STORY OF LIFE

Waives Examination At Hearing and Will Be Tried Next Week

The preliminary examination of Ike Harrell, for the killing of the Newell boys was fixed for 10 o'clock Tuesday morning before Justice of the Peace Bailey, but Harrell, through his attorney, Thos. F. Farrell waived examination, and his case will come up before the Grand Jury, at the adjournment term of Circuit Court, which will probably convene next Monday.

Harrell's conduct has not changed in the least since his arrest, and he seems to have no remorse whatever. He has contradicted himself so many times in relating incidents connected with the crime, as well as with his past life, that it is impossible to believe anything he says. He stated that he had been fed at Pat England's camp near where he was arrested, where as a matter of fact he was not at the camp at all, so far as any one knows. Mr. England had not seen him for two years, previous to seeing him in jail Sunday, and was therefore greatly surprised that he should be accused of assisting him in any way.

When arrested Harrell had some $28 in his possession, and in addition thereto a certificate of deposit for $200 from the First National Bank of Lakeview.

Through the courtesy of F. O. Bunting, the Examiner is able to give the following account of Harrell's past life, or at least Harrell signs it as such, although differing very materially from other statements made at different times. His last statement follows:

"My true name is Isaac Neton Harrell. I was born in Eola nine miles from Salem, Marion County, Oregon, on the 18th day of July, 1862. My father was of Scotch-Irish descent, and a native of Missouri. My parents moved to Portland, Oregon, when I was quite young, thence to Portage, about 90 miles from Portland, here they remained for two and a half years. From there they moved to Tillamook Valley, remaining three years at that place. From Tillamook they moved again to Portland, thence to Forest Grove. They lived on my grandfather's place three miles from Forest Grove for some time. My father took a homestead adjoining Parson's place about two and a half miles west of Forest Grove.

"At the age of eight years I attended school for a period of six weeks at a school house near Wm. Shearers's place, when the school was moved to Dilly station, a distance of five miles from father's homestead. I attended school there for three months, I also attended school at Hillsboro for one month, that being all the schooling I ever had.

"At the age of 17 we removed to Hillsboro, remaining there with my parents about one year, when I began working for myself. When at the age of 19 my parents separated, my mother removing to Portland. There were five boys in the family, the older being myself, James, Oscar, Marion (deceased) Heruort (deceased), and David Hollis.

"My father and self moved to Corvallis, and from there to the Alsea valley. We returned to Corvallis and from there to Albany, where we spent the winter. In the spring we went Seilo. From Seilo to Lebanon, where father bought a piece of land. He lived there about ten years. During that time I worked for various persons, saving sufficient money to purchase a piece of land from Pat Morrow, where I remained for two or three years.

"In 1883 I went to Prineville, thence to Shepherd's ranch, thence to Gilchrist's sawmill, where I worked about one year. About 1885 I went to work for Wm. Brown. I worked steady for Brown for two years and at various times during the following two years. In 1891 I went to Stein's mountain where I herded sheep for Wm. Buffington for about a year. In 1890 I went to Ontario where I purchased a saloon, paying $1300, $1000 cash and a $300 note. I ran the saloon about a year. During this time I married Lizzie Arnold, a widow with three children, at Weiser, Idaho. We returned to Ontario from Idaho, and shortly thereafter purchased a bakery. In 1902 my wife left me and came through to Lakeview, thence to Surprise Valley stopping around Eagleville about one year. In 1903 went to Hay Creek for T. Adams and returned with a band of sheep. In 1904 I herded for George Wilson. I lived on the Coffman ranch nearly two years from 1902 to 1905. About 1905 I went to California working various places for some time. When I came back to Lakeview, when I then I have worked for the MC in Warner, Sol Chandler in Crooked creek and several others for short periods until April 4 of this year I commenced work for the Newell brothers.

"While at work at a sawmill near Susanville, Cal., I had a fight, but outside of these two instances I never had a fight with anyone, never killed anyone or ever tried to kill anyone up to the time of my trouble on June 9, 1910, at Plush, Oregon.

"Signed I N. Harrell
"Lakeview, Oregon, June 18, 1910"

The Forest Service boys a few days since succeeded in controlling what for a time promised to develop into a big forest fire on Crooked creek. Several men sent out from town and assisted in the work.

Here Is Your Opportunity

To the Homeseeker:

At present we can locate forty people on homestead level valley land, where good well water can be had at depths varying from 30 to 60 feet, and where there is plenty of timber available for fuel within five miles. The soil here is very fertile, being a sandy loam and at present there is a heavy growth of sage on it.

The soil is very similar to the soil found in the northern part of Oregon and the eastern part of Washington, and will without doubt prove to be equally as productive and valuable, when we have the same transportation facilities. The railroad survey passes through some of the claims referred to, and none of them are more than three miles from same. Here is a pretty valley, that has never been cultivated, but has been used for range purposes only, and we assure you that it is equally as good as any land left in central or southeastern Oregon.

Now if you still have your homestead right, why not investigate this proposition, for we are quite sure you would not overlook such an opportunity, if you knew positively that it was here. Don't listen to idle remarks, but come and let us show you.

We also have several relinquishments and excellent bargains in raw deeded lands, if you are in the market for such.
