A GOOD POSITION
 Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railroad telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations through out the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official Institutes in America, under the supervision of R. R. and Wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.
Oregon Valley Land Company Contract Holders

If you want us to lease your land to the best possible advantage and take full charge of it write at once to Southern Oregon Realty Co.

 A DESERVED SUCCESS.

How Anna Steere Richardson Became a Playwright.
 "My story begins in the city room of a daily paper, my sleepless nights and long hours, every stress from the hands of a new boss—my editor."
 "I had been known Richardson, the daughter of 'A Man's Man' the successful real-estate man of American life, in which Mr. Robert Edison is starring. Mrs. Richardson, who had just been asked how she had secured her position, should know she had secured it for she had been a professional newspaper woman for fourteen years. Her apprenticeship was served as reporter in the city room of the Northwest at Council Bluffs, Ia. At the end of three years she joined the staff of the Omaha Daily News, where, too, she had been for some time of her professional experience as a reporter and editor in the New York World, she decided to try her fortunes in the metropolis.
 As the price of her tenacity and inexperience she walked newspaper row for weeks and finally found a berth as manuscript reader with the McClure Newspaper syndicate.
 By day she read manuscripts submitted by ambitious young writers. By night she haunted the theaters for being produced one of the leading publishing houses in New York issued a book by Mrs. Richardson entitled "The Girl Who Earns Her Own Living," which is enjoying a large sale. Incidentally this little sketch of a busy woman's life should encourage many a wavering writer to fresh activity and greater determination, for while Mrs. Richardson started her New York career on a salary of $10 a week, and a business hour day at that, she now commands one of the largest incomes drawn by women writers.
