The Land of Puzzledom.

No. 459.—Hidden Cities.
Find a capital of some state in the United States in each of the following sentences: Example—The first one is Madison.
I, your son, am mad at the very thought. "Nix," he remarked in slangy English, "no fee from me." You, Lem, what do you say to this? Would you peek through a door and see a boy spun on one toe? Jack led his daughter and Mrs. Jack their son. In the field there are daisies down by the spring. Take Jeff and Frank and Dick down to the fort. Two men, Leigh and Day, had their hands raw from rowing. "Ram it into the sack," said he to the men. "Rock the baby just a little bit," said mother. The city is near Lake Erie, and they have both fresh and salt water. "Mond" is from the German—a language fine and rich.
—Youth's Companion.

No. 460.—Candy Puzzle.

No. 461.—Double Acrostic.

The initials and finals of the words described in the following lines form two other words which suggest cake and mince pies:
The first is governed by King Edward's hand;
The next describes his favored command;
The third is hard for some to see;
Fourth is a wish, for some to see;
The fifth must be a good one;
Sixth is a drink of wine;
Seventh is a kind of bread;
And eighth is a word that calls to

No. 462.—Author's Puzzle.

[An author and two lines of his famous poem.]
My 1 2 4 8 3 is the name of a famous Bible character. My 5 6 7 is an oft repeated question as to method.
My 13 12 9 10 is to be found around the house. My 11 15 14 is used in making this puzzle.
Be not discouraged if it is not easy to solve. Ever so many find the humble task impossible. And there's no need of hurry. No one can hope for first place, but like everything else done in the home, patience is required.

No. 463.—Charade.

My first is a person you know very well.
My second is not far astray;
My third is the "short" of a famous man's name
And be fourths what he wishes to say.
To the people who live in my whole.
Now, you surely can guess it today.
—St. Nicholas.

No. 464.—Hidden Parts of a Tree.

I settled that little affair of John's to every one's satisfaction.
The man's three sons were named Jethro, Otto and Sambo.
As we crossed the bar Kate grew pale and sick.
The bear cub ran, chased by crowds of children.
When puss was teased it wiggled its tail.

A WILD BLIZZARD RAGING

brings danger suffering - often death - to thousands, who take colds, coughs and grippe - that terror of the Winter and Spring. Its danger signs are "stuffed up" nostrils, lower part of the nose sore, chills and fever, pain in the back of head, and a throat gripping cough.
When Grip attacks, as you value your life, don't delay getting Dr. King's New Discovery. "One bottle cured me," writes A. L. Dunn, of Pine Valley, Mass. "after being 'laid up' three weeks with Grip." For sore, Lungs, Hemorrhages, Coughs, Colds,
Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma,

SAVED A T DEATH'S DOOR.

The door of death seemed to open for Murray W. Ayres, of Transit Bridge N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Vir-tuous trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. That matchless medicine Electric Bitters cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong."
For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. 50c at A.

The Oregon A. O. U. W. goat show is being held at Dallas. Its object is to promote the growth of the valuable industry in this state. Lake County is well adapted to the industry, but we have only a few of the animals.
Conducted rightly there is big money in the business.

A WRETCHED MISTAKE

to endure the itching painful distress of Itch. There's no need to listen:
"I suffered in such a way from Itch," writes Will A. Marsh, of Silver City, N. C., "till I got a box of Buckle's Arnica Salve, and was soon cured."
Cuts, Chapped Hands, Chilblains,
