College Educated Women Make the Finest Mothers.

By Mrs. PHILIP CARPENTER, President of the Sorosis Club of New York City. BELIEVE that the college educated woman of America makes the finest type of mother. It is QUALITY, NOT QUANTITY, of children which should count. The reason is simple. The college woman, generally speaking, is the BEST DEVELOPED WOMAN.

College education for women today does not mean the evolution of a race of sexless literary bluestockings. It does not strive to produce well trained amazons. What it does aim for—and in the main effects—is ideal PHYSICAL AND MENTAL DEVELOPMENT such as only a few favored women have ever been permitted to attain in the past.

It is a scientific fact that for the evolution of the best, the best types of both male and female are required. Then it is only logic to assume that, OTHER THINGS BEING EQUAL, the splendid physical and mental health of the college woman will perpetuate itself in a specially fine progeny.

THAT IS, THE COLLEGE WOMAN MUST BE THE BEST MOTHER IN THE SENSE THAT SHE IS CAPABLE OF PRODUCING THE FINEST CHILDREN AND THEREBY OF DEFINITELY ASSISTING IN THE EVOLUTION OF THE RACE.

Women today are becoming "conscious" that every child born is entitled to a definite share of money, of education, of love. Mothers are learning that they have NO MORAL OR SOCIAL RIGHT TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR A LARGER FAMILY THAN THEY CAN CARE FOR PROPERLY. It isn't playing fair with either the family or the world. In this general movement of "consciousness" as opposed to more instinctive animal motherhood the college women, because of their high average breadth of vision, are perhaps the leaders.

I SHOULD WISH HIGHER EDUCATION FOR WOMEN TO BE DESTROYED AND BLOTTED OUT FOREVER IF I BELIEVED THAT IT UNFITTED THEM FOR THE DUTIES OF THE HOME. THERE IS A WOMAN'S BEST PLACE. THERE SHE IS HAPPIEST. BUT HER COLLEGE LIFE ONLY TRAINS HER THE BETTER FOR THE HOME LIFE.

Heart to Heart Talks. By EDWIN A. NYE. Copyright, 1908, by Edwin A. Nye.

LOVE IS DEVOTION. Should you chance to read the story of the devotion of General David K. Wardwell in the pages of Balzac you would declare the tale is overdrawn. Truth is not only stranger than fiction; it is oftentimes more beautiful. General Wardwell was a veteran of two wars, a retired United States army officer. Some time ago Mrs. Wardwell contracted leprosy. As the disease developed she felt she must leave her husband. Secretly and with much suffering she got to Los Angeles and gave herself up to the authorities. They held her for deportation to a leper colony. But the old warrior would not give up his wife. He pleaded for permission to take her to Mexico. He was refused. The next morning the window of his wife's room in the hospital was found open. The old soldier had taken his wife out by a ladder. "They left a note. It read: 'We've gone to die together.'"

Poetic License. "And what do you think? Mr. Hack, the famous poet, told me I didn't look a day over twenty-one!" "That's what he calls poetic license, I suppose!"—New York Herald.
