

WE BUY, LEASE AND SELL O. V. L. LANDS

W. Roche Fick, Government Homestead Expert is now looking after this department. 160-320 Acre Homesteads; 160-320 Acre State Lands

We will buy a limited number of O. V. L. Lots.

For Sale, improved and unimproved Ranches.

Do you want a home in Lakeview? We have it for you!

A snap—a beautiful Country Home overlooking the Lake; large Orchard, Alfalfa, etc. Let us tell you about it.

SOUTHERN OREGON REALTY COMPANY -- LAKEVIEW, OREGON

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Get prices on flour at Bonanza before buying elsewhere.

Klamath County pays a bounty of 5 cents each on rabbit scalps.

Mrs. Sam Dicks, of Crooked Creek, was a visitor in town on Sunday.

See the Boys' Sweaters, regular 60c value, to go at 35c. Mercantile Co.

Dan Malloy on Monday left for Bly, where his sheep are wintering.

Wood For Sale.—Wood yard opposite Planting Mill. McDowell & Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Harvey are now occupying their new home on the Sash.

Hay for sale, either loose or baled. Apply to Leeman & Bishop or J. P. Duckworth.

Harold Frain on Saturday came in from the O. V. L. Dam for a few days visit in town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Withers, of Summer Lake, on Friday last were visitors in town.

Carl Caldwell and Edward Nelson, residents of Astor, paid Lakeview a visit last Saturday.

Bill Woods, the west side rancher, made another of his week-end visits to Lakeview on Saturday.

Miss Murray Johnson was confined to her home for several days last week with a very bad cold.

Miss Mary Johnson was confined to her home for several days last week with an attack of tonsillitis.

Pleasant Shellhammer, a rancher from the Crooked Creek section, was a visitor in town this week.

Contractor G. B. Graves has just completed the construction of a brick flue in the new Arzner barn.

Mrs. James McShane was confined to her home for several days this week with an attack of grippe.

Jason Elder, of the Forest Service, on Thursday came down from Paisley on business before the local office.

Mrs. L. D. Hoy and Mrs. Des Combs, of the Summer Lake country, were visitors in town last week.

Harry Howard, who has been employed at Drews Valley for some time past, paid Lakeview a visit on Tuesday.

R. H. Rogers came in from the O. V. L. dam on Thursday and appeared to be mighty glad to see the old town once more.

Phil Barry, the well known sheep man, on Friday returned to Gauno Valley after spending several days here on business.

G. W. Johnson, of the Bank of Lakeview, was confined to his home for several days last week with an attack of tonsillitis.

John Ward and Fred Anderson, of the Hanson Construction Company, on Monday came in from the Point Ranch for supplies.

A dance will be held tomorrow evening at the Myers' ranch on the West Side, and several local people are planning to attend.

Elder S. H. Riley has secured for G. B. Watson, of Missoula, Mont., a 30-day option on the P. M. Curry ranch on the West Side.

Reno Journal: Felix Green and C. W. Dent of Lakeview, Ore., are in Reno for a few days on business and staying at the Riverside.

A. Bieber Tuesday evening returned from San Francisco where he placed orders for a large stock of goods for the coming season.

Nick Barry, who is connected with his father in the stock business, came in on Tuesday from Blue Joint, where his sheep are wintering.

The young people of the Baptist Church and Sunday School will give an Aster show next fall. All are invited to compete for the prizes.

Miss Nellie Harvey, who has been employed in Klamath Falls for several months past returned here on Sunday for a visit with her parents.

Mrs. McDonough was quite seriously ill during the past week at her home on Main street. She is now feeling much improved and stronger.

The Idaho Woolgrowers Association has fixed wages of herders at $49 per month and will pay 6 cents per head for shearing during the coming season.

The numerous trees about the Jim Herford residence on the Sash were lopped of many of their branches last week in preparation for the Summer's growth.

Harvey Proctor was laid up for several days last week with a very bad cold and sore throat. It is now able to be about again and feels greatly improved.

Jacob Schweinforth, the garden specialist, is a busy man these days trimming trees about town. Jake understands his business and is much in demand.

Art Rehart on Wednesday came in from the ranch at Crooked Creek to spend a few days in town with his folks. He was accompanied by Wesley Danbar.

Miss Amy Herford, who has been visiting in Lodi, Cal., for some time past, returned here last week and reports enjoying an excellent time while there.

Jim O'Connor, Jack Denaby and Tom Murphy, well known residents of Plush, on Friday returned to their home town after spending a few days in our midst.

The birthday anniversary of George Washington was observed as a legal holiday on Wednesday, and the banks and public offices remained closed during the day.

Mrs. Lora Barry, of Main street, was laid up for several days during the past week with a very troublesome sore throat. She is now much better, however.

A. E. Florence, president of the Lakeview Mercantile Co., arrived home Saturday evening, having shortened his visit at Reno by reason of his wife's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox, well known residents of the West Side, on Monday paid Lakeview a visit and incidentally made some purchases among the stores.

Maunel Saunders last evening arrived in from the desert. He reports weather conditions unchanged, and the outlook not at all favorable for the sheep industry.

The Palace Saloon now has a rather unique mascot in the shape of a stuffed owl. It is perched on a shelf above the bar and presents a remarkably wise appearance.

The Keemo Club will be unable to accommodate spectators at their dance tomorrow evening for lack of room, but anyone chaperoning a party will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sopa Tuesday were up from New Pine Creek on a business visit. Mr. Sopa will shortly open a billiard hall and lodging house at the State line town.

An epidemic of what is termed the "itch" is now prevalent in the local school and many of the pupils afflicted have been obliged to remain away until conditions are improved.

Cy Henderson, who is employed at the Mammoth Barn, left last week for the desert country in the vicinity of Abert Lake to find out how his sheep were standing the winter season.

A very pleasant dance was held at the Opera House last evening, which was attended by about fifty couples. It was an all-night affair, the occasion being Washington's birthday.

The glistening effect caused by the sun shining on the snow-covered ground is causing many people to wear black-lensed glasses these days as a sort of protection for the eyes.

Indian John may be seen about town any day now, looking rather feeble and pale, despite his color. The old man is just recovering from a very serious illness with la grippe.

Dr. B. Daly Tuesday evening returned home after an absence of several weeks. He spent much of his vacation in Southern California, where he met many Lakeview people.

A great many of the local sportsmen went rabbit hunting yesterday, among the list being John Venator, Andy Hammersley, Ernest Clark and Vins Snelling. All report excellent luck.

Earl Abbott, of the Forest Service, on Friday came in from the Dog Lake country, accompanied by his wife. Both report a great deal of snow in that vicinity, and intensely cold.

Jerry Barry had the misfortune to sprain his ankle last week when a toboggan in which he and several others were riding slewed around and scattered the occupants over the ground.

The Bengie family remained in town one night over their prescribed schedule, and on Monday evening at the Opera House gave a performance consisting of vaudeville. It was well attended.

Miss Vada Bonham, who was formerly clerk in the local Forest office, is now undergoing treatment in the Good Samaritan Hospital at Portland and is reported to be getting along nicely there.

F. D. Lovelass was in from his ranch a few days since, and reports huge snowdrifts in and around his place. The storm of the 12th in it, was the worst that he has experienced for many years.

The southern stage, with the first load of mail since the recent blockade, arrived in town on Friday evening and was surely welcomed by the many people who turned out to wait for it to be sorted.

Walt Russell and Jim McShane have accepted a contract to saw up the Hotel Lakeview cord wood and may be seen operating the steam engine across from the Examiner office almost any day now.

We received several invitations to go rabbit hunting yesterday, but on account of the large amount of business on hand, incidental with the many new subscriptions pouring in, were obliged to decline.

Among the out-of-town people who registered at the Hotel Lakeview this past week were Harry Starr, of Port land, and A. M. Dildine, A. E. Hammond, F. J. Robinson and B. W. Edwards, of Fallon, Nevada.

Rev. M. O'Malley, of the Catholic Church, on Wednesday returned from Eagleville, Cal., where he went to officiate at the burial services over two of the sheepmen who were murdered there recently.

On Monday last a meeting of the Stock Men was held at Fort Bidwell and several of the local dealers who range their cattle, horses and sheep near the California line were present to talk over grazing matters.

Much wood is being hauled into town these days. It appears to be much easier to get at this season than it was last winter when prices soared sky high and when wood, of any description, was very much of a luxury.

Jim Graves, while gone, acquired a small black dog, which answers to the name of "Zip." Jim says it's a water spaniel, and it will no doubt come in handy on some of his hunting expeditions to the Lake next fall.

W. A. Massingill, of the firm of Bailey & Massingill, returned on Tuesday from San Diego, Cal., where he has been visiting with his family for several months past. He reports having an enjoyable time while absent.

Word has reached here to the effect that "Tuffy" Storkman, a former Lakeview boy, has just been appointed City Marshal at Ontario, Oregon. The many local acquaintances of "Tuffy" wish him the best of success in his new position.

On account of the non-arrival of Rev. M. O'Malley, who went to Eagleville last week to conduct the burial services over two of the men who were found murdered, no services were held at the Catholic Church on Sunday morning last.

Miss Alice Lindsay, a former Lakeview girl, is now employed as waitress in the Livermore hotel at the Falls. Through many local people who have stopped there enroute for home, she has sent her regards to her many Lakeview friends.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Shellhammer are young people and well known in Lakeview. Their many friends here join with the Examiner in extending many good wishes for their future success and happiness. They will reside at Crooked Creek.

Word has been received here to the effect that Miss Annie Tenningsen, a former Lakeview girl, was confined to a hospital in Boise, Idaho, with an attack of scarlet fever. The many Lakeview friends of Miss Annie wish her a very speedy recovery.

Jay Billings, of the Forest Service, on Thursday came down from Silver Lake on business before the local Forestry office. Jay reports plenty of snow all along the route, and states that is particularly deep in the vicinity of Crooked Creek.

A. D. and L. D. Frakes came in from their Warner home last Wednesday and spent the major portion of the week gathering up horses that were left on the range, says the Bidwell Nugget. The animals were suffering considerably from lack of feed.

Elder S. H. Riley is getting busy these days and has contracted for breaking up during the coming season about 300 acres of raw land on the West Side. The land is owned by O. V. L. contract holders, and Mr. Riley will cultivate it for them.

Several members of the local band on Sunday evening turned out in connection with the Bengie family band and rendered a public concert in front of the Opera House. Their work was much appreciated by the large crowd who gathered around to listen.

A meeting of the ladies of the Catholic Altar Society was held this afternoon with Mrs. Eolus Barry, at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. C. Loftus. A pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present after the necessary business matters had been attended to.

L. D. Hoy, the well known stockman, on Monday passed through Lakeview enroute to his home at Summer Lake. Mr. Hoy has just returned from a several month's visit to Woodland and other California points, and reports enjoying a fine time while absent.

On Sunday last a party including Earl Ingram, Clinton Combs, Dr. Boyd, Guy Ingram, Charles Reed and John Auten went rabbit hunting on the West Side and managed to kill two hundred of the small animals. All are expert shots, which accounts for the fine day's work.

Clayton Anderson, aged about 18 years, last Saturday night robbed the store and postoffice at Lorella, securing 62 rabbit scalps, a pair of men's gloves, two purses, a money sack and $20 in coin. Anderson was subsequently captured at Klamath Falls and admitted committing the crime.

Some fine, substantial, home made sleighs have been seen about our streets during the recent snow storms. When it comes to looks they cannot be compared with the factory-made article, but for strength and practicality over the rough roads they certainly accomplish the work required.

A very pleasant wedding took place yesterday morning at Crooked Creek, when Pleasant Shellhammer, a well known rancher of that place, was united in marriage to Iva Benefield. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. H. Smith, of the Baptist Church, officiating.

Jimie Barry, who is employed by his father in the sheep business, on Saturday came in from the desert country near Blue Joint. Jim states that reports have been received in Plush to the effect that many sheep were now dying, and that it has been found necessary in many cases to feed them hay.

Dr. T. V. Hall is expected to arrive home Saturday evening. He has been at Myrtle Creek, Douglas County, during the past several weeks having been called by the serious illness of his mother. Although in-

Word has been received from Miss Jettie Cushman, who spent several months on a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Bernay, to the effect that she was now at her home in Fallon, Nevada. Miss Gertie reports that on arrival there she found her folks all enjoying the best of health, and that she was now renewing old acquaintances.

Herman Arzner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jon Arzner, on Friday last had the misfortune to have two nails penetrate his right eye. He was playing with several other boys in the vicinity of his home and accidentally ran into a clothes pole which had several nails protruding from it. It is not thought that the injury will be of a permanent nature.

Kid McClelland, the pugilist who spent several weeks in Lakeview during the past summer, fought against Bert Ainslinger, a Sacramento boxer at Kennett, California, on Wednesday, February 15th. In a 20-round boxing bout, McClelland was given the decision in the 18th round, he having proved himself to be better man all through the fight.

ADVERTISING SIGNS That Advertise

BUSINESS SIGNS That Talk

WE MEET ALL COMPETITION

Lakeview Decorative Co.

Sheep For Sale

2,500 head of Delane Ewes, tops out of 3,000 head, bred to Cotswold bucks, start lambing April 5, 1911. Delivered March 1, 1911. Price $5.50 per head

WE ARE CLOSING OUT

Write
Diamond C. Wool Company
PRINEVILLE : Box 216 : OREGON

BIG REDUCTIONS

ABOUT 2 dozen Boys' Heavy Button Sweaters, good weight for Spring wear, sizes 26 to 34, in navy and red, to close out at 35c each.

WE have a few Extra Good Furs to go at 33 1/2% off. These are exceptional good values and are good for a lifetime. This is a chance to save one-third the regular price.

BOYS' Cotton Rib Underwear, broken suits, assorted sizes, to close at 25c garment.

ALL our Flannel Gowns in Ladies' and Misses' sizes, Dressing Scaques and Kimonos, are going at 20% reduction.

THESE BARGAINS will only last a short time, so it is to your interest to come at once.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE COMPANY