Mrs. Maxwell Entertains "Backward, turn backward Oh time in your flight, Make me a child again, Just for to-night."

The Maxwell home was the scene of much merriment on Monday P M when a gathering of young girls (?) in commemoration of the host's 67th birthday. From old pictures of the children assembled taken 40 years and more ago many interesting stories were related and sweet old faces grew young in thought, so much so, in fact that one little girl of 66 proposed taking off her shoes and stockings and running barefooted. A guessing contest of the pictures as to "who is who?" created much fun. Mrs Colvin, age 14 (?), carried off the prize while Mrs Miller, another lassie of sweet 16 (?), was handed the lemon. A luncheon was spread and Mrs. Neilson, was kept very busy keeping the "youngsters" in order. Those present were:— Mesdames—F. A. Miller, E. H. Taylor, D. Cleland, S. I. Colvin, L. B. Whorton, Mary Russell, Eva Jackson, S. P. Moss, James Foster, T. J. Magilton, M. T. Walters, A. S. Down, Ben. Cloud, J. N. Watson, E. H. Clark, and A. J. Neilson.

FRIENDS:

We are the oldest Real Estate firm in Southern Oregon, and until this season, we have not attempted to locate a single party on Government land. "GOOD" land subject to homesteading is scarce, but we can now locate a few on the cream of now vacant lands in Lake County.

We also have a big list of farms, unimproved lands and town property for sale.

Very truly yours,
J. W. MAXWELL & SON.
