 Miss Louise Arzuer is now up and around after several day's sickness with la grippe.
 It is now reported that Portland's population according to the recent census is 208,000.
 The fruit crop of the Hood river district for 1910 is valued at approximately $1,000,000.
 Byron Graves is now feeling much improved after a week's illness at his home on Main street.
 Eight acres near Eugene produced 103 bales of hops which is over 2,500 pounds an acre.
 Tom Orrison is back in town again after working all summer at the Camp Creek Saw Mill.
 Misses & Childrens coats while they last 1-3 off regular price at Lakeview Mercantile Co.
 Count Tolstol, the noted Russian novelist and reformer, died at an early hour Sunday morning.
 Mikie Barry is in town again from camp. Mikie says he is here this time to have his teeth fixed.
 Crook county contains one of the largest bodies of irrigable land in the West, having 350,000 acres.
 Exports from Portland during October totaled 1,511,476 feet of lumber and 11,740 bushels of wheat.
 Geo. T. Cline, the civil and mining engineer, has changed his headquarters from Plush to Ft. Bidwell.
 Mr. and Mrs. Morris Southstone left for Los Angeles, Cal., a few days since where they will spend the winter.
 Agents wanted for Phoenix Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Oregon, 829 Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Oregon.
 F. A. Fitzpatrick and J. S. Kelsay, prominent citizens of Paisley precinct, were in town the fore part of the week.
 J. U. Gentry of New Pine Creek went to Ontario this week, having been called there by the serious illness of his brother.
 One monster log, the biggest ever sawed in the Coquilla valley, Coos County, was 9 feet in diameter and made 11,000 feet of lumber.
 Dave McAuliffe came in from camp at Barnes Valley the latter part of last week. While here he is combining business with pleasure.
 It is expected that the dance to be held at the Opera House tonight will be largely attended, many outsiders coming in to enjoy themselves.
 Judge W. H. A. Pike, a well known Nevada jurist, dropped dead at Fallon last Friday night. The cause of his death was rheumatism of the heart.
 F. M. Miller, cashier of the Bank of Lakeview, will leave Sunday for San Rafael, Cal., where he will visit with his family until after the holidays.
 The Forest Service is now engaged in seeding the district burned over near Ashland last summer. Spruce, pine and larch are the seed varieties being used.
 The recent storms have caused a cessation of state travel and a return to staging. Travel is quite heavy and promises to continue so pretty much all winter.

 Dave McAuliffe returned Tuesday evening from the McCulley ranch between here and New Pine Creek with some bucks which he is to drive over to Barnes Valley.
 R. C. Foster, a well known stockman and rancher of the Summer Lake section, was visiting old time friends and making new acquaintances in Lakeview during the past week.
 Lakeview flour $3.75 per hundred in lots of 1000 pounds and over.
 The Hill line from Medford to Battle Falls was completed last week. It is said that the work of extending the line to connection with the Deschutes line will be commenced in the spring.
 The storms of the past month promise to make "dry farming" a success next year, inasmuch as there has been no freezing weather and the rain has all soaked into the ground.
 The large pile of wood which has been laying west of the Court house for several weeks has been stored away in the basement of that building by Janitor Godesel during the past few days.
 H. E. Curtis of Valley Falls spent a few days in Lakeview during the past week. Ducks and geese are now very plentiful in his section, the late storms having brought them down from the north.
 Ducks must be very plentiful out in Drews valley for J. G. Barker sent some in to Lakeview friends during the past week. However, it might be that Jim bought them from some hunter.
 Mrs. Barnes, mother of Marion Barnes, is very sick at the latter's home on North Main Street. She fell from a carriage on Tuesday last and injured her hip, which is supposed to have caused her illness at this time.
 While Phil Barry and two others were driving out of town with a team of horses on Tuesday, one of the animals dropped dead in the harness in Ballard Canyon. The occupants of the wagon were obliged to return to town afoot.
 Klamath Falls is going to build a 10 foot board driveway on her principal street in order to make it passable for teams. It was torn up preparatory to paving, but the work was delayed and winter storms set in before it was completed.
 Many bands of sheep are now passing through this section bound for the desert beyond Plush where they will remain for the winter season. The boys are all saying "good byes" as many of them will not see town again until late next spring.
 Owing to the inclemency of the weather the masquerade at the Skating Rink on Tuesday night did not have the usual attendance for an event of that kind. There were several very pretty costumes, however, and all present enjoyed themselves.
 Information has been received from the District Office at Portland that all the new owners of stock wishing to secure grazing privileges within the Fremont National Forest must have their application on file at the local office before December 1, 1911.
 A dispatch to the Bee from Klamath Falls says all rights or way have been obtained and that the S. P. will build to Merrill at once. From that place the road will be extended to Alturas, says the dispatch. It can't come any too soon to suit us here in Modoc, remarks the Republican.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell left for Portland a few days ago, where they will probably remain during the winter. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ross, sister of Mrs. Maxwell, who has been visiting in Lakeview for some time past and who is now returning to her home at Kansas City.
 Rev. M. O'Malley has returned from Klamath Falls where he remained for several days visiting with Father Cunningham of that place. He reports that the Catholic Church of the Falls realized $800 clear money from the fair recently held there, which was no doubt very much appreciated by every one concerned.
 Dan Malley with Jack and Dave McAuliffe have purchased seven hundred geese from Jack Turpin Murphy which they will add to their present band now in Barnes Valley. The price paid was 90 per head. They may eventually purchase four hundred additional lambs from Mr. Murphy but have not yet made a final decision on the matter.

 Miss Eva Howard, of Drews valley, has been visiting Lakeview friends this week.
 Miss Ruby Foster, of the assessor's office, is spending a few weeks at her home at Summer Lake.
 Mrs. D. G. Brown and daughter, Mrs. L. Alva Lewis, of Klamath Falls, are guests of Mrs. G. D. Brown of this city.
 Frank Wing, an employee of the S. P. Co. at Klamath Falls, was shot and killed last week by R. E. Allison, a freight conductor. The latter returned home unexpectedly, and finding the door locked went around to the back of the house, where he saw a man leap from a window and start to run, whereupon he shot at him a couple of times, with the result as above stated.
 Klamath Falls' soft drink emporiums were raided again last week, and the prosecuting witnesses were lodged in jail, while J. L. Stewart, Bill Fee, J. L. Poole and Bill Duffy, the alleged violators of the law, were released on $250 bonds. In a previous raid the prosecuting witness skipped, and hence drastic measures were taken this time to insure the presence of the parties making the complaint at the time of trial.
 The recent visit to Lake county of F. E. Whitney, route inspector, and B. G. Durand, postal inspector, is likely to result in one or more changes on the mail routes centering at Lakeview. One change that seems certain is the schedule now in effect on the southern route, necessitating the laying over of mails at Alturas. Rumors as to other possible changes lack verification, and nothing will be known as to the result of their visit until the change or changes are ordered into effect.
 A great many turkeys have been in evidence during the past few days and some very nice ones have been on the market. Joe Ambrose brought some in from his West Side ranch and sold them for $2 apiece irrespective of weight. A few have also been sold by Hugo Umbach and M. R. C. C. Lottus ran up in price from $1.75 up. The markets have had some very nice dressed turkeys for sale so that there is no doubt but what everyone will be plentifully provided for this year.
Veterans Organize
 Hood River captured the grand prize of $1000 at the Spokane Apple show for the best car load of apples the variety exhibited being Spitzenburgs.
 Col. R. L. Bullard camp No. 9, Spanish War Veterans, was mustered in last Saturday evening by Lieut. A. W. Orton, mustering officer. The officers chosen to serve for the ensuing year are:
 Commander, - Phil S. Cummins,
 Senior Vice Commander, - John Ward;
 Junior Vice Commander, - Al Roberts;
 Chaplain, - H. E. Curtis;
 Surgeon, - H. Dent;
 Adjutant and Quartermaster, - Edward R. Patch;
 Officer of the Day, - N. Waldo Taylor;
 Officer of the Guard, - Jesse Cravens;
 Trustees, 1 year, Phil S. Cummins; 2 years, Edward Patch; 3 years, W. Koche Fiek.
 In addition to the officers the following are members of the camp: Edgar Pelletier and Lamont Thorn of Plush, and Gilbert F. Smith, of Fremont. Other veterans are expected to join soon.
 After the camp was mustered in a banquet was served and the boys had a jolly good time.

Mike O'Sullivan went as far as Alturas with William K. Barry, the latter going clear through to Frisco. Mike reports that Lakeview is very much ahead of Alturas in every respect, notwithstanding the fact that they have the advantage of us in having a railroad.
 One of the prettiest calendars the Examiner has yet seen is that being distributed by Woodcock & Leonard. It contains a small receptacle for papers and letters surmounted with a horse shoe with a horse's head in the center. It is both useful and ornamental.

TAKING THE NORTHWEST TO THE PEOPLE

"The way to get people into the Northwest is to take the Northwest to the people." This is the firm belief of L. W. Hill, President of the Great Northern Ry., and that he has the courage of his convictions is demonstrated by the aggressive "homeseecker's campaign," the opening signs of which were fired at Pittsburgh, Pa., during the Western Pennsylvania Exposition.

Boston Exhibit: 10,000 People a Day Look at It.

 The Great Northern secured space in the main building and installed an exhibit of fruit, grains and grasses from Montana, Oregon and Washington. Nearly 100,000 copies of literature were distributed describing the various districts. The Great Northern will start three exhibition cars on a circuit of Eastern States within the next two weeks.

Death of Miss Mulkey
 The death of Mrs. R. R. Utley of Long Valley occurred Sunday night as the result of injuries sustained a few days previously by a severe fall, an account of which appeared in the last issue of the Examiner.
 The accident which caused her death was most peculiar, it having occurred while she was in the act of preparing breakfast. Her little child was playing on the floor with a stick of wood, and in attempting to grasp an article on the stove she caught her toe on the end of the stick which in turn caught on the wood box and caused her to fall. Her side struck on the corner of the woodbox, producing internal injuries which subsequently caused her death. Dr. E. R. Smith was called and afforded temporary relief but her injuries proved beyond the reach of medical surgical aid and finally proved fatal.
 Mrs. Utley was about 19 years of age at the time of her death and leaves a little one two years old and a husband to mourn her untimely death. Her parents reside in the state of Washington.
 The funeral took place Wednesday forenoon services being held at the Baptist church by Rev. Smith and interment in the Odd Fellows cemetery.
 Bidwell Nuggett; George T. Cline, Mining Engineer, assayer and U. S. Mineral surveyor, of the state of Oregon, arrived in Bidwell last Thursday and is located here for the winter. Mrs. Cline accompanied her husband and they will occupy the Snelling residence. We welcome the new comers into our midst and hope to see more of this class of people locate here.
