One Way Out.

Perkins had been appointed tutor to gether they were making the grand pupil; but, alas, they had only reached Geneva when his charge fell deeply in love with a pretty Swiss peasant. In vain did he remonstrate with the young lord, pointing out the social barrier that existed between the lovers But all to no purpose. The beautiful Swiss maiden held the young tord's heart captive, and he would scarcely leave her side.

Distracted, Perkins wrote home to the marchloness asking her advice and pointing out her son's infatuation.

A day or two passed in agonizing suspense.

At last the answer came. Perkins breathed a sigh of relief All his auxlety would now be over. He tore open the envelope, but as he read the letter he groaned in the anguish of his soul. It consisted of three words: "Marry her yourself."

Poor Bijou!

During the siege of Paris Franrisque Sarcey indignantly protested against the practice of eating dogs, Hunger, however, knows no law, and canine and feline butcher shops were opened in different parts of Paris, Skillfully prepared, property skinned and cooked, with a good sauce, the dogs proved excellent enting Their meat was pink and delicate and by no means tough. Canine cutlets were sold at 2 francs each, and a leg of dog might be purchased at double that price a pound. Two good bourgeois, husband and wife, had a little dog of which they were very fond. But a day came when there was nothing to eat in the house, and poor Bijou had to be killed and eyes, and during the dinner the latter mechanically placed the tiny rib bones on the side of her plate. "Poor Bijou!" she ejaculated with a sigh "What a treat these would have been for him!" -Frank Schlosser in Contemporary Review.

A Tearful Eye to Business.

Advertising is nowadays almost a fine art. Clever advertisements attract customers in two ways-first, because they effectually call attention to the goods, and, second, because of their cleverness, pure and simple Such a one is the following, quoted from London M. A. P., which adorned a boot shop in the Rue d'Amsterdam, in Paris:

LIQUIDATION. With tears in my eyes. I am obliged to dear the whole of my stock of boots. To get rid of it all in a week I offer it to you at a loss of 50 per cent. My husband seeing fit to abandon me with five children.

WHY

Can't I go on without my husband? Because my husband alone was able to obtain job lines from the big provincial and foreign bootmagers. Prudent ladies will profit by these ex-

Rubber and Gutta Percha.

There are important distinctions between india rubber and gutta percha. and in the majority of purposes for which they are employed one cannot replace the other. While the trees yielding india rubber are well distributed over the tropical parts of the world and may be cultivated with more or less facility, the tree which furnishes gutta percha is to be found only in Borneo, Sumatra and the Ma lay archipelago generally.
