CITY AND COUNTY BRIEFS

We regret to learn that Editor Holder who writes a typical pen on the Silver Lake Leader is confined to his bed by a trip to his kidney trouble. It is hoped he will soon recover.

M. E. Rice, secretary of Board of Trade, has gone to Astoria and Portland on matters pertaining to his office.

The Board of Trade had a meeting last week and decided to set out some distribution and illustrated matter for circulation among housewives.

The Examiner has printed some new booklets for the Tri-State Land Co., that does not take a back seat to the stuff imported here, that was made in the cities.

Regular sugar time, these days of light snow, and thaws soon as it touches the ground, but somehow we miss the grand old maple trees with their tapers!

Next Sunday is Easter, and the query: "Is my new hat on straight?" is universal among the weaker—and beautiful ones!

D. J. Huffman, of the Southern Oregon Realty Co., has returned from his Catlow valley trip and is very enthusiastic over that country. He says several outfits are locating settlers, one from Tacoma will place 60 families there this spring and thinks that by fall there will be no vacant government land left in that valley.

Lakeview is doing enough talking on metropolitan wire-tan grand millinery openings in town in one week, a lot of excited women whose husbands are going around with a disconsolate look and not money enough left in their pockets to buy a claw or tiger tacker.

There were two well-attended dances in town St. Patrick's night.

It is reported that some of our town boys are stealing eggs from neighbor hen coops. They better watch out, or they may land in the city cooler.

Ranchers near Alturas are going in to hog-raising, one man having 125 head. The Platadesler says they will stand the frost.

Darney Oldfield ran his big auto at Daytonia at the rate of two miles a minute. That speed will make some of our local outcasts sit up and take notice.

Inspector Proudfoot says that if he finds any sanitary shops that are unpermitted he will prosecute the owners. He will make a tour of inspection of the town in a few days.

The Christmas lake artesian well is now about 300 feet, and from indications it is expected a flow will be struck at 600 feet of it.

Silver Lake after three months of "faller" candles, is again blessed with electric lights.

John Allison and Harvey Procter have gone to Cedarville to purchase hogs for the local market. The moral of this, suit with hogs at $11.25 in Portland, is to raise more hogs in Lake county.

Mmanuel Sanders, the sheep grower, has leased the XL ranch at Albert Lake, for grazing purposes, and will take possession April 1st. He will keep the station there the same as has been done in the past. It has been a regular stopping place for years and Mr. Sanders will try to treat everybody well.

The Susanville Advocate is full of cards of those seeking office. Our candidates should not be so bashful. True merit should not hide itself under a half bushel measure.

Klamath Express 10: J. W. Linebaugh paid $470 yesterday to Chas. Humphrey for a splendid team, harness and wagon and will leave today for Lakeview.

C. A. Bunting has purchased a dandy little "Huppmobile". It runs like John D. will when the devil gets after him with a red hot pitchfork, and that sure is going some! Even Dan Malloy says it is too fast for him, that is going some and then some more!

Z. T. McCabe, and wife of Central City Neb., are recent arrivals. They have purchased the Albert Dent residence on Water St., and have become permanent residents.

And now Auten has gone and purchased an automobile. He Auten to have done that before the Examiner man got one.

D. A. Owens, a recent arrival from Colorado, has purchased a 12 acre farm in the Spruce Valley.

Earl Booth of Denver Colo., a recent arrival purchased 120 acres of land on the West Side through the Pacific Land Company. He is well pleased with the town and country.

The town is full of strangers, and more coming every day.

The following are the census enumerators for Lake County—Chester J. Catlow, Silver Lake; William A. La Sater, Silver Lake; William A. Boudnot, Klamath Falls; Quincy Willis, Lakeview.

W. A. Rolfe, of Oakdale, Wash., was in town a few days this week. He is interested in the Massacre Lake country in Nevada. It is his purpose to buy large tracts of land there, and engage in horse raising.

New dwellings are going up in every part of town. Some day we will take a lay off and make a list of them.

O. W. Ashby of Ottawa, Kansas, has our thanks for a copy of the Evening Herald of that town, a big 7-column, 8-page up-to-date paper. The

Mr. HOMESEEKER:

Why delay getting that homestead? Your chances are less every day. Railroads are building into our section. Capitalists are securing large tracts of our lands.

Settlers are coming every day and locating.

What has been known as the GREAT INLAND EMPIRE will soon be segregated with railroads and become one of the most prosperous farming sections in the West.

You know the advantages and opportunities there are in a new country, and the ever increasing price of land, and we assure you that a trip into our county will prove one of the best investments you ever made.

REMEMBER, we make a specialty of locating homesteads, desert claims, and reporting on school lands, college lands, etc. and we assure you of the very best of service.

Write or call on us for any information you may want concerning lands.
