With the Publishers

During the past month upwards of 75 paid in-advance subscriptions have been added to the Examiner's subscription list, many of them being from parties living in Lake county, the Willamette valley and California, but a majority from persons in the Middle West. Under the management of Fred J. Bowman, the Examiner secured what was doubtless the largest circulation of any country newspaper published in the state, the average number of copies printed during the past year exceeding 2750 copies weekly. Every week sees many names added to the list, and scarcely a day passes but that from two to half dozen new subscriptions are received. Very few persons are discontinuing their subscriptions, and many renewals are received daily. As a natural consequence, the many advantages of Lake County are heralded weekly to a large circle of readers throughout the various States of the Union, and the liberal patronage both as to subscriptions and advertising, is thoroughly appreciated by the publishers. And the many kind words received, both written and orally, makes one feel that his efforts to assist in the upbuilding of this great country are not passed unnoticed.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK

Notwithstanding that the country is more prosperous than ever before, that laborers are receiving higher wages and producers everywhere obtaining big prices for their products, every effort is apparently being put forth to change conditions as soon as possible. And the leading politicians, would-be and otherwise, regardless of party, seem to be striving with herculean efforts to reach the goal as soon as possible. The Socialists we have with us always and they are of course opposed to our present form of Government, but when it comes to the regular and insurgent wing of the Republican party it certainly does seem as if something better should be forthcoming. Each side is telling what the other side is going to do, and what dire results are to follow such action. But somehow or other thus far the promised results have failed to materialize, except as to create such discord among the people generally.

There never have been greater nagaboos than the tariff, Cannonism, Aldrichism, Pinechotism and the numerous other items that are being brought forth by one side or the other in efforts to gain some fancied advantage. The cause of the high cost of living is another fruitful source of discussion, and more reasons are assigned therefore than any other one subject that has ever been before the American people. As James J. Hill well said, the high cost of living is caused by living high, and let any individual take his own case and see if such is not very near the truth. The tariff is another fruitful source of difference of opinion, and how many of us actually know whether or not the new tariff law raised or lowered the schedule of articles in which we are directly interested. The knowing ones make a glittering show of generalities, both pro and con, and in the meantime when hides are admitted free and the tariff on lumber is reduced, the prices on both articles are correspondingly advanced, which is directly the reverse of what was to be expected.

And right here in Oregon the Republican leaders seem to be putting forth every effort to disrupt the party and turn everything over to the opposition. And it is not being done for any other purpose than to "play even" on the other wing of the party. Both wings are equally capable, and judging from present indications the game will be played to a fare you well. While personally we believe that better results would be obtained under the assembly plan of nominations rather than a helter skelter race as the present primary plan consists of, yet at the same time we believe that a large majority or the voters of this state are of the contrary opinion. Should the assembly nominees be unsuccessful at the primary election, it looks very much as if that wing of the party would support Democratic nominees in preference to those who are opposing the assembly plan. And it might be added that the indications are that should the Statement No. 1 people be unsuccessful it is not at all improbable that they will throw their strength in opposition to the assembly people. Thus far neither wing seems to have thought of a possible defeat, and as a consequence nothing has been said as to supporting the Republican candidates at the Fall elections. After the candidates have been chosen then both wings will be in a position to get out their hammers, for neither have pledged themselves to support the Republican nominees.

Unless some effort is put forth to harmonize existing party differences, it requires no prophet nor son of a prophet to foretell results here in Oregon, as well as the Nation. If such a change would result in a betterment of conditions, it would be all well and good, but every change that has been made for a number of years has resulted otherwise, and history is very likely to repeat itself.

The body of King Edward VII was laid at rest Friday in St. George's Chapel, Windsor, where seven other British Kings are buried, with the most impressive funeral ceremonies in the world's history. The procession left Westminster at 9:50, with the entire city in a highly nervous condition. Hundreds of the spectators fainted, and forty ambulances were kept busy answering emergency calls. The order of procedure of sovereigns in the procession was governed by kinship. The special envoys of the United States and France occupied the eighth carriage and although ex President Roosevelt was inconspicuous in the procession, King George gave him marked attention at the luncheon at Windsor castle after the funeral, seating him with eight other guests, at his own table. The German emperor sat with the queen's mother and Queen Mary.

Valley Falls Items

H. A. Utley was a Paisley visitor the first of the week on game matters.

Money Orders to the amount of $250 were issued here for the month of April.

An Eastern man guessed the height of our 650 foot rim at 50 feet. Guess again.

Mr. Barker the Wagon Tire Mountain country locator, passed through here Wednesday.

The hotel at this point is about completed and it is expected to be running within a week.

Andy Hotchkiss has been riding in the Clover Flat vicinity, stock in here requiring considerable attention.

Postmaster Meyer, E. J. Stone, H. E. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hotchkiss were Lakeview visitors this week.

We are informed that H. A. Utley, game warden, has on the road trout spawn to re-stock Crooked Creek. This is the poorest fishing stream in the vicinity and the only reason we can attribute it to is the un-screened irrigation ditches.

Chas. Moore wife and brother, of Sand Cave, passed through here this week to spend a month or so in Lakeview.

A ten acre contract holder is now putting up a house south of the old 70 houses. We have been unable to learn his name.

Messrs. Moss and Bertling passed through here a few days ago. They have a private subscription sufficient large to do considerable road work on the Public road from the XL to Alkali.

Loyal Boosters

Gilbert F. Smith, a veteran of Co. "F" 2nd Oregon Volunteers, who has been following the flag since 1898, is one of the homesteaders holding down a claim in the Christmas Lake Valley.

Mr. Smith was one of the census-takers this year and covered quite a territory. In places where there was not a single cabin a couple of years ago he found large settlements of very optimistic citizens holding down their claims, clearing sage brush, plowing seedling or building fences and helping develop the new empire. One very noticeable feature of the new residents is that while they came from every state in the Union and many diverse climates, every one seems to be a loyal booster of the most optimistic types and seemingly bent upon producing something in the line of agricultural product; grain, grasses and vegetables look very good.

DOINGS IN THE NORTH END

(Silver Lake Leader)

Bob Roberts, formerly of this place has purchased a grocery business at Cresswell, Lane county.

Miss Stella Martin is going around on crutches this week owing to accidentally falling down stairs.

Jake Gillam arrived home Wednesday after a joy trip of some two months in California and Washington.

James Wakefield has sold out his interest in the St. James hotel to Ed Lundy, who took charge of the same yesterday.

W. D. West whose commission expired on Sunday has been reappointed U. S. Commissioner. Mr. West makes a competent and reliable commissioner and showed his worth was recognized by those having the appointing power.

W. G. Cyrus, of Lake, was in the latter part of the last week on business. Mr. Cyrus informed us that the artesian well boring machine had got down 426 feet, but it would stop for awhile until fuel can be got for the engine, as every one was so busy with their own work that teams could not be had to haul wood.

DIED—On Sunday afternoon, May 15th, 1910, Barnise Cummings, brother of Mrs. John Harris. The deceased was born in Indiana in 1887, and resided there until he came to Oregon, having been in this state just one year today. On Sunday afternoon the ball team met for practice, and as Mr. Cummings had recently been elected captain of the team, was playing a practice game. He was apparently in the best of health and near the end of the game volunteered to run the bases for a batter who was unable to run. He made the run to second base. While there he remarked to the baseman that he had a severe pain in his side and was about all in. He went to third base and walked in from there, sitting down near the home plate, falling over on his back, gave two or three short gasps and was dead before the many bystanders were aware of it. Every possible effort was made to bring him to life but to no avail. The deceased was a bright, energetic and highly respected young man and was held in the highest esteem by the whole community whose hearts are saddened by his sudden demise.

Additional Locals

Miss Rose Greene is over from Plush on a visit to friends.

Born in this city, May 4, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. Philip P. Barry, a daughter.

Bert Harbor is back from a trip to California, and is fast becoming an expert chauffeur.

John W. Alexander, of the Weyerhaeuser Land Co., came over from Klamath yesterday.

Mike Doohar, the timber cruiser, is over from Klamath with R. H. Hovey and Chas. P. Bray on a timber deal.

Edison Watson, late of Kansas, has succeeded H. G. Wilson as superintendent of the Klamath Indian Reservation.

E. E. Rinehart returned Tuesday from San Francisco, bringing with him one of the big autos for the Southern Stage Co.

D. L. Kelley and Mrs. Anna Egan were married last night, Rev. G. J. Wentzell officiating. Both are well known people of Lakeview and have many friends who extend hearty congratulations.

Rev. J. H. Jetmore formerly of Neosho, Mo., who has been in Lakeview the past few weeks is contemplating taking some of the Government land open to entry in this county. Mr. Jetmore, while a member of the clergy is also a practical agriculturist and likes the country that he has seen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heryford and James Heryford left Wednesday afternoon for Millville, Cal., having been called by the serious illness of the father of the boys. His advanced age, he being about 85 years old, makes his recovery doubtful. They left in Mr. Heryford's new auto, expecting to make the trip quicker than by going by rail.

A. G. Schroder, the notorious baseball fan of Silver Lake, has been in town this week, and gave it out straight that he would be here on the Fourth with one of the best amateur teams in the state, and as a natural consequence would take the $1000 purse home with him. Be this as it may, there is one sure thing, and that is his absence on the occasion referred to would create a vacuum in local base ball circles that could not be filled, for he is not only a fan of the first water but an all around good fellow besides.

Normal Schools

The Normal School question is fairly before the voters by the initiative bill for Monmouth framed by her Alumni. This separates it wholly from politics, and gives the voters a fair chance to express their choice. Schools are a necessity—we must educate the boys and girls—and we must have teachers; the Normal School is the place to train and prepare these. Vote, Yes for Monmouth.
