

SOUTHERN OREGON REALTY COMPANY

E. R. PATCH, GENERAL MANAGER

GENERAL REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Improved and Unimproved Farms

Homesteads

City Property

We Specialize Fruit Lands

Lake County Examiner

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1911.

BRIEF MENTION

Pure Grape and Pineapple juice at The Frost.

For something good to eat and drink see Cloud's window.

A. O. Kelly, the Plush miner, came over during Circuit Court week.

Ed Calderwood, of Adel, was a visitor here all this week.

Get prices on flour at Bonanza before buying elsewhere.

"Farmer" Greene is paying his usual Spring visit to this section.

Young lady wishes work as household help. Apply at this office.

Joe Ambrose, of the West Side, was one of Saturday's visitors to town.

Walter Howard was in from Drews Valley this week on a visit business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riggs were over from Plush this week after supplies.

W. J. Pitts has accepted a position with N. P. Jensen, the electric light man.

Mrs. Pearl Ingram and son were in last week from Salt Creek for a short visit.

Mrs. Anna M. Neilon paid Davis Creek and Alturas a business visit this week.

Tom Ferris, who hails from Warner Lake, is now enjoying a few days locally.

H. M. Fleming, the well known Pine Creek merchant, was one of Tuesday's visitors.

John Ward and Sig Anderson, of the Point Ranch, were in town last week for supplies.

Perl Ingram, of the Forest Service, came in last week from Salt Creek to mark timber.

Ray Scott was another of the Warner people who appeared in our midst during this week.

J. A. Morris and C. B. Parker were included in the Warner delegation in town this week.

Charles Mahan came in Saturday from the O.V.L. dam, where he has been employed.

If you want White or Brown Leghorn eggs for setting see Elmer Ahlstrom, $1.50 per setting.

J. F. Landon, who has a homestead in the Chewaucan Valley, was in town during the week.

Gill Arthur, of the West Side, on Monday made one of his regular weekly visits to town.

R. L. Wade, who has leased the Amick place at New Pine Creek, was in town yesterday.

Manuel Sanders, the well known sheep man, last week came in on business from Abert Lake.

C. A. Nelson, of the Drews Valley section, came in Monday for the Circuit Court proceedings.

Dan Chandler, the well known stockman was in town this week spending a few days with his folks.

John Flynn, the local business man, returned last week after several days visit to Plush and Adel.

Jos. Konop, a well known Klamath Falls butcher, is among the witnesses called in the Carroll case.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Green and children, Willie and Fay, were up from New Pine Creek Tuesday.

La Vogue suits are shown in a large range of styles for ladies and misses. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Mrs. A. R. Berry and Miss Kate Dutton came up from Davis Creek on a visit to Lakeview friends.

C. W. Jennings, the Valley Falls merchant and real estate dealer, came in Tuesday on a business trip.

Martin Lauritzen, the Paisley stockman, came down Sunday, having been summoned on the Grand Jury.

C. S. Stone, who has leased the Young ranch on the West Side, Saturday came in on a business trip.

You can be sure of service and workmanship in the La Vogue suits. Lakeview Mercantile Company.

I. L. Hale, a well known resident of the Summer Lake section, this week registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

D. B. Conrad, of Plush, was one of the many one pleasant callers at the Examiner office during the past week.

Mrs. D. W. Cleland, of Plush, was one of Tuesday's arrivals here. She was accompanied by her son, Jimmie.

Harvey Northup, who is in charge of the ZX ranch at Abert Lake, came down last week for a load of supplies.

Miss Laura Snelling has returned after a several days visit at Cedarville with her sister, Mrs. Charles Faulkner.

E. O. Lamb, the Paisley stockman, was among the list of northerners who appeared in our midst during the week.

C. M. O'Neil is over from Klamath Falls, being attorney for J. D. Carroll, who is charged with larceny by bailee.

J. A. McMillan, T. H. Shannon and J. Marshall, all of Klamath Falls, Tuesday registered at the Hotel Lakeview.

Gabriel Arzner and Michael Rau, of the Auger Creek district, were among last week's visitors to Lakeview.

Clay and Claud Lawson, of Pine Creek, were among the many who came up from down the valley during the week.

Earl Abbott, of the Forest Service, was in from the Dog Lake country during the week on business before the local office.

Lee Beall will in a few days leave on a visit to his old home near Medford. He will be absent a month or six weeks.

La Vogue garments never disappoint. Many of the smartest effects originated in Paris. Lakeview Mercantile Co.

Phil Lynch, the Warner Valley stockman and rancher, came over Sunday from Plush to attend the Circuit Court proceedings.

Pat Murphy, who is known throughout the county, came over from Plush Sunday to attend the Circuit Court proceedings.

Carl Ewing, of the Forest Service arrived here Tuesday from Silver Lake for a short visit. He was accompanied by his wife.

Preparations are now being made to harvest the wool crop, and before long the festive shepherd will no doubt be in evidence.

F. M. Miller Sunday drove his car to Alturas. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heryford and Mrs. Anna M. Neilon.

George Newcombe, who has a homestead and blacksmith shop in the vicinity of Valley Falls, Monday came to town for supplies.

Ernest Hamilton, who for sometime past has resided at Creswell, Oregon, has returned here and expects to remain permanently.

Tom Young, who has been employed at the O.V.L. dam, returned there Monday with his family after a several weeks visit in town.

La Vogue fit is guaranteed. All suits are made on live models and personally inspected. Lakeview Mercantile Company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heryford Monday morning defied the threatening weather and left on a visit to relatives and friends in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Powell, accompanied by Mrs. F. A. Remington, all of Lake, were among the many visitors here during the past week.

Until further notice the stores will remain open until eight o'clock Saturday evenings, which will give us all time to do our shopping.

Several large loads of shingles have been brought in from the Woods mill during the past week, and are now for sale by Auten & Rinehart.

The Good Time and Keemo Clubs had a very enjoyable dance last Friday evening. Quite a number were present and all had a pleasant time.

W. A. Dalzell and J. H. Driscoll were the first of the Klamath delegation to arrive in Lakeview, they being witnesses in the Carroll case.

Geo. Lewis, who has charge of the Klamath Falls-Bly division of the Western stage line, was shaking hands with old-time friends last week.

The Metzker house on Dewey Street is now being thoroughly remodeled, as well as raised, which will make it more comfortable in every way.

L. B. Hansen, a brother of J. F. Hansen, of local fame, arrived Thursday from Los Angeles and will probably remain here for sometime to come.

Phil Barry, the Guano Valley stockman, Sunday came in for a few days visit. He reports very little loss among his sheep during the past winter.

James Ryan, the timber cruiser and locator, came over from Klamath the fore part of the week, having been summoned as a witness in the Carroll case.

Father O'Malley, of the Catholic Church, Saturday returned from Klamath Falls where he remained for several days on a visit to Father Cunningham.

Jan McAuiliffe, who has been associated with T. O'Connell in the sheep business, has withdrawn from the partnership and is now employed about town.

A few more of the Plush delegation who put in an appearance here during the week were Frank Roggers, Willis Grizzell, Dave Cleland and C. E. Oliver.

Miss Ida Howard, who was with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Arthur, at San Francisco during the latter's illness, has returned to her home in Drews Valley.

Robert Snyder, of Willow Ranch was one of Saturday's visitors to Lakeview and while here took the opportunity to attend the dance at the Opera House.

Rev. Melville T. Wire, of the M. E. Church, will next Sunday evening answer the question, "Is the Golden Rule Practicable." Services begin at 8 o'clock.

The lobby of Hotel Lakeview has presented a lively scene each evening during the week. It is thronged with many people here in attendance at Circuit Court.

Albert Culbertson, who is well known locally, has accepted a position as Guard on the Fremont National Forest, and is now located in the vicinity of Salt Creek.

The Lakeview Land & Lumber Co., started their Camp Creek sawmill Monday and expect to turn out not less than 2,000,000 feet of lumber during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Corey, Saturday started for Portland, going by way of Silver Lake, Bend and Madras. Henry Newell drove them to the latter place in his auto.

Tom Sullivan, the Plush business man, Friday came into town to remain during Circuit Court proceedings. Tom is now feeling much better after his recent illness.

Mrs. A. Bieber the first of the week left for Oakland, Cal., to attend the graduating exercises at Mills Seminary, her daughter, Miss Dorothy, being one of the graduates.

A glance up and down our main street during the business hours any day would convince one that Warner Valley was well represented here. We are glad to see them.

C. E. Lonsway is now having renovated the interior of his recently purchased property, and he will probably open his new bakery and restaurant within a few weeks.

J. F. Ward was in from the Point Ranch the first of the week after supplies. He reports having seeded about 200 acres of grain and the outlook for a good crop is excellent.

Lee Emerson, who has a homestead at Salt Creek, came in this week to serve as a juror before the Circuit Court. He reports every thing proceeding nicely in his section.

Assistant Rangers Bradley and Frizzell, of the Forest Service, returned Sunday from the Dog Lake country where they were engaged in business in connection with the Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shirk Tuesday returned from San Francisco where the latter had been undergoing treatment at a hospital. Her health is greatly improved as a result of the trip.

Al Smith, manager of the Opera House, last week received a printing press on which he intends to turn out all programs, circulars, etc., for the various performances he will have.

Mrs. Geo. B. Whorton, who has been in California for several months, returned home the first of the week, accompanied by her son, Maloy. They were met at Alturas by Mr. Whorton.

Four fine stallions belonging to J. Frank Adams, the well known horseman and rancher at Merrill, are at the Mammoth Stables, and attract much attention from admirers of good horseflesh.

Hi Adams has been treating his many friends to frequent rides in his new E.M.F. 30. It is the first 1911 model to be seen here and has attracted much attention by its fine appearance.

Fred R. Neil, of Fort Klamath, was in town this week. He came over to look at some cattle, but the prices seemed a little high and at last accounts he had not made any purchases.

Daniel Boone has sold his residence property to Chas. Umbach, the consideration being $2000. Mr. Boone will probably remove to New Pine Creek next Fall where he will engage in business.

Andrew Morris, the Adel rancher, was in town Tuesday and remained several hours. He was accompanied by his son, Lloyd. Mr. Morris has moved to his Camas Prairie ranch for the Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Chrisman Sunday evening arrived from Silver Lake. It is Mrs. Chrisman's first visit to Lakeview for several years, and she received a warm welcome from her many friends.

An electric attractive sign has been installed in front of Thornton's Drug Store. Guy Causey, who erected the sign, is acting as the local agent and reports that he has many orders for them already.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Southstone, together with the former's mother, father and brother, who recently returned from Southern California, are now occupying the Heryford residence on Dewey street.

The lambing season is now on, and sheepmen report a most satisfactory increase in their bands. The weather has been fairly good, although quite severe storms occurred on at least two days of the past week.

A very nice dance was given Saturday night at the Opera House, about forty couples or more being present for the occasion. Quite a number of out of town boys were on hand, and all report an excellent time.

A fine lot of apples displayed in Mrs. Anna M. Neilon's window has attracted much attention during the week. They were raised on the John Briles ranch, and attest the keeping qualities of the fruit raised there.

The Linville house on Main Street last week underwent some repairs in the way of sheathing, etc., all of which will tend to make it more comfortable during the cold weather. The work was in charge of Charles Reed.

Mrs. Daniel Cronemiller, mother of F. P. Cronemiller, of the U. S. Land office, is expected home in a few days, after a prolonged stay in California, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jay Beach, of Sanger.

A. Bieber, the enterprising merchant has installed a $450 National Cash Register. Should it be found necessary, the register will take care of money returns for four clerks, there being that many separate compartments.

Mrs. W. B. Snider, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. G. M. Jones reached home Monday, after an absence of several months in Southern California. They came in by way of Klamath, covering most of the distance by auto.

Bidwell Nugget: D. P. Browne, head of the Warner Valley Land and Cattle Co., arrived in Bidwell last Thursday. He spent the winter in Berkeley at his winter home. Mrs. Brown remained and will follow later.

Mrs. Florence L. Payne, who has a desert claim in the artesian well belt at the northern end of Summer Lake, has let a contract for the sinking of two eight-inch pipes on the land. Work will commence on the same next week.

A representative of Dun's Commercial Agency was in Lakeview during the past week. He states that there has been a change during the past year of 98 per cent in business firms in his district, which is certainly going some.

The Wallace candy store has been removed to the Watson paint shop on Main Street, where it is now permanently located. Mr. Wallace has a very nice location, and there is no doubt but what he will make good in his new stand.

Something new in the line of a typewriter desk has been received at the Forest office and has been found to work very satisfactorily. It has a drop top to it, which allows the typewriter to be rolled back out of sight when not in use.

In one of our recent issues mention was made of a fence constructed at the Garrett residence by Tim McCarty and Irv Garrett. The fence has since fallen down, and the old sign "Chickens please keep out" has again been resorted to.

Something unique in the way of a plush lined box, made of two hundred and seventy one pieces of wood from cigar boxes, is now on exhibition in the window of Keene & Barnes' store. It is the work of Arthur Williams, who is selling chances on it.

A food sale was conducted Saturday afternoon at the Bailey & Massingill store, the affair being in charge of the ladies of the Methodist church. Cakes, cookies and other delicacies were disposed of by the ladies, and the sale was a decided success.

A big shipment of cement, to be used in the construction of the new Catholic Church, was received here last week. The work of cutting the necessary stone for the building will soon be completed, and the contractors have started putting in the foundation.

The usual large number of out of town people, who appear here during Circuit Court proceedings, may now be seen on our streets. They all seem to notice the way that Lakeview keeps improving, and many of them don't hesitate to tell us about it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Weal have taken charge of the "70" house in Drews Valley and will be prepared to accommodate the public with meals and beds hereafter. Mr. Weal spent several days in town during the past week and proved himself a very agreeable gentleman.

Several members have been recruited to the ranks of the Lake County Bachelor's Club, among the list being Guy Angstead and Tim McCarty. Both young men are well and favorably known hereabouts, and should have no trouble in making good with the fair sex.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Faulkner and two children Saturday came over from Cedarville and are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling. Mr. Faulkner has not been feeling well for sometime past and expects shortly to make a trip to southern California points.

Chas. M. Faulkner, who came over from Cedarville a few days ago, reports everything booming in our neighboring valley. Crops never looked better, while the Cowhead Irrigation Project, which is now an assured fact, has caused quite a stir among the people generally.

The first through auto trip between Klamath Falls and Lakeview was made Sunday by J. D. and Perl Carroll, C. M. O'Neil and James Ryan. W. L. Clapp brought them out as far as Quartz Valley, where they were met by Morris Southstone who brought them to Lakeview.

$600 CASH $600

Five-acre Home within the limits of Lakeview, $1000 worth of improvements on the place.

A nice slightly location for a home.

$600 Cash, balance to suit.

See it before you buy any other place.

Farm Lands, Lakeview Homes
Vacant Lots
Houses for Rent

H. B. ALGER
Room 13
SNIDER BLOCK
Lakeview :: Oregon

AMERICAN BEAUTY CORSETS

When you purchase a corset you want one that has STYLE

It is equally important that the same corset be COMFORTABLE and if you can also have one that WEARS WELL and that corset can be bought at a REASONABLE PRICE ONE DOLLAR UP you have all the requisites of a splendid corset.

AMERICAN BEAUTY CORSETS have every one of these excellent features and many more. Every improvement as exacted by fashion is combined in these dainty garments.

AGENTS:
THE PARISIAN MILLINERY
MAIN STREET, West of Court House

An adv in the Examiner will bring results. Try it and be convinced.

We Now Present the Spring Showing

OF

LaVOGUE SUITS

LA VOGUE SUITS are fashioned from the creations of the most famous clothing makers of the old world style centers, Berlin, Paris and Vienna. Each garment shows the refinement of taste and style.

We have the exclusive sale of these garments in this territory and add our recommendation to the guarantee of the manufacturers. We want you to consider this announcement a personal invitation to inspect our display.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.