Bryan of Davis Creek and Iva Henderson of Lake City, Rev. G. N. Gardner officiating. The Paisley Ladies of Woodcraft gave a Grand Thanksgiving ball which was greatly enjoyed by the large number present. Dr. W. R. Boyd has returned from a trip to Portland. On his return he spent several days with his mother and sister at Klamath Falls. Trappers who are stationed in the Odel lake country and in the Walker range east of there report an abundance of fur bearing animals. Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Frakes came in from Warner Lake last Monday and spent several days of this week in Bidwell, says the Nugget. For Sale—Team of mares, well broke, true and gentle, 4 years old and well mated. Also good wagon and harness. Enquire at this office. R. T. Striplin is back from a trip to Portland, where he accompanied Deputy U. S. Marshal Hammersly with the Greeks who monkeyed with the mails between here and New Pine Creek.

Mr. C. O. Misenr, the real estate dealer, left for Chicago last week to be gone for sometime. He will return here probably by next spring. Mrs. Nettie Sherlock and daughter, Miss Ann, of Paisley, went to Medford a few days since where the latter has entered St. Mary's academy. W. H. Hamersley, the Government hunter, came over from Sprague River Sunday and will pitch camp up on Cottonwood at the Wilshire saw-mill. U. A. Raker and N. A. Cornish are aspirants for the position of supreme judge of Modoc county, made vacant by the election of Judge Raker to congress. Mrs. Elizabeth Corris, a pioneer of Modoc county and well known through out this whole section, passed away at the home of her son Edward, November 20. Chas. G. Lewis and Miss Pauline V. Smalls, of Surprise, were married at the residence of the bride's parents Wednesday of last week, Judge A. C. Kitler officiating. Lloyd Hickerson returned to town on Monday last after a several days stay at Bidwell. He was accompanied on the return trip by his brother, Finis, and Mr. Rambo. Dave McAuliffe left on Saturday last for Barnes Valley with the band of sheep recently purchased by he and his partners. He will camp this winter at the Lava beds. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Drenkel Sunday morning left for California on a short visit. They may go as far south as Los Angeles, but expect to return before the holidays. Pat Angland and Dick Mahoney left on Tuesday last for Plush, on their way to the desert country in Harney county where they will camp with their sheep for the winter. The receipts of livestock by the Portland Union Stock Yards during the first year of its existence were as follows: 90,735, cattle, 5,162 calves, 95,670 hogs and 53,311 sheep. J. G. Barker and Nathan Smith came in from Drews Valley the first of the week. They report the snow fall as reaching 11 inches, but settled quickly and is now principally slush. Mrs. Lula M. Overton Deboy came over from Plush on Friday and while here made proof on her home stead. Her witnesses were E. A. Friday and Noland Currey, both of Plush. G. H. Aldridge and Dr. O. E. Patterson were up from New Pine Creek this week on a business trip. The latter recently opened his drug store at that place, and reports a most satisfactory business. The population of Portland, as officially given out by the Census Department, is 207,214, while Seattle's is 237,194. The original returns from the two cities were 222,959 and 248,384 respectively. Nugget: Miss Emily Ayres has returned to Bidwell and will probably spend the winter here. The lady is an accomplished pianist and will be a valuable addition to the Jacob Orchestra. The partition which has been in between Wallace's store and that of C. O. Misenr has been taken down, and the entire store is now being used by Mr. Wallace in connection with his business. The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a food sale at Wallace's Store Saturday afternoon. The sale commences promptly at 1:30, and if you want the choicest delicacies you should be there on time. Parties having Indian relics, such as flint spears, stone axes, mortars, etc., should write to H. E. Towns, Fond du Lac, Wis., who pays the highest price for all good rare relics in pre historic stone. Minis Caldwell is back again after a several week's visit to Sall Lake City and San Francisco. He reports having enjoyed himself all along the line, but was of course glad to see Lakeview once more. John Cochran, manager for Jay Bowerman in the late gubernatorial campaign, expending $1,223.30 in behalf of Mr. Bowerman, according to his sworn statement filed with Secretary State of Benson. Geo. B. Whorton was among those who braved Sunday's storm to reach the railroad. However, he was ex- ceusable, as he was going to visit Mrs. W., who is undergoing treatment at a Sacramento hospital. Jno. Buchanan, of Eagle Grove, Iowa, is anxious that the Examiner secure a good correspondent at Paisley. Several efforts along that line have been made, but thus far without success. Won't some kind friend come to our relief. The Lakeview Mercantile Co. held its annual meeting a few days since. The old officers were re-elected as follows: A. E. Florence, president and general manager; C. A. Rehart, vice president; V. L. Snelling, secretary and treasurer. Although Frank Benson carried every county in the state in his campaign for re-election to the office of secretary of state, not one cent did he expend for campaign expenses according to the campaign statement filed by him. The machinery for the Big Four did not reach the millsite as reported. The battery, weighing 7,000 pounds, was within one mile of the mine, but the roads were too soft to proceed further. They were compelled to wait until the road freezes to get it to place. Boys may be had and sometimes girls. The older ones at ordinary wages and others to be schooled and cared for in return for slight services rendered. For particulars address W. T. Gardner, Supt. boys' and girls' Aid Society of Oregon, Portland, Oregon. Pat Angland, Dick Mahoney, Noland Currey and Harry Riggs came over from Plush on Thursday last in connection with a land contest before the local land office. The trip over was very unpleasant one on account of the snow storm, and all were very much wrecked upon arrival here. Approximately 1,500,000 fruit trees will be planted in the Rogue river valley, according to an estimate made by professor O'Gara. This number of trees will be sufficient for 20,000 acres, which will be the total planted area in the orchard district of the Rogue river valley 85,000 acres. Word has been received from George Verling, a former sheepman of this place, to the effect that he is now in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil. The postal did not state what he was doing there, nor whether the other boys who left when he did were still with him. Bert Harber, the Consolidated Stage Co.'s "old reliable," drove an auto as far as Davis Creek last Sunday, taking down a load of passengers bound for the railroad. The mud was too deep to proceed further and Monday he returned with his machine. Stanley Hanson, of the Hanson Construction Company, is spending a few days in town preparatory to starting on a trip east. He will go as far as Omaha, Neb., and probably clear through to New York city. The trip will be purely for pleasure and sight seeing. The Christmas woods are beginning to put in an appearance in the different store windows about town, and some very nice articles are being exhibited. A fine stock of stationery may be seen at The Frost Kandy Kitchen, the Post Office store and at Wallace's. The M. E. church building is to receive a general overhauling, and funds therefor are now being raised. The ceiling is to be lowered and the walls will receive a new covering, while provision is to be made for two heaters. It is to be expected that the total cost of the improvements will approximate $100. C. D. Arthur has returned from Klamath and San Francisco, where he has been engaged in shipping mutton to the city market. Since he left here a few weeks since he has made three shipments, and presumably has cleaned up a wad of money. He expects to return in a few days and will spend the winter in California. The latest map of Oregon shows Lakeview as the converging point of our railroads, one coming from the northeast, another from the northwest the third from the west and the fourth from the south. We are thankful for small favors, and if the one now building from the south reaches us during 1911 our cup of rejoicing will be overflowing. The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1911 a beautiful Calendar for the new year. The picture panel reproduces a water color painting of an old time garden in a flood of summer sunshine with a background of Lombardy poplars through which one catches a glimpse of distant hills. Word has been received here to the effect that Nels Jepson, formerly of Lakeview, participated on Tuesday last in the annual wrestling championship contest for the Pacific Coast, held at San Francisco. Fully 40 wrestlers took part in the affair, representing the best talent in British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and California. The results have not as yet been received here, but it is hoped that Jepson was victorious in the contest.

Up Goes the Best The best butter, Oliver's, will sell for 80 cents for two pounds on and after December 8; or—on at 25 cent a pint. This butter is made and sold according to the pure food laws of the state and the rules to follow in making pure wholesome butter.
