DEPENDENT CHILDREN

Perhaps it is unknown to many of our citizens that the increase of the population in the state of Oregon has also brought an increase in the number of dependents. This may seem strange to those who are not actually in the work but it is nevertheless, true. While it is true the increase in population has also increased prosperity, yet there is always a following of dependant classes and institutions, who care for this class, are bound to feel this increase and the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Oregon in making its annual plea for Thankgiving donations wishes to bring the fact before its many friends. Lake county has always been one of the Society's best friends and the Management depends on the generosity of the citizens at this time of the year. The public schools are quite a factor in the maintenance of this institution and at this time of year the charitable disposed public, as well as the public schools, are called upon to subscribe all they can afford for this cause.

Four hundred and ninety six cases were received and cared for during the past year by the society. These children came from seventeen counties of the state. Besides giving them a home the Society has quickly as possible found permanent homes for them at private families where they are visited by the Society's agents in order to ascertain if they are receiving the proper care and attending school regularly. These field agents have a large amount of work to do and Superintendent Gardner says he wishes they could double this part of the force and would do so if funds were available. This field work is very expensive to the Society but it is also very necessary for, beside visiting the five hundred children out in family homes the agents also investigate cases of abuse and neglect that are reported to them and if it were not for these investigators, many children would suffer hardship and degradation without inference. The agents of the Society investigated about two hundred of these cases the past year and prosecuted about fifty per cent.

The management urges that all those who have the welfare of the dependent children at heart to subscribe whatsoever they may be able to the good cause and endeavor to make the donations of the Society from the public schools larger than ever this year.

The result of the Oregon election last week should make it clear to even the most obtuse politician that the people will not stand for any of the old time ways of doing politics, be they good or bad. (That Jay Bowerman received the primary nomination for Governor made no difference to the people when the fact was pounded into them that he was the assembly nominee. They were led to believe that in some unknown way their interests were jeopardized by the "system" or "interests," and that his election would be virtually approving the old time political regime here in Oregon. The old time guard will no doubt be wrathful and swear vengeance and all that, but possibly by the time the next campaign rolls around they will have learned a thing or two and conduct their fight according to the new order of things.

The students of the Oregon Agricultural College have appointed a committee to confer with President Kerr in order to determine whether or not the faculty would be willing to turn over to the students all matters of student discipline and if so to draw up plans for legislation and administration. The students assume that they will be able to assume the responsibility of self government as to rule themselves more effectually than can the faculty. The students wish to have the faculty rules and regulations repealed and the field cleared for the enactment of new regulations which would be dictated by student opinion and enforced through student organization.

Wm. E. Humphrey, reelected to congress from the First Washington district and a staunch supporter of Speaker Cannon in the fight made against him by the insurgents at the last session of congress, sent the following telegram to Congressman Champ Clark at Bowling Green, Mo.

"You should be elected speaker. Will fight for you, talk for you, anything but vote for you. After March 4 I am against the rules, Clark and Clarkism up to the hilt. From present symptom am certain that in next congress I will believe in freedom of speech as never before.

Wm. E. Humphrey

Governor Harmon has been re-elected Governor of Ohio, which makes it extremely probable that he will be the Democratic candidate for the presidency in 1912

The defeat of Jay Bowerman for Governor presages one of the warmest political fights during the next two years that has ever occurred in Oregon. A successor to Senator Bourne is to be elected in 1913, and for a starter the senator has his enemies beaten to a frazzle. However, time alone will tell whether he is to succeed himself.

Victor L. Berger, the socialist leader of Milwaukee, has been elected congressman from the fifth Wisconsin district. Mr. Berger is a very able man and is the first socialist to be elected to the United States Congress.

The result in New York last Tuesday was watched with more than ordinary interest, inasmuch as "Teddy" was in the thick of the fight and swinging the "big stick" as vigorously as ever. The result would indicate that it was a stuffed club.

Complete returns on the election of representatives to congress indicate that the democrats will have a working majority of 29 in the next house. The number of democrats elected to congress according to the latest returns is 225. The republican representation will be 164 or 165, or eight seats less than the democrats now have in the sixty-first congress.

President Taft left Washington Wednesday afternoon of last week for the isthmus of Panama, boarding the armored steamer Tennessee at Charleston, S. C., Thursday noon. The President's immediate party will be limited to himself, Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, his brother, and Secretary Norton. Captain Butt and Lieutenant-Commander Palmer, aide, will accompany the President. He expects to complete the major portion of his message to congress while at sea. Returning from the isthmus, the President will come ashore at Charleston on the tenth of November.

THE WAY TO SHADOWTOWN.

SWAY to and fro in the twilight gray. This is the ferry for Shadowtown. It sails away at the end of the day, Just as the darkness closes round.

BEST, little hand, on my shoulder—so. A sleepy kiss is the only fare. Drifting away from the world we go. Baby and I in the rocking chair.

SEE, where the fire logs glow and spark. Glitter the lights of Shadowland. The raining drops on the window—hark!—Are ripples lapping upon its strand.

THERE where a mirror is glistening dim. A lake lies shimmering, cool and still. Blossoms are wavering o'er its brim—Those over there on the window sill.

ROCK slow, more slow, in the husky light. Silently lower the anchor down. Dear little passenger, say "Good night!"—We've reached the harbor of Shadowtown.—Eugene Field.

IN THE HIGHLANDS.

I N the highlands, in the country places, Where the old plain men have rocky faces And the young fair maidens Quiet eyes; Where essential silence cheers and blesses And forever in the hill recesses Her more lovely music Broods and dies.

Oh, to mount again where erst I haunted, Where the old red hills are bird enchanted And the low green meadows Bright with sword.

And when even dies the million tinted And the night has come and planets glistened.

Lo, the valley hollow Lamp bestarred!

Oh, to dream, oh, to awake and wander There and with delight to take and render Through the trance of silence Quiet breath!

Lo, for there among the flowers and grasses Only the mightier movement sounds and pulses.

Only winds and rivers, Life and death!

—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Mexico City, Nov. 11: To guard against a possible repetition of the anti-American rioting, the Mexican government has issued orders against bull fights on Sunday. Gaudalajara dispatches today confirm the report against the Americans. Windows were smashed in a number of places occupied by Americans. Many arrests were made.

Carson, Nev., Nov. 11. Late returns show Odds, republican candidate for governor, elected by at least 700. Nixon, republican, wins the senatorship by 1000. Roberts, republican, leads Sprague, democrat, for congress by 1200.

Omaha, Neb.—With almost complete returns Nebraska shows the republican state ticket was elected by from 3000 to 15000 for United States senator, G. M. Hitchcock won over Senator Burkett by 20,000. The legislature will be democratic in Minnesota.
