The Scrap Book

Settling a Bet.

A New Yorker and a Chicagoan met at a big restaurant where all alcoholic liquors were strictly forbidden. To make amends for this a thoughtful individual had established a barroom at the foot of the hill on which the institution was situated. In front of this, at right angles to the sidewalk, hung a big sign.

"Clever name that gin mill down there has," said the New Yorker, "The Last Chance."

"It's clever all right," replied the Chicago man, "but you've got it wrong. It's 'The First Chance.'"

Argument was superfluous. There was nothing to do but to make a small bet and settle it at once. The two went down the hill together, and pretty soon the westerner exclaimed triumphantly:

"The First Chance! I win."
The New Yorker could not dispute.

ALL IN A FLUTTER.

For the first time in her life she was about to make a railway journey. When she arrived at the station she didn't know what to do.

"She hailed a porter."

"You're man," she said, "can you tell me where I get my ticket?"

"Right there at the bookie's office!" answered the porter jerking his thumb backward; "thru the pigeon hole."

She regarded the hole, and then she regarded the porter. Her face was crimson with insult.

"You be off, you idiot!" she screamed. "How on earth do you think I'm going to get thro' there? I ain't no balsted pigeon!"—Answers

SAVED FROM THE GRAVE

"I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs. M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work, but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its tea test medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obsolete coughs, stubborn colds, hay fever, lagrippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis and hemorrhages, hoarseness and whooping cough, yield quickly to this wonderful medicine. Try it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by A. L. Thornton.

TOO CONCENTRATED

"I am always cool in the face of danger," he boasted proudly. When the crisis came he was obliged to acknowledge that he told the truth. The only objection was that his coolness was all in his feet. —Cleveland Leader.

THE DEMON OF THE AIR

is the germs of LaGrippe, that, breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after effects are weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic blood purifier and regulator of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by A. L. Thornton.

A RELIEF

"Johnny," said the boy's mother, "I hope you have been a nice, quiet boy at school this afternoon." "That's what I was," answered Johnny. "I went to sleep right after dinner, and the teacher said I'd whip any boy in the room who waked me up." —Boston Post.

WORSER THAN BULLETS.

Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered with, forty years. "But Bucklen's Astringent Salve cured me when all else failed," he writes. Greatest healer for Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises and Piles. 25c at A. L. Thornton.

THE WHOLE STORY

They met and bowed, and went their way—
Ere long they met and talked. And yet
Once more they met, and laughed and danced—
And afterward they met—and met
And met—and met—and met—and then
They met and did not part again. —Puck.

THE CALL OF THE BLOOD

for purification, finds voice in pimples, boils, sallow complexion, and jaundice look, moth patches and blotches on the skin, all signs of Liver trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills make rich red blood; give clear skin, rosy cheeks, fine complexion, health. Try them. 25c at A. L. Thornton the evidence of his own senses, but was deeply puzzled. When they reached the place he looked at the other side of the sign. It read, "The Last Chance." To those going up the hill the resort was named "The Last Chance"; to those coming down it was "The First Chance." The two men took both chances.

The Full of Joy.

If we might have the fruit without the blessing,
If we the planting time and waiting time could miss,
Not half so sweet would seem the garnered sector,
The gracious year be robbed of half its bliss.

If careless we might gain our greatest longing,
To human nature it would be as painted toy.

The sweat of brow and anxious, weary waiting
Perhaps is that we learn to know the full of joy.

The Great Progressive Weekly

There are many reasons why you should read what it says 52 times each year. It is free to tell the truth. It will oppose the encroachment of special privileges upon the people's rights. It will call the roll on public men and measures and inform you how your congressmen work and vote. It will criticize the executive branch of government from the highest to the lowest, if in its judgment the peoples interests are not protected. It will spread the gospel of ideal home life through the Women's Department. It will be conservative when good things are to be conserved, and radical when bad things are to be exposed.
