

SOUTHERN OREGON REALTY COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

GENERAL REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Improved and Unimproved Farms

Homesteads

City Property

We Specialize Fruit Lands

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

FOR SALE—16-inch wood. Inquire J. P. Duckworth, city.

Frank Rogers, of Plush, was one of Saturday's arrivals here.

Hi Adams is down from Silver Lake on Circuit Court business.

J. L. Cliff is included in the Silver Lake delegation now in town.

Jimmie Cleland, of Plush, was a visitor here during the week.

G. A. Strong, of Valley Falls, was among Friday's visitors to town.

L. J. Henderson, of Paisley, arrived here Saturday for a few days stay.

A. H. Mulkey, of Pine Creek, was among Saturday's visitors to town.

C. A. Nelson, of Drews Creek, was among this week's visitors to town.

Gill Arthur, the West Side rancher, came in Thursday to transact business.

C. W. Dent was over from Plush the first of the week on a business visit.

D. B. Conrad, the Paisley stockman, Tuesday registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

J. W. Fitzwater, the West Side rancher, was in on business during the week.

Manuel Swartz, the well known sheep man, Sunday came in for a load of supplies.

Sam Dicks, the well known stockman and rancher, was in from Crooked Creek last week.

A. M. Smith, of the Bunting ranch at Drews Valley, was in on business during the week.

Dodge Bros., of Reno, are in town with several fine stallions which they are offering for sale.

J. H. Lane, the Silver Lake attorney, arrived yesterday on business before the Circuit Court.

Major Fine, the well known Plush resident, registered at the Hotel Lakeview on Saturday last.

E. W. Gowan is over from Klamath, and this time has a patent gate which is said to be successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Amick, of Pine Creek, were visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clough.

Mr. and Mrs. Azel Wallace came in from the Chandler ranch during the week for a few days visit.

The Keemo and Good Times Clubs will give another of their enjoyable dances to-morrow evening.

Miss Edith Chandler is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Charles Mahan, at the O.V.L. dam.

Sam Cogburn and Lester Arthur came in from the West Side on Thursday last for a few days visit.

F. E. Anderson, county commissioner, is down from Lake in attendance at the May term of County Court.

Pearl Ingram, of the Forest Service, Friday came in from Salt Creek on business before the local office.

Mr. and Mrs. Habner, who conduct the stage station at Drews Gap, were visitors to town on Saturday last.

Mrs. G. B. Whorton is expected in a few days to arrive home, after having spent the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wilcox, of the stage station at Warner Canyon, were visitors here during the past week.

The summer schedule on the Western is now in effect, and the mails arrive in the morning instead of the evening.

R. B. Jackson, the Paisley merchant and county school superintendent, Tuesday registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

Wm. Stempfig is negotiating for the Metzker sawmill in Camas Prairie, and will probably operate it this season.

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society will hold their Food Sale Saturday next at 1:30 p. m. at Bailey & Massingill's store.

La Vogue garments never disappoint. Many of the smartest effects originated in Paris. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Dan F. Brennan, chief clerk of the Forestry office, spent several days this week at the Salt Creek station on official duties.

C. D. Babcock, of the Stayton Mail, will succeed Frank T. Wrightman as corporation clerk in the Secretary of State's office.

Hi Adams, of Silver Lake, is the latest victim of the buzz wagon. It being reported that he has purchased an E. M. F. "30."

Lawrence Frizzell, of the Forest Service, Tuesday came down from his station at Silver Lake on business before the local office.

Jack Angland, who recently sold his sheep, came down from Paisley last week and is spending a few days renewing acquaintances.

Postmaster Ahlstrom has purchased the news stand business from Wm. Wallace, and hereafter the big dailies can be had at the postoffice.

The rains of last week put the roads to the bad again, and as a consequence regular auto service on the Southern route has not been established.

The question of the incorporation of the town of Chewaucan is meeting with some opposition, and the matter will come up for hearing tomorrow.

Mr. A. G. Duhme passed through Alturas this week with fifteen expert lumbermen who will be employed in the Fandango mills this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heryford, who intended leaving last week on a visit to Missouri, concluded to wait until the roads improved before starting.

At the Board of Trade meeting last Saturday evening, a number of boosters got together, but no definite plan as to future work was agreed upon.

A hotel and store will be established at Lake Odell by John Morgan, Alf Aldrich and Rene West, of Bend, in time for the fishing and hunting season.

Justin Gibbins, until recently employed at the Fleming Brothers store at Pine Creek, has accepted a position with T. E. Bernard and is residing here.

Next Sunday evening at the M. E. Church Rev. Melville T. Wire will answer the question, "Are miracles possible?" A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Elder S. H. Riley will preach at the Union School house next Sunday at 2 o'clock from Revelations XX-14, "And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire."

John McCulley, who has been quite sick for some time past at the Joe Arzen residence, is now much better and last week returned to his ranch on the West Side.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Currier came down from Paisley the first of the week on a visit to friends, and as a side issue Mrs. C. made a desert land filing for 80 acres.

Dennis Donovan, the well known sheepman, came in from Twelve Mile during the week and reports that all hands are now busy preparing for the lambing season.

Kelton Gunther has been confined to his home for several days past with a very sore throat. His many friends hope that he will soon be up and around again.

S. J. Dutton is up from Davis Creek on a business visit. On his return he will be accompanied by Mrs. Dutton, who has been visiting Lakeview friends for the past ten days.

Monday night a grand ball was given at Wendt's Opera House, New Pine Creek, and several of the local dancers went down for the occasion. All report an excellent time.

"Cap" Brown, of the Hotel Lakeview, was indisposed for several days during the week with a very bad cold. He is now much better, however, and is again up and around.

The roads were very bad for a few days during the latter part of last week, due to the rains. They are again in good shape by this time, which we are duly thankful.

Owing to the rain, the baseball game, scheduled for last Sunday was postponed one week. Weather and ground conditions permitting the game will take place next Sunday.

S. V. Rehart yesterday arrived from Southern California, where he spent the winter. He is enthusiastic over the Los Angeles section and invested quite heavily in that vicinity.

At the municipal election held in Klamath Falls Monday, Mayor Sanderson and Treasurer Siemans were re-elected and T. F. Nicholas succeeds A. L. Leavitt as police judge.

In adjusting their teams and drivers to the new schedule the stage company Monday brought the mail in from Newell's station by auto, arriving here about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Albert W. Brittain and Josephine Derleth, of Plush, were married in this city last Thursday, Elder H. Smith, officiating. Both parties have numerous friends who extend congratulations.

A license to wed was issued this week by County Clerk Payne to Fred L. Bannister and Della Bevel. The wedding was to have been solemnized yesterday at Paisley, where the contracting parties are well and favorably known.

Miss H. L. Norton, a Medford school teacher who was hurt in the upsetting of a stage near Dairy, nearly a year ago, has brought suit against the stage company for a mere pittance of $10,250.

There are no new developments in the railroad situation, aside from the fact that the permanent survey is being extended north of Davis Creek, the surveyors now being in the vicinity of Sugar Hill.

Charles Barry returned Saturday from a several days fishing trip at the O.V.L. dam and surrounding country. Charlie had fine luck on the trip and his many friends ate nothing but fish for several days after his return.

J. L. Wheeler, who has many friends locally, arrived here last week after spending the winter at his home in San Diego. Mr. Wheeler has business interests hereabouts, which will keep him here during the coming summer.

"Scenes at the Union Depot," will be presented at the Opera House one week from tomorrow night under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Rehearsals are now being had, and the affair promises to be out of the ordinary.

H. Cottrell, who expects to run the moving picture show at Paisley, was a visitor here last week. He is soon to start a moving picture show at Paisley, and has already purchased the machine from Henry Wendt, of New Pine Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Roehl, who recently made proof on their homesteads in the Drews Valley section, were in town for a few days last week. They expect to leave shortly for Chicago, where they will make their future home.

The attention of horsemen is particularly called to the advertisement appearing elsewhere of Walker Bros., of Bly, offering stallions and a jack for sale. No fancy prices are asked for the animals, although they are of superior breeding.

Geo. B. Whorton this week sold to D. P. Malloy a half interest in the Inn Saloon. Mr. Malloy is one of the most widely known men of Lake county, and the resort under the new management will consequently maintain its present popularity.

Ahlstrom & Gunther during the past week have distributed among their friends and customers a thermometer and storm glass which is greatly appreciated. It advertises the famous Vanco brand of gall-cure collar, which the firm handles.

W. C. Buick, of Silver Lake, was in town Saturday on his return from Surprise Valley, where he purchased a load of alfalfa seed. Mr. Buick by experimenting has found that alfalfa will do well in his section and will now seed a large tract.

Judge Henry L. Benson and Court Reporter R. M. Richardson Tuesday arrived from Klamath Falls to prepare for the May term of Circuit Court. They came by stage to Newell's station, where they were met by an auto in which they came on to Lakeview.

Wallace Benson, son of the late secretary of state, Frank W. Benson, has been tendered a clerkship in the secretary of state's office by Secretary Oleott. Young Benson is at the University of Oregon and if he accepts will succeed C. A. Zeigler about June 1.

Word has been received here to the effect that Jimmie Hayden, who for some time was employed at McCurdy's and later at the Hotel barber shop, was now conducting a tonsorial parlor of his own at Reno. Jimmie has many friends here who wish him the best of success in his new venture.

Joseph Schmidt and son, Frank came in Sunday from the Vanderpool ranch, which they recently purchased. The Messrs. Schmidt are doing much in the way of grubbing sage brush and making other improvements about the place preparatory to putting in the season's crop.

R. B. Jackson yesterday informed an Examiner representative that the new hotel at Paisley would open between the 10th and 15th of this month and that they expected to have the electric light plant in operation by June 1. The furniture for the hotel has arrived and already a few rooms are in use.

The residence of S. P. Dicks, 10 miles north of Lakeview, together with all of its contents, was destroyed by fire a week ago last Friday. The fire is supposed to have resulted from a defective flue, inasmuch as when first discovered the entire roof was ablaze. The loss is about $2500, with no insurance.

Messrs. Bailey, Thornton, Massingill, and Foster, who were reported last week to have gone to Paisley on a fishing trip, changed their minds and made L. P. Kleppel's new artesian well their destination. Of course the fact that the fish were "not biting" had nothing to do with the facts in the case.

Archie Williams, who has a homestead along the edge of the lake, has built a 14-foot boat, and Sunday last, put it in commission. The launching was witnessed by J. G. Campbell and son and was highly successful. Archie's residence is now surrounded by water and the boat is an absolute necessity.

A small blaze was discovered by Loyd Hickerson in the Post & King building Monday. The fire was beneath the floor of the second story and is presumed to have been caused by defective wiring. But little damage resulted, although it was a narrow escape from what might have been a very destructive fire.

It has been announced that William H. Cobb, of San Francisco, Francis J. Heney's partner, is to be appointed assistant attorney general of the interior department, succeeding Judge Lawlor. Secretary Fisher, Senator Perkins and Congressman Kahn have strongly urged that the position be given to Cobb.

Work on the Odell ranger station two miles from Crescent is progressing rapidly under the direction of Superintendent Ireland. The force, as soon as the station and barns are finished, will begin on the supervisor's office and barns at Crescent. A number of assistant forest rangers have been appointed the past few weeks, among them being J. L. Ringo and Fred LaFollette.

V. C. Berney and Miss Carrie P. Bass were married at the Methodist parsonage Sunday morning last, Rev. Melville T. Wire officiating. The young people last week entered lands at Summer Lake, the former a desert entry and the latter a homestead, where they will make their home. They left for their former home at Seattle, on their honeymoon trip, expecting to be absent several weeks.

Among the out of town people who registered at the Hotel Lakeview during the past week were Peter Doehr and B. R. Gardner, of Reno; C. B. Marshall and T. J. Kennedy, of Omaha; W. J. Helfer, of Oakland; R. B. Oronsidy, B. F. Thomas and J. S. Lindig, of San Francisco; S. B. Humill, of Chicago; H. Berney, of Denver; S. Poindexter, of Alturas; C. S. Crosby and Bessie Chilquin, of Klamath Falls.

Many Oregon teachers are to attend the next meeting of the National Educational association to be held at San Francisco July 8th. Arrangements are now being completed by State Superintendent L. R. Alderman for a special train to carry the Oregon teachers to the July meeting. Mr. Alderman says it is an opportunity they cannot afford to lose, and that every teacher in the state should arrange to accompany the excursion.

Vint Miller, son of F. M. Miller, has again made good at Mt. Tamalpais Military Academy, he having captured a full scholarship this year. The scholarship is awarded to but one out of every 100 students, and hence in order to secure one the standing must necessarily be very high. Next year Vint will attend the University of California, and will probably take a course in commercial law.

New Pine Creek Items

Concluded from first page.

The G.G.G. Club presented the play "Six Kleptomaniacs" at New Pine Creek last week to a fair sized crowd. They advertised only one day ahead. This was too short notice to let every one know. Come again, girls, but give us a little longer notice of your coming.

Miss Isabelle Knapp, of Washington, D. C., will arrive here in about two weeks to spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Patterson.

The May day Ball was postponed on account of the serious illness of Miss Grace Gillett at the home of Dr. Amsden. This ball was to be a benefit ball and will be given at some future date.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE EXAMINER

C. O. MISENER

Farm Lands
Orchard Lands
Timber Lands
Stock Ranches

LAKEVIEW :: OREGON

AMERICAN BEAUTY CORSETS

When you purchase a corset you want one that has

STYLE

It is equally important that the same corset be

COMFORTABLE

and if you can also have one that

WEARS WELL

and that corset can be bought at a

REASONABLE PRICE

ONE DOLLAR UP

you have all the requisites of a splendid corset.

AGENTS:

THE PARISIAN MILLINERY

MAIN STREET, West of Court House

An adv in the Examiner will bring results. Try it and be convinced.

We Now Present the Spring Showing

OF LaVOGUE SUITS

LA VOGUE SUITS are fashioned from the creations of the most famous clothing makers of the old world style centers, Berlin, Paris and Vienna. Each garment shows the refinement of taste and style.

We have the exclusive sale of these garments in this territory and add our recommendation to the guarantee of the manufacturers. We want you to consider this announcement a personal invitation to inspect our display.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.