Jack Welch has returned just after a several weeks trip which included a visit to Sacramento, San Francisco and other points. Bert Gardner, a salesman for the Capitol City Candy and Cracker Company, was a visitor in town during the past week. Many people took the opportunity to witness the beautiful sunset on Wednesday evening, and all pronounced it splendid. Miss Laura Snelling entertained a few friends at her home on Saturday evening, and an enjoyable time was had by all present. T. S. McKinney has been employed as principal of the Silver Lake School, and he assumed the duties of the position Tuesday. George Wingfield has added the Woodfield Hotel to his possessions, having purchased the interest of his partner, J. W. Smith, therein. Lloyd Morris came over from Warner last week and remained for the New Year's dance. Like all the rest he reports having a fine time. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Billings and Carl Gilling of the Forestry service, with headquarters at Silver Lake, spent the holidays at Summer Lake. Rev. M. O'Malley took a trip to the Wood's ranch in Drew's Gap on Monday of this week to see several of its parishioners in that locality. Dr. C. C. Goldsberry, recently of Paisley, has located at Klamath Falls and is associated with Dr. Wm. Martin in the practice of dentistry. Mrs. R. Bradley, who was confined to her home with rheumatism for several days, is now feeling greatly improved and is able to be about again. Dick Sherlock and Four McAuliffe, who are taking care of the Norin sheep, left for the "desert" on Sunday morning with a load of supplies. A terrible snow storm, the furious Pasadena aviator, was killed Saturday at Los Angeles by his machine turning turtle during one of his famous spiral glides. Friday night of next week, January 13, Holokona and Subordinate Lodge, I. O. O. F., will hold a joint installation. All members are invited to attend. Harry Bailey was laid up for a few days during the past week with a very bad cold. He is now able to be about again and is feeling greatly improved. A walk about town any day now will reveal Christmas trees, and many of them, which have served their purpose for this year and have now been discarded. Miss Oka Maizo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Swingle, former residents of Langell Valley, was married to Geo. S. Zimmerman, of Portland, last Sunday. Dave Pouts acted as usher at the Opera House during the moving picture show on Sunday evening, and accommodated the large crowd there in his shape. Ed Patch was laid up for a few days last week with a very bad cold, accompanied by a severe attack of tonsillitis, but is now able to be about again as usual. W. J. Proudfoot has returned after a several weeks visit to San Francisco and other points. He met Bill Powell in the city, who was having the time of his life. Work towards removing the Joe Arzner house to the Drenkel addition has been going on all week, and the building has now almost reached its destination. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mahan, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fram and R. H. Rogers, of the Drews Creek dam, who spent the holidays in Lakeview, returned home yesterday. Bryon Graves, George Chandler and Ralph Mulkey went out to the lower Chandler ranch yesterday, and while there may engage in the gentle art of breaking broncos, etc. Mrs. Lora Barry was confined to her home for a few days during the past week with a very sore throat. She is now much improved, however, and is able to be about again. J. B. Auten has been suffering from an attack of sore throat and tonsillitis and has the appearance of having been drawn through a knot hole. However, he is about again, and is rapidly regaining his normal appearance. "Jim" Graves left on Saturday morning for Portland, where he is to remain for two or three months. "Jim" made many friends while here and his departure will be regretted by all. Lakeview is beginning to possess quite a colony of colored people, and they all seem to be doing well. At present there are seven, whom the writer knows of, now located within our limits. The ice harvest is now on and many tons are being stowed away for use next summer. It is about eight inches thick and of superior quality, there being no snow or slush mixed in with it. Geo. C. Clarke, of Everett, Wash., has been awarded the contract for building the diverting dam across Lost River in the Klamath reclamation project. His bid for the work was $98,556.50. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahan came in from the Oregon Valley dam this week to spend a few days in town. Incidentally they attended the New Year's dance, and report having had a very nice time. Hayer & Grob have had the interior of their store nicely papered and varnished, so that it now presents a much improved appearance. The work was in charge of Tom Watson, assisted by Jim Hager. The local Forestry office received new supplies on Wednesday, including some very nice office furniture. The equipment also contained several 12 and 16-ounce tents and sleeping bags for use in the field. We do not know how the Indians on the hill east of town are faring in their tepees this kind of weather, but as for ourselves—we had rather spend the evenings in front of a fire in a comfortable wooden house. A new directory of Klamath Falls is to be issued soon, and the persons having the work in charge claim to have secured the names of 3300 persons whose the names of 10 years who are residents of that place. A check room has been established in the wings of the opera house stage. It was started by one of the colored men, and is no doubt a paying proposition in addition to being a convenience to the public. Guy Casney, of the local telephone company, has returned from a trip to Warner where he superintended some work done for the Dent telephone line. He reports having seen much snow on the mountain coming over. The ladies of the Catholic Altar Society will meet next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Hutchins. Meetings will be held by the members at the various homes on Thursdays of each week from now on. Con Drews came in from Thomas Creek on Monday for a load of supplies. He and several others are engaged there in cutting and splitting wood for John Flynn, and about a cord apiece per day has been averaged. A great deal of noise in the line of hollowing and yelling was heard in the vicinity of the City Jail on Tuesday. It was caused by one of the inmates, who evidently didn't appreciate being confined in such close quarters. A. Kaufmann, the watchmaker, has had the interior of his store nicely decorated and fitted up in fine shape. Lakeview can now boast of having two of the best supplied and up-to-date jewelry shops of any town of its size in the country. George Hatchelder has been confined to his home for several days past with a very bad cold and has not been able to attend to his duties at the Bailey & Mastaglio store. R. T. Striplin is acting as substitute there during his absence. Mrs. Avery, of Portland, mother of Mrs. Florence Jones of Paisley, passed away this week, having reached the good old age of four score and ten. She was an early pioneer of Oregon, and the family is well known throughout the state. On Friday of last week J. Frank Barnes purchased from the local land office at public auction a forty acre isolated tract of land near the head of Summer Lake. This strip adjoins other land owned by him, and will be used for pasturing purposes. Mrs. M. E. Kinsey, who has been seriously sick for some time past, left this week for Santa Rosa, Cal., hoping that a change of climate will prove beneficial. She was accompanied by her daughters, Mrs. John Gilmore and Mrs. Raudom. W. A. Currier a few days since made a big sale of range horses, for which he received $18,000. M. Ody & Thorp, who are extensive horse dealers, were the purchasers, and they expect to ship the horses to Hollings, Mont. Mr. Currier reserves 100 head. William T. Schriener, of Klamath Falls, was a visitor in town during the past week. Mr. Schriener was formerly a mail contractor between the Falls and Bly, but has given it up in order to make some necessary improvements on his homestead. One thing we should all be thankful for is that there is plenty of wood in town this winter. Last year we experienced a fuel scare, but the local dealers have been stocking up all Fall and are now prepared to meet all demands. Many of the shepman, who came in to remain over the holidays, have returned to camp and will be seen no more until next spring. Among those who went out were Mike Barry, Jack Denahy, Con Taylor, Phil Barry and Con Fitzgerald. The hotel barber shop was short handed Friday and Saturday of last week, when Roll McDonald was left alone to accommodate everyone who came in. This was caused by the absence of Frank Smith, who went to Paisley to attend the funeral of his father-in-law, Polk Bannister. Word has been received from B. Reynolds, who formerly conducted a general merchandise store here, to the effect that he is now manager of the New York Store in Ontario, Oregon, and was doing well there. The Examiner wishes him much success in his new undertaking. Post & King are giving their customers something very attractive in the form of a small book containing blank memorandum sheets, calendar data, various rules of arithmetic, maps and items of interest the world over. These books are certainly useful and of value to everyone. Walter Dutton and Guy and Lynn Croumiller, left for Corvallis on Saturday morning, after spending the holidays at home, to resume their studies at the Agricultural college. Much excitement occurred in the north-end of town at midnight on Saturday, when about twenty of the boys who stayed up to see the old year out and the new year in, set the bells in the Methodist and Baptist churches to ringing, and as an added attraction fired off several shots from a revolver. The residents in the vicinity were slightly scared at first, some thinking that there was a fire, but on second thought decided that the boys were only out on a lark and no damage was intended. A stockyards and sugar beet purchasing association is being formed in Klamath. The main object of the association is to encourage the raising of sugar beets for stock food. J. C. Mitchell, the well known beef buyer, having announced his willingness to purchase the product of 500 acres at prices ruling at beet sugar factories. The Spanish-American War Veterans held their monthly meeting on Monday evening, with a large attendance present. William E. Curtis was initiated into the order, and is now a full pledged member. The regular routine business was transacted, and the meeting then adjourned until the first Monday in February. Keene & Barnes have now on exhibition at their store something very neat and useful in the line of a gasoline lamp. The lamps sell for $15.00 each, and when it comes right down to giving perfect light they are sure worth the money. Manager Welch, of the telegraph office, a few days since received from W. A. Taylor a box of cigars with the season's greetings. Mr. Taylor was in charge of the baggage during the O. V. L. opening in 1909 and is now located at Ogden. Klamath Chronicle: James Taylor, an old-timer of the Bly country, came in yesterday with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and daughter are on their way to Philadelphia to visit scenes of their younger day. Clarence Taylor, a son, brought the family in. The local land office received several very nice sectional book cases yesterday. These will be used for filing away land decisions, reports, etc., and are something that have been badly needed there for some time past. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fuller and little daughter, of Crookston, Minn., arrived in Lakeview this week expecting to remain a couple of months. Mr. Fuller is a teaming contractor, and is here with a view of locating. He is also representing other parties who desire to locate here. The Woman's Guild met at the home of Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Tuesday, Jan. 2, 1911, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. T. S. Farrell, president; Mrs. L. F. Conn, vice president; Mrs. H. O. Kuhl, secretary; Mrs. E. E. Rinehart, treasurer. With the price of fresh eggs at sixty-five cents per dozen we do not wonder at people grumbling about the high cost of living, etc. This, too, when there are no freight charges to be added. Surely the hen is a valuable possession at this particular season of the year. Owing to the non-arrival of films for the moving pictures, Manager Smitu of the Opera House was unable to give any show on one or two nights during the past week. The films are now coming along regularly, and no trouble of this kind will be experienced in the future. Ex-Sheriff Albert Dent left Wednesday morning for Santa Barbara to join his family, who have been residing there for some time past. They expect to return to Lakeview during the coming summer, and should they do so, will receive a warm welcome from their many friends here. The New Year at Lakeview was ushered in with a ringing of bells, firing of guns, joyous singing and shouting, while the streets presented a lively appearance along about midnight. The Court House chimneys were started shortly before 12 and together with church bells, for 20 minutes sent out their musical notes as a harbinger of the most prosperous year Lake County has ever known. The first batch of applications from J. O. Hamaker, the new U. S. Commissioner at Bonanza, was received at the local land office on Saturday morning. By making these filings before Mr. Hamaker the applicants save a trip to Klamath Falls, which was the nearest place that filing papers could be made out before Mr. Hamaker was appointed to his present position. A great many strangers came into town to spend the holidays and a majority of them are still with us. It's peculiar, but there's something attractive about Lakeview and the surrounding country which keeps us all here. Maybe it's because we realize the many advantages it has and the big opportunities ahead of us. In any event, those who come remain here, and we all seem to prosper. There's plenty of room for others too. If you should happen any day now to offer a cigar to someone who prior to January 1st was an inveterate smoker—and he refuses to accept; or if you should see some fellow who used to partake, calmly refuse a drink, don't stop to ask the reason why. Just remember that it's only a few days since New Year's and several of us have made those annual promises. We'll all come around to the usual way of living in a few days now and forget all about our good resolutions, etc. Wait and see. DEATH IN ROARING FIRE may not result from the work of fire-bugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the quickest, surest cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain. It soothes and heals. Drives of skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at A. L. Thornton's.
