkness.

McPherson, Kannass is to have Tungsten street lights, at a cost of $12.50 a light, two to a block Lakeview could have better street lighting at but little if any additional cost, by adopting such lights.

Klamath Falls is reaching out for trade of the Silver Lake country.

Rev. "Billy" Williams, has been fighting the devil at Hood River, and is now engaged in the same work in Salem. He should have waited until the legislature met in order to get in his best work in that town.

The ladies of the Rebecca Degree will give their members quite a unique entertainment Friday night, Nov. 26 1909.

If you are interested in a mail conract see Postmaster Miller.

Alturas Plaindealer, 19: Pearson Bigley Co., shipped another car load of fruit from Surprise. it went out on the train yesterday. Many cattle are also being shipped which taxes the capacity of narrow gauge to its utmost.

Union Thanksgiving Service will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Baptist Church, sermon by Rev. G. J. Wentzell of the Methodist Church.

Robert L. Koontz, of Silver Run, Maryland, arrived in town Tuesday. He has a ten acre tract on the West Side, that he secured for the O. V. L. Co. and will at once begin improvements. He is much impressed with Lakeview and thinks it a wonderful town so far from the railroads.

Pleasant Shellhammer, of Crooked Creek was disposing of a load of turkeys Monday, in Lakeview.

The police court was busy Monday disposing of an unusual number of drunks. The rainy weather laid off a lot of the ditchmen, and they at once proceeded to get hilarious. They all contributed liberally to the city exchequer.

Louis Gerber and A. T. Langel were in town last week looking up horses to purchase.

Bonanza Bulletin 18: There were eighteen men on last Fridays stage bound for Lakeview where they will work for the Hall Construction company

A lot of the town boys, of 15 years or thereabouts were arrested Saturday for shooting Mr. Magilton's dog. The Justice let the boys off with a severe reprimand, but warned them to be have in the future. If we are permitted to enquire, why do parents allow their half grown boys to carry concealed weapons?

C. O. Misener, was circulating a petition around town last week for a change in the mail route between here and Paisley, so as to accomodate the people of Valley Falls and Chewaucan valley. The route at present follows a mountain ridge which at times is impassible on account of the deep snow. The new route will follow the valley all the way and while somewhat longer, better time can be made, and it will also better accomodate the greater number of people. The petition was unanimously signed here, with only one or two exceptions.

Mrs. Cheney is now reborted convalescent.

Miss Minnie Henderson, of Cogswell Creek is very ill of typhoid fever

THE WEATHER

It surely has been "A rainy, wet ans sloppy spell" the past week. Old timers say it is unprecedented for Novemper. The warmest for the week was the 19th when it was 74 above; the lowest was 21 above. On the 18th it began to drizzle, and on the 19th the rainfall was .36 of an inch, on the 20th .45, the 21st .57, and 22d .33, the 23d .45, on the 24 .22. There appears to be no let up to the rain as we go press.

We ordered some illustrated Thanksgiving matter for this issue, but the stage neglected to bring it

CREED MCKENDREE

C. H McKENDREE Wishes to announce that his services are at the disposal of the purchasers of the land at the Oregon Valley Land Company's Sale in Oregon. For two years Mr. Mckendree was rental agent, having charge of all the lands embraced in the Military Road Grant, which was cut up and sold by the O. V. L. Co. In that capecity he familarized himself with every tract of land on the grant, became acquainted with renters, and can tell you from personal knowledge the value of each and every tract, both as to location and quality, and renting value. In addition Mr. McKendree knows the stockmen and who rented every portion of these lands during the past two years—he knows whom to see to rent each tract this year. For a uniform fee of five ($5.00) dollars per tract regardless of size, Mr McKendree will render a report giving location, quality and the value, and will find you a renter if the land is rentable. All inquiets for information must be accompanied by $5.00, otherwise no answer will be returned. REMEMBER, Mr. McKendree does not have to inspect the land, and render a "first look report, he has the books classifying every tract, and knows what it rented for last year—he has been over every foot of the grant, he can find you a renter.

Reference—Any bank or business man in Lakeview.

Address C. H. McKENDREE
