DAMES AND WITNERS.

Lotta is now rated as Boston's fourth largest taxpayer, the assessor placing against her property a total of $155,000 in valuations.
 Miss Sophia Breckenridge, assistant dean of women in the University of Chicago, is a director in the League For the Protection of the Immigrant.
 Miss Alma Sturtevant was recently appointed clerk of the county court in Boulder, Colo. She is a native of Maine and moved to Boulder county from that state three years ago.
 Lady Rold, the wife of the new British ambassador to Rome, was Lillian Georgiana Guthrie. She is a woman of tact and is expected to exercise a great deal of influence in diplomatic circles in the Eternal City.
 Mrs. Charles Neave is the latest English woman of birth and education to go into business. She has become a press agent, and it is said by her friends that some of the best singers at Covent Garden, London, are largely indebted to her for their success this season.
 Miss Anna A. Nevins of New York is said to be the only woman wireless telegraph operator in the world. She sits day after day on the roof of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel sending and receiving messages through the air to ships at sea. She is only twenty-two years old.

Short Stories.

The national colors of the United States were adopted in 1777.
 In the year 1700 there was only one newspaper in the United States.
 It has taken eighteen years to cut down the transatlantic record one day.
 Street sweepers of Chicago and Boston carry a tiny electric lamp on their caps to keep from being run over.
 Water freezes every night throughout the year at Alto Cruera, in Bolivia, while at noonday the sun is hot enough to cause actual suffering.
 Frank Huard of Burlington, Vt., has a Japanese coin thought to be 600 years old. It is a copper piece about the size of the English halfpenny.
 One hundred and seventy-seven cities of the United States of over 5,000 inhabitants are maintaining playgrounds at an annual cost of more than $12,000,000, of which over one-third is raised by voluntary contributions.

Things Theatrical.

Leo Mars has been engaged for a French role in "The Dollar Prince."
 Amelia Bingham has a play by Stanislas Stange called "Her Other Self."
 Charles Frohman has accepted a new play called "Thrift" to produce in London.
 E. H. Sothern is playing revivals of his successes this season, including "If I Were King."
 Mary Manning will not act for the balance of the season and will probably go abroad for the summer.
 Maude Adams has started rehearsals of "Joan of Arc," which she is to produce in June at Harvard university.
 Joseph Coyne, who is playing in "The Merry Widow" in London, will remain abroad under contract for several years.

Sporting Notes.

Handball is booming at Indiana university.
 Syracuse anglers will build a $25,000 clubhouse.
 Multnomah A. A. of Portland, Ore., has 2,500 members.
 Pitcher Groom, with the Washington club, will be one of the tallest pitchers in the major leagues if he makes good. He has Addie Joss beaten by two inches.
 Pitcher "Rube" Marquard of the New York Nationals is only twenty years old and stands six feet four inches without his spikes. When he fills out he will be a powerful fellow.

English Etchings.

The title of reverend was first used in England in 1557.
 Employment will be given to 18,000 men if England's plan is carried out of absorbing 150,000 acres a year.
 England is getting warmer. The average temperature has risen just over a degree in the past half century.
 The brewery at Burton-on-Trent, England, covers 100 acres. The yearly income is over $25,000,000. Seven hundred carloads of ale are forwarded daily.

Facts From France.

Blue, yellow, green and red are the colors of the new bank notes to be issued by the Bank of France.
 Among the Paris buildings soon to be demolished is the Castle of Etolles, on the Seine. It was the favorite domicile of Louis XIV.
 The French government has begun its first coinage of aluminum fractional currency, to take the place of the old copper coins, which will be withdrawn from circulation.

German Gleanings.

It is only within the last ten years that tropical fruits like bananas and pineapples have had large sale in Germany.
 Berlin buys nearly all its milk in bulk, the bottled milk trade being insignificant. But little sterilized milk is sold.
 German trade papers note with regret that the exportation of pictorial postal cards to the United States, formerly so large, has sunk to a trifle.
