Dr. J. V. Gilbert, recently of Reno, is in Lakeview on a tour of inspection. The doctor is well pleased with this section and predicts a great future for Lakeview and Goose Lake Valley.

Many cameras have put in an appearance during the past two weeks, especially on last Sunday and the preceding one. It is supposed that the photographers will have a busy season from now on.

Tommy Flynn, the local sheepman, came in Tuesday from Catlow Valley, where his sheep are wintering. He reports a very small loss, not more than the average winter's during the cold season.

C. O. Misener has leased the room in the rear of the First National Bank and will open a real estate office therein. Mr. Misener makes a specialty of farm lands and last year effected several large sales.

R. L. Colby, who has been employed on the Examiner for the past three months, Sunday left for Yuma, Arizona. Mr. Colby is an expert Simplex operator and worked wonders in this office during his stay.

The ladies who had charge of the decorations at the Catholic Church on St. Patrick's day wish to thank the many people who so kindly loaned flowers, plants, etc., to be used in trimming the interior of the building.

Man Whorton's old hen is right on deck again with the goods, having a few days since laid a four-ounce egg measuring seven inches around one way and eight inches the other. This is the third large egg to be laid by her.

John Rhodes, the local freighter, on Sunday afternoon had the misfortune to lose one of his bay horses while hunting coyotes on the Lake. A soft place in the ice was reached, and the horse broke through and drowned.

Hon. Will R. King, having recently retired from the Oregon Supreme Bench, announces that he has resumed the general practice of law with offices at Rooms 212, 213, 214, 215, Chamber of Commerce Building, Portland.

John Simmons, who is well known in Lakeview, on Saturday returned here from Creswell, Oregon, where he has been conducting a hotel for some months past. His family will follow shortly, and will locate here.

The drinking water had been very muddy for several days last week, and on investigation it was found that the water in the canyon had been dammed up, and had thus become muddy. It was evidently the work of boys.

The fishing season begins April 1, and already preparations are being made to observe the day in a fitting manner. Lake trout will probably be running by that time, but mountain trout will not put in an appearance until later in the season.

A new forest district is to be organized out of the Fremont and Deschutes forests to be known as the Paulina, with headquarters at Crescent. The northern line of the Fremont will be east of Silver Creek and south of Silver Lake.

Mayor Bailey, Dr. Daly and V. L. Snelling have placed orders with T. E. Bernard for E. M. F. 30 four-door cars to be delivered in April. Lakeview will no doubt maintain her position of leading all cities in the number of cars to the population.

L. A. Carriker was in from the West Side Tuesday, and reports that as yet the waters of Drews Creek have not commenced to raise. The lake is still frozen over, and until the wind commences blowing the ice is not likely to break up.

All goods are now being removed from the upper story of the Odd Fellows' building to various places about town, much of it being stored in the A. F. and A. M. hall. This is done preparatory to tearing down the building, which will be replaced by a modern structure.

On account of some criticism as to the having card tables in their pool room, Keene & Barnes have removed them and card playing is no longer allowed. This is a commendable action on their part, as it shows a spirit to run their business according to the wishes of the people.

John O'Shea, who resides with his parents on Dewey Street, had the misfortune to break his collar bone while playing in the vicinity of the school house on Tuesday last. Dr. Daly was summoned, and the injured boy is now getting along nicely and will no doubt be about again in a few days.

Miss Churchill Bartling, daughter of Chas. F. Bartling, arrived the first of the week from Chicago and has accepted a position as operator in the local telephone office. Miss Bartling has been employed as an operator in Chicago, for several years past, and is considered an expert in that line of work.

Henry Newell brought in the first auto for 1911. He and Bert Harber arrived with a Marlin four-door car a few days since, having brought it in from Klamath. It was necessary to load it on bobeleds to get it over Quartz mountain and down to Muddy. The car is a beauty and attracts much attention.

The spring building boom has now commenced and many new houses are being erected about town. It is believed that this summer will be a record-breaker in the construction of private residences as well as larger buildings like the High School, the Catholic Church, and the W.O.W. Hall. We need them all.

M. W. O'Brien, of the Summer Lake section, on Tuesday left here for Reno, Nevada, where he intends to locate. Mr. O'Brien's name is mentioned favorably for the position of Warden of the Nevada State penitentiary, and his many local friends are in hopes that he will be successful in obtaining the desired appointment.

Rev. M. O'Malley, of the Catholic Church, has received word that $500 had been contributed towards the building fund for the new church to be erected here shortly. Some wealthy lady of the State made a bequest of $12,500 to be divided equally amongst twenty-five Catholic parishes in eastern Oregon, and the local church received its share of the amount.

Bishop Robt L. Paddock, of the Episcopal Church, spent several days in Lakeview during the week, and was most pleasantly entertained during his stay. He held services at both the Baptist and Methodist churches, and on each occasion was greeted by large audiences. Sunday evening the services were attended by a large number of men about town, and at the request of the Bishop Keene & Barnes closed their billiard hall and all attended the services.

On Wednesday evening a very nice dance was held by the Keemo Club at the Civic Improvement Society's hall, about twenty-seven couples being present for the occasion. The orchestra consisted of Messrs. Willits, Getty and Rice, and a very excellent musical program was rendered. Refreshments were served by the ladies in the form of a buffet lunch. That the ladies certainly understood the method of running enjoyable dances was the unanimous opinion of all present.

Senator Bourne, who has recently received many letters protesting against establishing parcels post system, has replied that for many years he has advocated this system and will continue to support the proposed legislation for its establishment. He believes that, while the parcels post system will somewhat increase the business of mail order houses and correspondingly decrease the business of local retail stores, the diversion will be inconsiderable in proportion to the entire business of local establishments, and will not seriously injure local merchants.
