N. C. O. TO BUILD AT ONCE

Binds Itself to Reach Goose Lake Valley During the Present Summer

SECURES RIGHT OF WAY THROUGH CANYON

O. V. L. Co. Held to Key Situation and Interested Road Should Build Immediately, Which Requirement Was Agreed To

Negotiations between the Oregon Valley Land Company and the Nevada-California-Oregon Railroad Company were concluded yesterday which issues the building of the railroad into Goose Lake Valley during the present summer. It was understood that the engineer of the railroad has been endeavoring to secure a right of way through the XL ranch along Pitt river, but not until yesterday would he lend himself to build the railway. He stated that in such circumstances it was impossible for him to secure the right of way through that property, which is now owned by the O. V. L. Co. However, immediately upon his arrival here Mr. Lewis sought out W. L. Lothrop, the attorney for the O. V. L. Co., and a contract was drawn up whereby the right of way was secured in consideration of the road being built this summer.

While no particular point to which his plan, it is evidently due to the road work built is mentioned in the first through the People's interest that the earlier part, pressure was made for this primary pressure for extending it was not made in the form of the above the letter in which the he will come to pass. On the other hand the road has been secured any the right of way through this path. The parties to the contract. The construction work will begin at 100 miles to the side of the way along the east coast of the month the river will be able to the west side, where it is stated that no injury will be expected in the curturing the desired right of way.
