Lakeview, Oregon, Thursday, July 14, 1910.

By an overwhelming majority Governor Jared Young Sanders was declared the choice of both houses of the Louisiana Assembly for the seat in the United States senate left vacant by the recent death of Senator McEnery.

Postmaster General Hitchcock has expressed the opinion that no postal savings bank could be established before January 1, 1911. He made this statement during a conversation with Postmaster Campbell, of Chicago who requests that one of the first banks be placed in operation there.

The New Land Office recently created for Malheur and Harney counties was opened at Vale July 1 with H. S. Guile and Bruce L. Keester as the officials. For the present a room in the United States National Bank building is being used, but as soon as the new brick of T. T. Nelson is completed the office will be moved there.

In vivid contrast with the assurance of governors and majors in other parts of the country that they will use their influence against the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, Mayor Gaynor of New York City notified Secretary William Shaw of the Christian Endeavor society that he could see no reason for getting excited over the pictures. The mayor ridicules the idea that race riots might result in New York.

Baker's Bay traps, near Astoria, have caught fifteen salmon this year bearing the marks of the Chinook hatchery of six years ago, thus explaining the theory that salmon return regularly in four years after being hatched and let out to go to sea. Five female fish that had already spawned were also caught, and were in fairly good condition, thus giving the lie to the theory that female salmon die immediately after spawning.

The result has been that the press has by innuendo officially labeled Colonel Roosevelt at the man behind the gun in the insurgent movement. So disastrous has this situation been to Roosevelt's planned period of neutrality that he today asked the correspondents to make clear that the present drift of things was not to his making and to explain that, now that he had become sufficiently settled to be able to receive and entertain his friends, he was sending out invitations and that these were going to insurgents and regulars alike.

Startling reports on the condition on July 1 of spring wheat are made by the crop reporting board of the department of agriculture. The average condition of spring wheat in North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin, the four states which contain more than 88 per cent of the total spring wheat area in the United States, was only 62.5 as compared with 92.5 a year ago, and a ten year average of 87.5. The average condition of spring wheat throughout the United States at the beginning of the present month was 61.6, while a year ago it was 92.7, and the ten year average was 87.1.

Colonel Roosevelt has become just a trifle annoyed at the manner in which he is being pushed into the insurgent pool. While there is no doubt that he thinks "the water's fine," the rush of insurgents and progressives to Sagamore Hill and the graphic descriptions sent out by all correspondents of the smiles they wear as they depart has tended to carry the Colonel along toward a show down much faster than he desires. On the other hand, the regulars, noting the apparent drift of the wind, have held aloof, and about the only wheel horses of the organization who have visited Oyster Bay have been those who have come by invitation.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, it is announced, will make a speech making tour in behalf of Senator Beveridge. Democratic political leaders in Indiana have been awaiting with considerable apprehension the announcement that Roosevelt was to invade Indiana and for some weeks past have been figuring on plans to counteract the effect of his coming, should he decide to assist Beveridge. As a result it is practically decided that the Roosevelt tour will be followed immediately by a speech making round of the state by Governor

Marshall, who will plead the cause of John W. Kern, Bryan's last vice presidential running mate, and the man who aspires to Beveridge's toga.

That the census of 1910 will show the Southern states, including Missouri and Oklahoma, to have made a gain of 21 per cent since 1900, is the estimate of the Southern Commercial Congress. The congress estimates the population to be 32,415,297. The gain of other states in the union during the same period is estimated by the congress to have been 18 1/2 per cent. The five states of the South which have made the greatest gain in population according to the estimate, are Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, Georgia and Alabama. Oklahoma gained 1,250,000. The figures are based on provisional estimates of the census bureau.

We of Lake county deeply deplore the crime of Isaac N. Harellin blotting out the lives of two promising young men, not only for the lives that were needlessly taken but also for the stigma that attaches to any community wherein such crimes are perpetrated. And to add to our sorrow as a community, as well as the parents and relatives of the victims, was the attempt of the press of Portland to lead the public that the perpetrator of the deed was in danger of being lynched. It was frequently stated in dispatches alleged to be sent from Lakeview that threats of lynch law were freely made here, and vivid descriptions of the murderer crying from an outraged populace were depicted in true yellow journal style. We all know that no such threats were made, and that every one was willing that the law should be allowed to take its course. The Examiner has positive knowledge that no dispatches were sent from Lakeview that in any way even intimated that lynching was likely to follow as a result of the terrible crime, and therefore the attempt of the city press to have the public believe that such was the case is all the more deplorable.

Davis Creek Items

The celebration in Davis Creek last week was a real live one. In the afternoon for the usual sports, including bronco riding, were in order. At noon all enjoyed a picnic dinner on the shady banks of Davis Creek. Two ball games were played: one Sunday and one on the Fourth. The first one was an easy victory for Davis Creek, but on the Fourth Lake City carried off the honors, and likewise the big purse. In the evening eighty tickets were purchased for the grand ball in the Watkins Hall.

Several contractors are here looking over the Davis Creek Orchard project with view to taking a contract for the excavation work on the dam and main canal. It is expected that the contract will be let in a few days. This project, when completed will be a revelation to the settlers hereabouts. Many are already becoming interested and not a few have signified their intention of purchasing land in this tract. Several prospective buyers are here from the east but as yet no transfers have been reported.

Haying here is well under way. On account of the prolonged drouth the hay crop, as well as the grain harvest, will be unusually light this year.

Mr and Mrs. J. O. Bays, of Oak Dale, Cal., stopped at Davis Creek a few days this week to look over the Davis Creek Orchard land. They are so well pleased with this section, that they will dispose of their interests at Oak Dale and become residents of Davis Creek. Before returning they will visit Lakeview and the Paisley country.

Mrs. R. H. Longwell suffered a severe nervous shock last week, but is now much better.

Miss Mattie Twinage, who left three years ago has returned for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Grace Watkins and daughters, Ruby and Essie, have gone to Paisley on a visit to relatives.

Johnnie Cummings of Altrusa, spent several days this week visiting his sister Mrs. Sidney Henderson.

Dole Dorris last week closed a successful engagement with the Empire stock Company and has returned home.

Bob Wier represented Davis Creek at the big fight in Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Amick were down from Pine Creek this week for a load of merchandise.

H. G. Berry has gone to Pine Creek for medical treatment. He injured his leg while sawing wood.

Theodore Rensus is able to be about after several months of severe illness.

Miss Nellie Batey Democratic candidate for county superintendent of schools was canvassing Davis Creek this week.

Miss Catherine E. Glaster, on the Democratic ticket for school superintendent, was electioneering in Davis Creek this week.

Paulson Bros. well known real estate men of Salt Lake City, this week closed a deal with Roland Lee for the purchase of his 320 acre ranch and fruit farm. The price paid was forty dollars per acre. M. D. Williams also disposed of his ranch to the same party but we did not learn the figures.

Last Sunday Goose Lake's golden shore was the scene of a rollicking picnic. The crowd was composed chiefly of Davis Creek's younger set although a few sedate married folk lent their presence. Lunch was spread beneath the spreading cotton woods where shade and grass were found to the best advantage. The site chosen for the picnic was ideal. The view opened directly up on the Lake and in the back ground lay green fields stretching away to the hills on the east. Those who had bathing suits fell to the advantages offered by the lake and sandy beach and indulged in a few hours bathing. The guy who this time yelled "Come on the waters fine!" certainly had the right hunch.
