Loud Talk

We are going to indulge in a talk on our line of farm implements. We have the best lines in the market. Such as the 'John Deere plows and harrows,' 'Oliver chilled and steel plows,' 'Buckeye, and Thomas drills,' 'Planet, Jr., garden seeders.'

'Studebaker and Bain wagons.'

These are all standard makes and speak for themselves. The price is right, quality considered. Call and see us when on the market.

Davis Creek Items

The Davis Creek Orchestra will give a dance Saturday night.

Master Hillard and Miss Olive Bailey are spending a few days in Davis Creek.

Bob Wier is the proud possessor of a six-point deer horn. Not through his marksmanship, however.

The Watkins & Cannon sawmill is running at full blast. A new planer was received this week and will soon be in running order.

W. J. Speaks of Alturas was in Davis Creek arranging for the pasturing of horses.

Joe Wier was taken ill last week and went to Lakeview where he could be under the care of a doctor. At last report he was improving.

Jim Poinxter made a business trip to Alturas this week.

Miss Lorina Plummer, of Willow Ranch, is visiting friends in Davis Creek.

Edgar Henderson and family returned from Bidwell where they had been on a visit with relatives.

The Ladies' Saturday Sewing Club has reached a membership of 24.

Miss Etta Henderson spent a few days visiting her Aunt, Mrs. Robert Lauquell.

Miss Mattie Turneridge, who has been spending vacation at her home in Davis Creek, returned to the City Monday.

Miss Inez Lee has been engaged to teach the South Davis Creek school for the coming term. Miss Lee is a competent teacher in every respect.

George Ramer left for the Hoag mines this week to do some assessment work on his claim.

S. J. Dutton is replacing the old mill with a new and up to date structure. Jim Poinxter and Billy Ordie, local carpenters, have charge of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyer, old pioneers of this section, but who have been absent for fourteen years, are here visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Boyer was the time owner of the Theodore Lee ranch.

Albert Graham sustained a broken hand this week as the result of persuading an unruly milk-cow. Hereafter when corporal punishment is deemed necessary he will employ some tool besides his bare hand.

At the opening of the deer season July 15th, a number of local simros have bagged their limit. Sunday morning Jim Colbers bagged two of the finest bucks yet brought in. One was a four-point and the other a six point.

Several of Miss Bertha Crowder's friends this week received invitations to the exercises of the Midsummer Graduating Class of Heald's Business College. Miss Crowder has been in attendance at this school for the past year. She will return home this week.

Sufficient evidence of what may be done with the land in the Davis Creek Orchard Project may be had by visiting tract No. 21. Bill Walker of this place has taken water from a spring and irrigated a small garden plot on the above named tract, with the result that potatoes and squashes planted less than a month ago are looking as well as any garden in the valley. At first glance the soil of tract No. 21 would be considered worthless, since it is sprinkled with gravel and covered with very scrubby, scattering sagebrush. Contrary to the general supposition however, the scrubby sage brush denotes poor land, this is of the very best quality and needs only the application of water to produce garden truck equal to any given in the valley.

Buy's New Outfit

Messrs. Thurston, Heryford, Leebman and Fleming have purchased a new steam threshing outfit, consisting of a 36-inch cylinder separator and a 22-horse power traction engine. The outfit is now on the way up from Alturas.

Political Fur is Sure to Fly

of the majority became known. Personal ambitions and feelings were made secondary. The welfare of the party was alone uppermost. Acting Governor Bowerman was recommended as the parties chief of staff for the election to come. His choice was decided upon only after a spirited discussion of the qualifications of the four other candidates. One ballot was taken and this gave Bowerman the majority of 31 votes. Yet when the majority sentiment was thus expressed there was an immediate rallying of all the delegates to his standard.

Dr. Andrew C. Smith of Portland, whose name had been presented before the assembly, together with that of Bowerman, was on his feet the instant the result had been announced. He moved that the election be made unanimous. J. H. Ackerman of Portland, also a candidate, seconded the motion, as did the friends in behalf of Dr. James Withycombe, who was not present but whose name had been placed before the gathering. The motion was carried with a will of the 120 cast Mr. Bowerman received 645 Mr. Withycombe stood second, with 210; Dr. Smith received 164, Mr. Ackerman 108 and the fifth candidate, Charles ruled that a majority would be required for the election.

It took little time by the two congressional districts in deciding on recommendations for representatives to congress. The first district placed the seal of approval on its present representative, W. C. Hawley by a unanimous voice. The delegates of the second district took similar action with regard to W. R. Ellis. J. S. Dellinger of Astoria was named in the second, but he withdrew in favor of Ellis.

Frank W. Benson was nominated by George Brown, of Douglas, for secretary of state. It was then voted that the nomination be closed. Secretary Gibson was authorized to cast the unanimous ballot of the assembly for Mr. Benson, which was done.

John McCue placed in nomination for State Treasurer Ralph W. Hoyt, while J. C. Bartlett, of Estacada, placed George A. Steel in nomination. The vote stood 875 for Hoyt, 253 for Steel and four scattering.

Toozie then placed L. R. Alderman of Eugene, in nomination for State School Superintendent E. D. Resler was placed in nomination for the same position by C. H. Belknap. Lane County seconded the Alderman nomination.

H. H. Northrup placed R. F. Robinson Superintendent of Schools of Multnomah County, in nomination. The vote when counted showed 785 votes for Alderman, 197 for Resler and 158 for Robinson. The total vote was 1141. The Alderman nomination was made unanimous.

The nominees for state Printer were William J. Clark, of Gervais, and Willis S. Dunlavy, the vote resulting in 768 votes for Clarke to 348 for Dunlavy.

J. N. Hart was chosen as candidate for Attorney General, the vote standing: 620 for Hart, 567 for Hough, and 37 for A. S. Hammond, the nomination in Hart's favor.

The district made up of the counties of Klamath, Lake, Crook and Grant will elect two Joint Representatives in the lower house of the legislature, the candidates endorsed being W. Lair Thompson, of Lake, and H. P. Belknap, of Crook County.

The republican delegates from the Thirteenth Judicial district, comprised of Klamath and Lake county, have nominated Hon. H. L. Benson for circuit judge. The nomination was made over the strenuous protest of this well known jurist he telling the delegates that his word was out that he would not be a candidate. They informed him that they felt he owed a debt to the party of the district, and that with that in mind they would insist that he make the run.
