

WE BUY, LEASE AND SELL O. V. L. LANDS

W. Roche Fick, Expert in Gov't Homesteads, is now looking after this department. 160-320 Acre Homesteads; 160-320 Acre State Lands

We will buy a limited number of O. V. L. Lots.

For Sale, improved and unimproved Ranches.

Do you want a home in Lakeview? We have it for you!

A snap—a beautiful Country Home overlooking the Lake; large Orchard, Alfalfa, etc. Let us tell you about it.

SOUTHERN OREGON REALTY COMPANY -- LAKEVIEW, OREGON

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Sweet elder is now on sale at J. P. Duckworth's.

Don't miss the Fur Sale at the Mercantile Co.'s store.

Get prices on flour at Bonanza before buying elsewhere.

For Watch Repairing, try A. Kaufmann, the New Jewelry Store.

Gus S. Hagel is expected home this evening from his California trip.

Good heavy winter coats, sheep or blanket lined, at the Mercantile Co.

See the Boys' Sweaters, regular 90c value, to go at 35c. Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Rosa McDaniels on Tuesday came in from her ranch for supplies.

A. P. Koozer, the West Side rancher, on Monday paid Lakeview a visit.

Mage Fine arrived from Sacramento this week to look after business matters.

The regular Wednesday evening sermons will be given until the close of Lent.

Charles L. Kent, of Alturas, was a visitor in Lakeview during the past week.

F. H. Oliver on Saturday came over from Adel to transact some necessary business.

Hay for sale, either loose or baled. Apply to Leebann & Bishop or J. P. Duckworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Alford, of Plush on Tuesday came into town on a business trip.

Mrs. Farnam Harris will entertain the Ladies Aid Society next Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. T. V. Hall Sunday evening returned from a visit to his mother at Myrtle Creek.

Nathan Wilcox, accompanied by his wife, on Tuesday came in from Crooked Creek valley.

Dan Chandler on Saturday came in from his ranch to spend a few days in town with his folks.

Mrs. G. M. Cansey was confined to her home for several days this week with a very severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Deter were up from their ranch Monday attending to business matters.

Lawrence E. Tracy, the Drews Valley rancher, on Monday came into town on a business trip.

Guy Causey is acting as night operator at the local telephone office during the illness of his wife.

Mrs. J. A. Jettmore, who is teacher of the Crane Creek school, on Saturday paid Lakeview a visit.

A. S. Downs, who has a ranch several miles south of town, on Wednesday paid Lakeview a visit.

Joe Ambrose, the West Side rancher, on Saturday made one of his regular week end visits to town.

Charles Jennings, the Valley Falls real estate man, on Wednesday came into town for a few days visit.

The Lenten Season started on March 1st, Ash Wednesday, and continues for a period of six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandler came in from the Chandler ranch on Friday for a few days visit in town.

Roy J. Kilgore, a well known resident of Bonanza, died last Friday, following an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler on Friday came in from the Chandler ranch for a few days visit in town.

Ferdinand Cassett, who has a homestead at the head of Goose Lake, on Friday came to town for supplies.

Will Rehart on Tuesday came in from the ranch at Crooked Creek to spend a few days with his folks here.

George B. Graves, A. Kaufmann and W. P. Dykeman yesterday went rabbit hunting and all report excellent luck.

Charles Harvey, the freighter, on Saturday came up from New Pine Creek for a few days visit with his folks.

Reports are to the effect that coyotes afflicted with rabies have been killed in several sections of the county.

Jerry Barry and Cy Henderson on Tuesday went rabbit hunting and managed to kill a few of the small animals.

Yesterday being the first day of the Lenten season, services were held at the Catholic church both morning and evening.

Miss Ethel Bailey has accepted a position as clerk in the Kandy Kitchen, and has already resumed her duties there.

Charles T. Powne came over from Bly this week, and is spending a few days in our midst. He is accompanied by his family.

Norman Jacobson and Per Ingram, of the Forest Service, on Saturday went out to Salt Creek on business for the local office.

Ralph Mulkey, who is employed at the Chandler ranch at Crooked Creek, on Wednesday came into town for a load of supplies.

A meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society was held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Campbell on Main street.

Phil Barry, who is connected with his father in the sheep business, on Sunday came over from Plush for a few days visit with his folks.

Mrs. M. Magilton last Friday afternoon entertained the Teacup Club. Dainty refreshments were served and a most pleasant time had by all.

The aeroplane cap seems to have won much favor with the ladies hereabouts, as may be evidenced by the large number now being worn about town.

Several families residing in the vicinity of the slash report that dogs belonging to them were poisoned by unknown parties on Tuesday of this week.

Katie Johns, daughter of Indian Maggie who died last week, on Saturday arrived here from the Ft. Bidwell Indian School to attend the funeral of her mother.

A sleigh load of five drummers on Sunday left for Plush, where they expected to take in all the available orders for the coming spring and summer business.

Word has reached here to the effect that Mrs. May Hatcher was quite ill with appendicitis at the Los Angeles home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Sherlock.

Bishop Paddock will not reach Lakeview until about the middle of the month, having been detained longer than expected in the northern part of his diocese.

John Metzger has again taken up the freighting business, and on Saturday last left for Alturas, expecting to bring back a large consignment of goods on his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Stevens, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. Sherman Easter during the past several months, returned to San Francisco a few days ago.

Miss Alice Slinkard, of Cedarville, on Thursday passed through here en route for Crooked Creek, where she has accepted a position as teacher of the school at that place.

Charles Counts, of the Forest Service, on Saturday had the misfortune to lose one of his horses, finding the animal dead when he made his usual morning visit to the stable.

James Barry, the pioneer sheepman, on Friday left for Blue Joint, where his sheep are located. He was accompanied by Tom Pratt, who will assist him in caring for the stock.

Ralph Southstone, of the Auto Garage, on Tuesday returned after a several month's visit in Los Angeles and other southern points. He reports an excellent time while absent.

Ben Daly, the well known sheep man, on Tuesday came in from the Catalow Valley section where his sheep are wintering. He reports that they are doing well despite the recent bad weather.

Some "chinkook" weather has been felt here during the past few days, and a slight thaw has been the result. Let us hope that it will continue as we are anxious to see the good old summer weather once more.

A very pleasant party was given on Thursday evening last by Miss Bessie Burgess, at her home on West street, to the members of her Methodist Junior League class. An enjoyable time was had by all present.

Two strangers, both claiming the name of Ben Litchan, on Saturday arrived here from New York City, and expect to make Lakeview their future home. They are first cousins, and both have relatives here.

M. T. Howard, of Klamath Falls, was a visitor in town during the past week. He was a homesteader in the famous 37-10 case, but this week he relinquished his homestead and fled a timber and stone entry on it.

Bill Kolbaugh, who was formerly employed as a surveyor for the Oregon Valley Land Company, on Monday left for Gerlach, Nevada. Bill made many friends while here and his departure will be regretted by all.

Riley Nyawaner on Sunday left for Weed, Cal., after spending several weeks visiting his folks here. He was accompanied by his father, John Nyawaner, who will remain with him for a few weeks before returning.

The funeral services over Maggie Johns, the Indian woman who died here last week, were held at the Willis Undertaking rooms on Sunday afternoon, after which the body was interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Tom Trodden, a former resident here who is now employed as salesman for the Gunst Cigar Company of Frisco, was a visitor in Lakeview during the past week, and while here took the opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Word has reached here to the effect that Miss Hazel McKee, a former Lakeview girl, had recently undergone an operation for appendicitis in a Portland hospital. The many local friends of Miss Hazel wish her a very speedy recovery.

W. H. Hotchkiss, the Valley Falls stockman, on Monday came into town on a business trip. Mr. Hotchkiss reports that the cattle are doing very well this winter, and that so far there has been no more than the ordinary winter's loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beaufort, of Denver are spending a few days in town. Mr. Beaufort is the owner of one of the Oregon V. L. Co. ten acre tracts, located west of town, and expects to build a home and take up his residence there shortly.

M. W. O'Brien, the Summer Lake rancher, reached Lakeview on Saturday after a several months visit to Reno and other points in that vicinity. Mr. O'Brien states that his wife was obliged to remain in Reno on account of a serious attack of rheumatism.

The annual meeting of the Lakeview Library Association will be held Saturday evening. The meeting is for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and the transaction of any other business that may come up, and will be held at the library room.

"Doc" Archer on Saturday came in from the O. V. L. Dam, and expects to remain here for several weeks. This will be in the form of a vacation for "Doc," as on previous occasions he has been too busy to remain more than a few days whenever he happened to visit town.

Dan Malloy, the local stockman, on Tuesday came in from Bly where his sheep are wintering. He reports that but one sheep has been lost to date, which is partly accounted for by the fact that hay is being fed them, but which is nevertheless a very good record for this season.

The drummers are coming into Lakeview thick and fast these days, getting orders for Spring goods. All are optimistic as to the business outlook for the coming year, and believe that we have bright prospects for landing a railroad before many months have passed by.

A meeting of the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society was held this afternoon with Miss Lena McShane at her home on Main street. Necessary business was transacted, after which refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed by all present.

Among the out-of-town people who registered at the Hotel Lakeview during the past week were M. Glass, J. A. Thornton, A. A. Mitchell, T. J. Trodden, R. G. Bonnel, J. C. Wilson, E. E. McVeagh, all of San Francisco, G. M. Hollingsworth, of Sacramento, S. I. Foun, of Seattle, and A. H. Willis, of Baker, Oregon.

Miss Mary Ellen Russell, daughter of Mrs. Mary Russell of this place, was married to James A. Tate February 16. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Oliver P. Kiser at Harkley. They are now at Gridley, Cal., where they will make their home. The bride is well known in Lakeview and her many friends extend hearty congratulations.

The ladies of the Civic Improvement Society have changed the time of holding the Good Time Club dances from Friday to Wednesday evenings. Consequently the next club dance will be held Wednesday evening of next week instead of tomorrow evening, as previously announced. The Keeno Club will hold its dance on the 23d, on account of the W. O. W. dance on the 17th.

The Examiner's monthly blotter was a few days late this month owing to the large amount of work received during February. Many compliments have been passed on the blotters issued by the Examiner, and it is not the office alone that is proud of them. Many business men seem to think it a credit to Lakeview that she possesses an office and workmen that are able to execute such work.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invariably bring relief to women suffering from chronic constipation, headache, biliousness, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia. Sold by All Good Dealers.

Chautauqua Meeting

The Chautauqua Circle will meet with Miss Mabel Rice Monday evening March 6.

Program—Roll Call, Current Events, Critical discussions of Dickens (Studies in Dickens), Mrs. Harry Bailey.

Housing the Poor (The Chautauquan, Democratic England VI.), Mrs. Ben Cloud.

This lesson concludes the "Studies in Dickens." The class will take up "Mental Growth and Control," by Nathan Oppenheim.

Davis Creek Items

Dr. H. Pierce, optician, is stopping at Hotel Davis Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Crowder are in Alturas this week taking Miss Bertha down so she could catch the train to Reno where she will resume her work in Heald's Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harvey stayed over night in Davis Creek on their way to the lower country. Mr. Harvey is going to ship several carloads of horses.

D. E. Ewing of Chicago spent several days in Davis Creek the past week looking over Davis Creek Orchard tracts. He was so well pleased that he purchased five tracts.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Zee, of Bodie, California, arrived last week and moved on the tract recently purchased from Davis Creek Orchard Co. They are well pleased and we are glad to have them with us.

Mr. Henry Ketzenbach made a business trip to Alturas last week.

Laurence Smith, forest ranger, was in Davis Creek Sunday night. He has been down at Alturas doing work in the office. He reports that the rangers on the Lava beds have been very successful catching wild horses and they together with local stockmen expect to get rid of them within the next week. These horses are a source of trouble to stockmen and should be killed off.

Mrs. S. J. Dutton has been sick with a cold but is around again.

The Beagle family gave two shows at the hall on Friday and Saturday evenings. They rendered "The Deacon of New York" and Saturday evening "The Other Peoples Money," and after the show on Saturday evening a social dance was given.

Word has been received from Miss Ethel McMahon, who spent some time in Davis Creek, that she is now living at Eugene and her many friends will be glad to know that she is enjoying good health.

A bunch of the young people of Davis Creek got a bob sled and four horses and went skating Wednesday night but report skating not very good.

Mrs. Geo. Crowder will entertain the Needle Club on Thursday afternoon.

Art Evans, of Bly, Oregon, was on Davis Creek Sunday night on his way to Alturas to get some cattle that has strayed therefrom their range on Sprague river.

The many friends of Walter L.

Dutton who is going to school at Corvallis, Oregon, will be glad to know that he has passed his examinations in good shape and is now beginning another term's work.

We just received a telephone message that the Indians who murdered the stockmen near Camp Denio in Nevada, had been captured after a desperate battle in which eight Indians and one of the posse were killed.

Dennis Brown took a load of traveling salesmen to Alturas Saturday. J. J. Pasner, who has taken over the Jhon Briles ranch, has arrived and will take possession March 1st.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE EXAMINER

FIRST-CLASS TURNOUTS COMPETENT DRIVERS

MAMMOTH STABLES

BARNUM & REHART PROPRIETORS

The Largest Livery and Feed Stable in Southern Oregon or Northern California. Horses Boarded by the Day, Week or Month. Special Attention Given to Transient Stock

PRICE, $1.00 PER SPAN

LAKEVIEW OREGON

ADVERTISING SIGNS

That Advertise

BUSINESS SIGNS

That Talk

WE MEET ALL COMPETITION

Lakeview Decorative Co.

Sheep For Sale

2,500 head of Delane Ewes, tops out of 3,000 head, bred to Cotswold bucks, start lambing April 5, 1911. Delivered March 1, 1911. Price $5.50 per head

WE ARE CLOSING OUT

Write

Diamond C. Wool Company

PRINEVILLE : Box 216 : OREGON

BIG REDUCTIONS

ABOUT 2 dozen Boys' Heavy Button Sweaters, good weight for Spring wear, sizes 26 to 34, in navy and red, to close out at 35c each.

BOYS' Cotton Rib Underwear, broken suits, assorted sizes, to close at 25c garment.

ALL our Flannel Gowns in Ladies' and Misses' sizes, Dressing Sacques and Kimonas, are going at 20% reduction.

THESE BARGAINS will only last a short time, so it is to your interest to come at once.

LAKEVIEW MERCANTILE COMPANY